ROSELLE KNOTT IN THE "AWAKENING OF HELENA RICHIE" AT HEILIG

The Charming Actress Roselle Knott and Her Splendid Supporting Company Will present the romantic comedy, "The Awakening of Helena Richie," at the Heilig Theatre, 7th and Taylor streets Friday and Saturday nights, September 13-14 with a bargain price matinee Saturday.

Roselle Knott in "The Awakening of Helena Richie," Heilig Theatre September 13-14.

For entertainment and deep interest, "The Awakening of Helena Richie" is the preeminent attraction of the American stage today. It is the strongest romance based on a human theme, has had extended engagement in New York, Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia, and is now enjoying its third road tour to exceptional business throughout the country.

It will be seen at the Heilig Theatre, Friday and Saturday, September 13th and 14th, with special bargain price matinee Saturday.

This is a play that appeals to everyone. The habitual theatre goer, the young man about town, the young ladies, and, in fact, everybody enjoys Helena to the full extent. It is a distinct novelty, so far as its theme is concerned. The plot was conceived by Margaret Deland and the dramatization made by Charlotte Thompson, a well known newspaper woman of San Francisco. Even in these days of lavish expenditure, the settings of Helena are incomparable.

The company which will present this play is headed by Roselle Knott, best remembered here for her excellent performance of Mary Tudor in "When Knighthood Was in Flower."

It is safe to say that there is not a person who would not be glad to see "The Awakening of Helena Richie." The play has been commended by educators, clergymen, the press and general public wherever it has been presented. It is a truly American production and appeals to all really genuine Americans.

The prices for this engagement are: First 11 rows Orchestra, $1.50; Last rows Orchestra, $1.00. First 5 rows Balcony, 75 cents, balance of Balcony, 50 cents. Gallery 35 cents and 25 cents.

Special Bargain Price Matinee, Saturday, entire lower floor, 50 cents. Entire Balcony, 25 cents.

THE BAKER PLAYERS

Season's Opening of Popular Amusement Organization Takes Place Today

When the box office of the Baker Theater opened Wednesday morning a long line of people were waiting, many of whom had been there all night, and some a dozen or so of the most enthusiastic women and matinee girls had been there nearly the entire day before. No better proof of the immense popularity of Manager Baker's Stock Companies with the people of Portland could be found than this. An entirely new organization has been announced—all new faces and names, (all with the exception of Alice Fleming and William Bernard) never heard of before by the greatest majority of local playgoers. These two familiar names would do much to assure success, but it is very doubtful if they alone would be enough to attract as long a line of seat-buyers as is found at the opening of the sale for the biggest stars of the country when they appear here. No. It is simply the confidence, won by long years of earnest endeavor by I. L. Baker, that the theater going public of this city, and from all forecasts he is now in line for the biggest and most successful season he has ever known. Today the new company will make its initial bow on the stage of the Baker, the opening bill being Helen Ware's highly successful play, "The Deserters," in which this clever star appeared at the Hudson Theater of New York. It was chosen for the opening play of the Baker Players because of the many strong parts, thrilling, dramatic plot and interesting action. It is not a military play as the title would imply, although several characters belong to the regular army and one act takes place at a post in Kansas. The big action is in old San Francisco, along the famous Barbary Coast, and the plot deals with the tracking down of a supposed murderer by a young woman detective. There will be matinee every Sunday, Wednesday and Saturday at the Baker this season, and the immensely successful Bargain Nights will be given every Monday. These, with the already low prices announced should do much to warrant a highly successful financial season for the Baker Players.

Mrs. W. H. Humphrys of Victoria, B. C., has arrived in Oregon City, where he is visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Humphrys was a resident of Ore. City 21 years ago before leaving for British Columbia, and is surprised at the wonderful progress the city has made, and says she would not know the city of 21 years ago when she made her home here. Mrs. Humphrys will remain in this city for several weeks. She is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Jonathan Humphrys, of this city, and aunt of Fred W. Humphrys and J. R. Humphreys of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Iskeit and family who have been in this city visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Freese, of John Quincy Adams street, have returned to their home at Dupont, Wash., where Mr. Iskeit holds a responsible position with the Dupont Powder Works. Mr. Iskeit is a veteran of the American-Spanish War, and at the close of the war came to this city, where he made his home with his sister, Mrs. Freese for two years, after which he went East, where he resided for eight years. For some time he was located at Roach Harbor, Wash., before going to Dupont. This is Mr. Iskeit's first visit in this city for ten years, and he has noted many changes and improvements in the city. While in this city they enjoyed many side trips with Mr. and Mrs. Freese.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Parberry, son George C. Parberry and daughter Miss Mary, have arrived in Oregon City from Colorado Springs, and will make their future home in this city, having rented the residence on Washington street vacated by W. A. Shewman and family. Mr. and Mrs. Cushing, the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parberry, and their young son, Stearns, have also moved to this city from Fowler, Colorado, and for the present are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Parberry. Mrs. George C. Parberry will arrive in this city within a few days to make her home also. Mr. Parberry and family are much pleased with Oregon and have decided to make their permanent home in this state.

M'Loughlin School TO START TOMORROW

The M'Loughlin Institute will open tomorrow with what promises to be the largest attendance in the history of the school. The school has eight grammar grades and two high school grades. Rev. A. Hildebrand, pastor of the church, said Saturday that many applications had been received and he believes the institution will have its most successful year. The school is for all pupils irrespective of their religious beliefs. German is taught in the lower grades and Latin and German in the High School grades.

YOU are most cordially invited to attend a Laurel Stove Exhibition, September 9th to 14th, 1912.

We'll show you through a transparent top how a Laurel Twin-Flue Range heats six griddles without heating the oven; the oven without heating the reservoir, or the reservoir without heating the oven.

Mr. Frank Herron of New York will be here to demonstrate the Laurel Range. Be sure and come and try a biscuit baked in three minutes in a Laurel Range which is not attached to a chimney.

We'll also explain why a Laurel Range takes one-third less fuel than other kinds. Remember the dates the growers, the crops under their contracts, being worth little if anything more than the cost of picking, but reports say that in all probability speculators will buy up the abandoned yards, gather the crops and market them for whatever they will bring. Such action will of course have a bearish effect on the market.

In the Salem district the damage to the crop brought about by the bad weather appears to be more serious than in some other parts of the Valley. Some of the growers say that at least 25 per cent of the crop of that section will be ruined, the rest there suffering the injury already done through mold and making it all but impossible to get the damaged crops under cover in a satisfactory way.

Picking is being pushed as fast as possible in all parts of the valley, but there has been some rain almost every day last week, and this has made the work so unpleasant for the pickers that many of them have left the fields and returned to their homes. In many fields distant from the centers where pickers were available, the growers started the harvest with short forces and have been working short handed all the week.

In California similarly unfavorable conditions are reported, the heaviest rains ever known at this time of the year having fallen this week in some of the leading hop producing districts of that state. In the Stomox section it is said that a very large portion of the vines are down as a consequence of the unusual storms. New York also reports unfavorable weather, with the estimates of the yields of that state reduced as a result.

M. O. EVANS TO MAKE AGRICULTURAL SURVEY

M. O. Evans, Jr., of Corvallis, working under the direction of the State Immigration Commission and Oregon Statistical Bureau will be in this vicinity the first of next week. Complete and detailed reports are being written of a large number of ranches in each county in order that information may be available which will show prospective settlers just about what they can reasonably expect to do in any line of agricultural activity in any county of Oregon. Complete reports and expenses of production of 1911 are desired.

It takes five different aged whiskies to make Cyrus Noble—each one good in itself. But it takes blending and re-aging to bring out the best in each—to "round out" the flavor.

Why punish yourself with rough, high-proof, strong whiskey when you can get Cyrus Noble everywhere?
