GEN. SICKLES AIDED BY FORMER WIFE

WOMAN PAWNS JEWELS TO PAY DEBTS OF CIVIL WAR HERO

RELICS AND RARE BOOKS AT STAKE

Ropes of Pearls, Heavy Bands of Gold Set With Diamonds, and Bracelets are Among Gems Pledged

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The priceless collection of art objects, relics and rare editions belonging to General Daniel E. Sickles, which recently was ordered sold under the sheriff's hammer to satisfy an $8000 judgment was saved today. The judgment was paid at the cost of humiliation and sacrifice on the part of the woman of noble Spanish birth whom the general married 41 years ago, but from whom he has been estranged for twenty-seven years.

That the husband with whom she could not find happiness might not know the secret of parting with his loved books and works of art, this woman took her jewels, tokens of the days of her youth, when she was a belle at the Spanish court, and passed them over the counter of a Sixth Avenue pawnshop this afternoon.

She parted with enough gems to draw from the coffers of the lender the money needed to satisfy the judgment against General Sickles' relic. Accompanied by her son, Stanton, Mrs. Sickles went to the offices of the Knickerbocker Trust Company soon after noon and took away a pasteboard box containing her jewels. The two then proceeded to the pawnshop. There, with trembling hand Mrs. Sickles broke the string that bound the cover to the little box she laid on the counter.

Tears trickled down her cheeks. Her son stood by her side, his head bowed. Mrs. Sickles took the jewels from the box one by one. There were ropes of pearls, heavy bands of gold set with diamonds and bracelets and brooches of antique design.

WOMAN SLAIN BY JIU JITSU BLOW

ATTORNEY GIBSON HELD AS MURDERER OF MRS. SZABO IN NEW YORK

CORONER HAS STARTLING THEORY

Woman's Breath, He Declares, Was Stopped by Athletic Trick Invented By Japanese Fighters

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Burton W. Gibson, the New York lawyer, whose client, Rosa Menschik Szabo, lost her life while boating with him on Greenleaf Lake, N. Y., on July 16, was taken in custody today by Deputy Sheriff DeGraw of Orange County on a warrant charging Gibson with murder in the first degree. Gibson was arrested in his office.

Gibson declared his innocence as he was about to leave his home in Rutherford, N. Y., for this city, where Deputy Sheriff DeGraw of Orange County was prepared to arrest him as soon as he set foot on New York soil.

Dr. Schultze, coroner's physician of this city, swore that Mrs. Szabo was so injured before she fell into the water that she never breathed after she had sunk below the surface. The surgeon said there were tricks of jiu jitsu, whereby Mrs. Szabo could have suffered a sharp blow on the throat which so affected a nerve as to close her air passage, thereby making it impossible for her to breathe.

ing, trailed by private detectives and a squad of reporters. As he walked through the streets to his office a crowd of several hundred persons followed him. Gibson, with a private detective, went to his office and awaited the arrival of Deputy Sheriff DeGraw. Gibson said to the detective:

"I should like very much to go to Middletown and surrender myself if it can be arranged. Cannot you see the sheriff and have this done in as gentle a way as possible?"

The detective said that he would talk to DeGraw when he arrived. The detective waited for some time and then, leaving Gibson in company of the newspaper men, remarked: "I guess I have to go and hunt up DeGraw. He seems to be lost."

Gibson's statement, reasserting his innocence and insisting that there had been no struggle either in the boat or in the water, says:

AUTO CLUB WORKS FOR BETTER ROADS

SOUTHERN PACIFIC WILL BE ASKED TO REMOVE POSTS AT TRESTLE CROSSING

PACIFIC HIGHWAY PLAN INDORSED

Committee Is Named to Work In Conjunction With One Appointed Recently By the Live Live Wires

The Clackamas County Automobile Club, at a meeting Thursday night, decided to ask the Southern Pacific Railway management to remove the posts in the middle of the street at the crossing at Twelfth Street. It also was decided to request the city authorities of Gladstone to repair the streets in that city which were recently excavated for water pipes. Attention was called to quagmires in the road north of Oak Grove and near Milwaukie. It was decided to ask the County Court to make the repairs. Announcement was made that the Court planned to repair the road between this city and Oswego. W. R. Logus, John Risley and William Sheahan were appointed a committee to cooperate with a committee named by the Live Wires to work for the improvement of the Pacific Highway. A report will be made at the next meeting.

The Club is pleased with the improvement made by the Southern Pacific at the crossing between this city and Parkplace. The meeting was presided over by Dr. Hugh S. Mount, President. Charles Risley is Vice-President and R. C. Barker is secretary.

HORSE STOLEN IN THIS CITY RECOVERED

The horse stolen last Monday night from the courthouse hitching rail was found Wednesday at Wilsonville, and Deputy Sheriff Miles went out and brought it to Oregon City. The horse is owned by Dell McCormack, of Mount Pleasant, and was stolen by a young man aged about eighteen years who attempted to cross at the Wilsonville ferry on Wednesday without paying. After leaving the ferry he removed the saddle and bridle from the horse and turned the animal loose. Sheriff Mac recovered the saddle and bridle.

WIFE, SING, SAYS LIFE WAS THREATENED

Circuit Judge Campbell Thursday granted Clara Swales a decree of divorce from Eli Swales and Mabel J. Patterson a decree from C. C. Patterson. Alleging that her husband frequently threatened her life Margaret A. Gran filed suit for divorce against Albert F. Gran. They were married in Portland, November 4, 1903. The plaintiff charges that her husband took their six-year old child into a saloon in 1910. They formerly lived at 20 East Eleventh Street, North Portland. "It's a Laurel"

YOU are most cordially invited to attend a Laurel Stove Exhibition, Friday and Saturday. We'll show you through a transparent top how a Laurel Twin-Flue Range heats six griddles without heating the oven; the oven without heating the reservoir, or the reservoir without heating the oven.

Mr. Frank Herron of New York is here to demonstrate the Laurel Range. Be sure and come and try a biscuit baked in three minutes in a Laurel Range which is not attached to a chimney. We'll also explain why a Laurel Range takes one-third less fuel than other kinds.

BEWARE! THIS IS FRIDAY, THIRTEENTH

Beware! This is Friday the thirteenth. If you are superstitious and courting bad luck you will certainly have it today. The following suggestions are timely; If you own an automobile and go motoring today it would be well not to try to run over the Shasta Limited. If you have a case in court do your best to get a postponement. If you have appendicitis wait until tomorrow to have your vermiform appendix made nil. If you can't get out of playing billiards take on an easy man like John Cooke or J. E. Hedges. Ignore, by all means, all of Charley Babcock's invitations to play. And for goodness sake, don't find the book the Colonel lost in Portland, for if you do, you will go to the penitentiary for life. Governor West, of course, will see that there are no hangings.

MISS EDITH SMITH HURT IN R. R. WRECK

Miss Edith Smith, who accompanied her sister, Miss Anna Smith to Vancouver, B. C., where they visited friends and relatives and also to Seattle, returned to Oregon City Thursday morning. Miss Smith was in the train that was wrecked four miles west of Winlock, Wash. Her face was cut, and she received bruises on the head, shoulder and body. The coach in which she was seated left the track and she escaped through a rear door. Many were injured in the wreck but now one was killed. Several of the coaches rolled down an embankment turning almost completely over. The car on which Miss Smith was riding was saved from going over the embankment by several large trees and underbrush. The train was going at a high speed. Miss Smith will not be able to resume her position in the county recorder's office for several days owing to her injuries.
