Speakers, Returning to Headquarters, Give Fine Reports—Chairman Says Sentiment is Changing

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Next week the voice of Taft orators will be heard throughout the western states. There is some speechmaking now in progress, but beginning next Monday a widespread campaign will be inaugurated.

P. H. Langford, who has made many a campaign, will spend two weeks in Indiana and J. A. Troutman, a well-known attorney of Topeka, will be in Iowa. Judge O. J. Page, of Marion, Ill., is scheduled to speak at Cairo September 25, and it is expected that ex-Lieutenant-Governor Harding of Ohio, who delivered the Taft nomination speech at the Chicago convention will speak at Detroit on the night of September 24. Dr. J. Wesley Hill, who has been speaking in Michigan, will continue in that state until he joins Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, in opening the Ohio campaign September 21.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY PROHIBITIONISTS TO HOLD CONVENTION IN KNAPP'S HALL

O. H. STILLMAN TO MAKE SPEECH

Vote for Party in Vermont Election Gives Members Encouragement—Meeting Starts at 10:00 O'clock

The Prohibitionists of Clackamas County will hold their County Convention in Knapp's Hall today. The first session will be called to order at 10 o'clock in the morning. There also will be afternoon and evening sessions.

O. A. Stillman, of Salem, candidate for Congressional Representative, will speak in the evening. Mr. Stillman is a fluent speaker, and the public is invited to hear him. This is expected to be the largest gathering of the kind ever held in Oregon City. All Prohibitionists have a voice in the Convention. The leaders declare the Prohibition Party was the first advocate of international arbitration, direct vote of United States Senators, initiative, referendum and recall, woman's suffrage, six years single Presidential term, graduated income and inheritance taxes, and national conservation. They say it is the original and only real "Progressive Party."

The party got a larger vote in Vermont this year than ever before and the leaders say the vote in all the states will show a similar increase.

MORPHEUS AIDED BY CITY COUNCIL

SLEEP-ELECTROCUTING NOISES TO BE OBIVIATED ON UPPER MAIN STREET

"T" RAIL WILL PREVENT SQUEAKING

Recorder Authorized to Make Report Regarding Legal Phase of Railway Posts Under Trestle in Street

Having all the consideration in the world for the nerves of the residents of Main Street between Moss and the Abernethy Bridge the city council at a special meeting Friday night, decided to urge the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company to lay the "T" rail on that section of the street, which is to be repaired soon. Attention was called to the hideous noises that are made by freight trains late at night that run over the thoroughfare where the groove rail is laid. It was declared that noises would be obviated by the use of the "T" rail. Upon motion of Councilman Tooze a former motion was adopted to lay the groove rail was expunged from the record. The chairman of the street committee announced that residents of the street favored the "T" rail and some had gone even so far as to declare they would ask for an injunction against the laying of the groove rail.

Mayor Dimick presided over the meeting, the following councilmen being present: Horton, Tooze, Albright, Beard, Holman and Roake. Upon motion of Councilman Tooze it was decided to have an extra guard board on the railing of the Madison Street Bridge. The street committee was instructed to give the matter attention at once.

The council refused to grant a request to Mr. Mullan, who is desirous of erecting a board walk in front of his property on Sixteenth Street. The council has decided that walks on this street must be of concrete.

At a former meeting of the council Councilman Tooze suggested that the Southern Pacific Railway be compelled to remove the posts under the middle span of the trestle at the Twelfth Street crossing. Recorder Stipp was authorized to make an investigation of the legal phases of the proposition and report at the next regular meeting of the council. The Clackamas County Automobile Club has gone on record as having favored having the posts removed.

CLACKAMAS TO YIELD MUCH GREATER POWER

SALEM, Or., Sept. 13.—An application of George T. Holcomb to appropriate 1000 feet of the waters of Clackamas River for power purposes has been approved by the state engineer. This under the permit, will allow the generation of 15,000 horsepower. Under an application approved for D. P. Donovan, of Payette, Idaho, recently, 15,000 horsepower is also to be generated from that river. These two proposed plans with the Cazadero and River Mill plan of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company will give an aggregate of 116,000 horsepower developed on that stream.

Another application for the generation of 6,500 horsepower from the waters of the North Fork of the Santiam River has also been approved. A number of other applications have been received and approved, including one from a farmers' organization headed by F. C. Oxman, which asks for water for the irrigation of 1500 acres near Huntington.

CHILDREN EAGER TO WORK FOR EDUCATION

Many boys and girls living in the country and desirous of attending the Oregon City Schools have appealed to Superintendent Tooze to find them places in homes where they may earn their board. There were several pupils last year who worked in homes while attending school, and in almost every instance they did well in their studies. Persons who are willing to aid boys and girls in obtaining educations by giving them homes for the work they may do about the house are urged to communicate with Mr. Tooze. The superintendent says there are many children of poor families, who will not be able to obtain educations unless they are given an opportunity to work their way through school.

HORSES ENGAGED FOR COUNTY FAIR

O. E. Freytag, who will have charge of the agricultural exhibit at the county fair at Canby, September 25, 26, 27 and 28, visited the Harvest Fair at Vancouver, Wash., Thursday afternoon. Mr. Freytag states that the agricultural exhibit was exceedingly good. He made arrangements for five horsemen to enter horses at the Clackamas County Fair. These horses are among the best that are now on the western track, and no doubt will add much to the attractions of the coming fair.

CHERRYVILLE FIGHTS TO KEEP POST OFFICE

Frank R. Rhodes, president of the Cherryville Commercial Club, has asked the assistance of the Portland Commercial Club to prevent the Cherryville Postoffice being discontinued. An order was issued ten days ago to that effect by the postal authorities and will put the Cherryville office out of commission September 30. The people of Cherryville are much wrought up over the matter and the Portland Commercial Club Friday wrote to Oregon's United States Senators asking them to secure if possible a revocation of the order. Cherryville people feel that an injustice will be done them, as their office has been in existence the last ten years and Sandy, the nearest postoffice is seven miles distant.

WOMAN FLEES FIRE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Howard, near the junction of Sandy and Zigzag River, in the Mount Hood district, known as the Howard Hotel, was destroyed by fire, and Mrs. Howard, who was alone at the time, barely escaped with her life. Fire started in the lower story from sparks from the fireplace, after Mrs. Howard had retired for the night in an upper room. She escaped by a side window.

SUIT FOR $7,300

ON NOTE IS FILED

S. M. Mann Friday filed suit against Paul and Grace Reimers for $7,300, alleged to be due on a note. A foreclosure is asked.

MRS. WILSON DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Grace Wilson, wife of E. R. Wilson, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Loney, who live near the Burley & Stafford Mill, about three miles from this city, Thursday afternoon from catarrh of the bronchial tubes.

Mrs. Wilson was born on October 14, 1889, at Lewiston Idaho and in August 1907 she and Mr. Wilson were married. They came to Oregon City last October with her parents where they have since resided. Mrs. Wilson traveled a great deal for the benefit of her health but she gradually failed until her death.

Mrs. Wilson is survived by her husband, who has been at Bend, Oregon, where he is employed, and arrived here Friday evening to attend the funeral; one little daughter, Dorothy, aged 2 1/2 years; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Loney; two sisters, Miss Ada Loney and Miss Nefa Loney, who all reside about three miles from this city. She is also survived by her grandfather, Henry Loney, of Oregon City and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Barrows, Praser, Idaho.

The funeral will be conducted from the family residence today at 10:30 o'clock, and will be conducted by Mrs. A. O. Freel of the Christian Science Church of this city. The interment will be in the Mountain View Cemetery, and the remains will arrive there about 12 o'clock. As Mrs. Wilson was a believer in the Christian Science faith it was her wish that the funeral services be conducted by this denomination.

MAN HURT IN MILL GETS $2000 VERDICT

A jury in Circuit Judge Campbell's Court Friday awarded the plaintiff a verdict of $2,005 in the case of Victor Wasiljeff against the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company. The plaintiff sued for $10,000 for alleged personal injuries. The plaintiff, while in the employ of the defendant, suffered serious injury to his right arm. He alleged that the arm was caught in a pulley as the result of negligence on the part of agents of the company. The company denied that it was negligent, and declares its employees were safeguarded as far as possible. Dimick & Dimick represented the plaintiff.
