Forks are easily disposed of, for the salad with several drunken men at Seventh fork, the smaller one, is last to be used and therefore nearest the plate. The method is to work from the outside in toward the center.

Butter plates are placed at the left, in front of the plate; glasses for water at the right. A good servant keeps glasses always filled and places fresh butter on the plates. Serving should be done from the left, except coffee, which should be placed at the right of the diner.

The proper form of addressing a mistress is, "Yes, madam," or "Yes, Mrs. Brown." If there are any doubts about a mistress' inclination to see guests a polite "I will inquire" after receiving the card of callers should be was in this city Friday evening vis- W. and Nellie Carson, land in section given. A polite, quiet demeanor is a requisite of a good servant. Neatness is another factor, and it were well to suggest that these two factors are de-

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

KEEP CLEAN INSIDE. Young man

That man who in your presence tries to tell a smutty story insults your soul Turn on your heel and leave him. Morally such a man attempts a crime that is meaner than that of reaching for your pocketbook. The motive for the crime may be lacking. He may not realize his offense. As a matter of fact, morally considered, he is guilty with dead men's bones This is a good rule for you:

your mother or your sister clean mind as spilled ink will soak into clean blotting paper. Permit no one to drag your mind through his sewer. Do you know many a grown man of today would sacrifice considerable to wipe clean from the tablets of his memory stories and suggestions he listened to when a boy?

I cannot think a real gentleman will take deliberate care to repeat a risque story in the presence of youth, He is meanness incarnate who would delight in daubing a coarse picture on a clean wall. No real gentleman will listen to or try to remember or to retell a story he would hesitate to repeat in the family circle.

Is the standard too high? You doubtless remember the just rebuke administered by General U. S. Grant to a thoughtless officer of staff who, starting to recite a vile tale, prefaced the attempt by saying, "I believe there are no ladies present," whereupon quickly retorted Grant:

"There are gentlemen present." It is of record that the tale went untold and thereafter no one durst attempt a questionable story in the presence of the silent soldier. Keep your mind unsullied. A foul suggestion, given audience by your permission, may lead you into habits of thought that, persisted in, will debauch your soul. Thought produces habit; habit hardens into character; character makes destiny.

Keep clean inside. It is of immeasurably greater importance that you should keep the dirt off your soul than off your clothes.

Limitations Admitted. "You don't figure on the possibilities of political change as you used to." "No," replied the old time expert. "I'm a pretty good prophet, but I am no lightning calculator."-Washington
