CONVENTION AT SALEM IS BEDLAM

Delegates are Accused of Applying "Gag-Rule" and All Other Things Politically Despicable

SALEM, Or., Sept. 17.—In a medley of debate, recrimination, charges of "gag rule" and the near allegation that members of the convention were acting as "boobs" the Roosevelt Progressive party state convention, which met here today, nominated practically a full state ticket, named A. Mulkey, and renamed all of the candidates for Presidential electors that were selected at the Portland meeting several weeks ago, including Dan Kellaher. The nominees follow:

DEMOCRATS PLAN VIGOROUS FIGHT

CANDIDATES FOR COUNTY OFFICES TO MAKE THOROUGH CAMPAIGN

ORATORY WILL HAVE INNING SOON

Party Leaders Declare Nominee for Representative in State Legislature Will Be Elected

The Democratic Central Committee at a meeting at Willamette Hall Tuesday, decided to do some "Bull Mooseing"—that is go out and ask the people to vote for the Democratic candidates in the county. There was a large attendance of members, candidates and sympathizers at the meeting, and W. C. P. Breckenridge, Joseph Clay Styles Blackburn or William Jennings Bryan never relieved themselves of any finer oratory than some of them exuded at the meeting. It was unanimously resolved that this was a "Democratic year", and, being so, there was no apparent reason why the Democrats of Clackamas County should not get all the slices of pie they wanted.

County Judge Beattie, Chairman, presided, and after a few preliminary motions had been disposed of, favorably, it was decided, unanimously, that the candidates of the party for county offices should stump the coun-

CONTRACT TO BUILD LIBRARY IS LET

JOHN SHELLAY PROMISES TO HAVE STRUCTURE COMPLETED IN NINETY DAYS

COST OF BUILDING TO BE $10,350

Successor of Miss Steinbaugh Will Be Chosen at Next Meeting—Several Applications Received

That the Carnegie Library in Seventh Street Park will be completed within ninety days is almost assured. The Library Committee, at a meeting at the Commercial Club Tuesday evening, let the contract for the building to John Shellay, of Portland, the cost to be $10,350. Mr. Shellay announced that he would start the work at once and thought the building would be ready for use by the first of next year or before.

The committee did not choose a successor to Miss Lenora Steinbaugh librarian, who has resigned on account of ill health and will visit relatives in Nebraska to recuperate. Several applications have been received and it is probable that a librarian will be chosen at the next meeting of the committee.

Andrew Carnegie has donated $12,500 for the building of the library and the money remaining after the erection of the building will be expended for furniture and books. The members of the committee attending the meeting Tuesday evening were J. E. Hedges, E. G. Caulfield, Miss Laura E. Beattie and Miss Myrtle Buchanan.

LIVE WIRES TO AID APPLE GROWING

COMMITTEE NAMED TO LEARN WHY FRUIT BRINGS INFERIOR PRICE

HEDGES STARTS LIVELY DISCUSSION

Bonded Indebtedness of Oregon City Reaches Limit—Council to be Urged to Have Vote on Question

That Clackamas County is destined to be one of the best fruit growing counties in the state was the consensus of opinion at a luncheon of the Live Wires Tuesday. J. E. Hedges, who introduced the subject, exhibited two specimens of Wolf River apples grown in the Garfield section. The apples were of good color and firm and were nearly perfect. Mr. Hedges said that the best price the growers of the apples could get was forty-five or fifty cents a box, while Hood River apples sold for $2.50 a box. He declared that the difference in price was largely due to the better packing of the Hood River apples, and that there was certainly not $2 difference in quality.

Dr. L. A. Morris said there was little encouragement for the growing of fine apples in Clackamas County. He denounced many fruit growers for not caring for their trees and said those who did were hampered by those who did not. He said one man might spray his trees and do everything possible to obtain the best results and insects and other blight from a neighbor's orchard that had not been given attention would result in his efforts being virtually wasted. The speaker said that the inspection of orchards could be improved, and urged that different methods be pursued.

Dr. Clyde Mount called attention to the apple exhibit in the Clackamas County display at the state fair, declaring that many points were lost because there was a lack of uniform packing. Livy Stimp said that the Hood River growers had profited by experience and that the Clackamas County growers would eventually learn how to obtain the best results and prices. A committee, composed of O. E. Freytag and O. D. Eby, was appointed to make an investigation and report at the next meeting of the Live Wires. It was unanimously agreed that first class apples could be grown in Clackamas County, if proper methods were adopted.

DISTINGUISHED MEN TO ADDRESS MOOSE

One of the most important meetings of the Oregon City lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose will be held Thursday evening in the Willamette Hall since the order was instituted in this city. The subject of discussion will be the choice of location for the new lodge and club rooms, which has been under debate for several weeks. The meeting on Thursday night will settle the matter definitely, and it is expected that all members will be present.

A number will be initiated Thursday evening, and the entertainment committee has promised something out of the ordinary in the way of amusement and refreshments, so that a good time is assured to all.

As a further attraction a contingent from the Portland lodge have chartered two coaches of the O. W. F. for the purpose of attending the meeting, among whom will be some of the most distinguished officers and members of the Portland brotherhood. Among those who will attend are Presiding Judge Morrow, Dictator of the Moose Herald, Judge Gatens, Past Dictator Horne, R. S. Beatty, the editor of the Moose Herald, a journal devoted to the interests of the Moose Lodges of the Pacific Northwest, B. E. Youmans, the district representative of the Supreme Dictator. Mr. Youmans is the first supreme officer that has visited the Oregon City Lodge since its inception.

CLUBS TO CONFER REGARDING RAILWAY

The Clubs at Viola, Clackamas Station, Harmony, Milwaukie, Sunnyside, and other districts in Clackamas County have been asked for a general conference meeting with the East Side Business Men's Club of Portland, over the matter of securing an electric railway connection with Portland, and the meeting will be arranged for some time in October. The plan is for each of these improvement clubs, of which there are ten at present, to send two representatives to this meeting and adopt plans of action looking toward securing an electric railway. The work of collecting statistics and photographs showing the resources and probable tonnage of the territory as far south as Wilhoit Springs from Clackamas Station has been done and the clubs are now prepared to use the material gathered to show that an electric line in that section will pay.

The members of Greenpoint Hose Co. No. 5 are requested to attend a Special Meeting to be held Wednesday night, Sept. 18. Business of importance to be transacted.

Said a Buyer of Gladstone Lots TO OUR AGENT SATURDAY

"I like your lots, the location is most ideal, and your water system leaves nothing to be desired in the way of modern improvements. Though I am only a wage earner, I can easily make the $5.00 monthly payment which you ask. But there is only one stumbling block—"

"And what is that?" asked our agent in surprise.

Simply this: "Suppose I should get sick, or, to be frank: Suppose I should die before my payments are completed?"

"If you get sick," answered our Gladstone agent, "We will let your payments slide for one, two, or even three months. That is one of the conditions of our contract. And if you should die before your payments are completed, we must, under the terms of our contract with you— pay back every penny of interest and principal if your representatives desire us to cancel the contract, or we will allow them to fulfill the conditions of your agreement, if they prefer to do so.

"That's not bad at all," answered the man, with a beaming smile. "Make out the papers."

We have about 150 of these ideal residence sites which we are selling out at terms to suit the purchaser. They are the finest locations in Gladstone.
