EMPLOYING INTERESTS

At a meeting recently held in Portland, which was attended by merchants, manufacturers, property owners and employers of all kinds, including also some large threshermen and agricultural interests, the subject of proposed legislation to come up before the electorate in November was discussed from a practical standpoint, and coming especially under the supervision of the meeting was that form of legislation, which is proposed and favored by the labor unions, as well as that which they violently oppose.

Amongst the latter was discussed the measure referring to boycotting and picketing, also one to regulate street speaking, which measures took up the time of the meeting most, and the consensus of opinion as expressed by the speakers, was that something should be done to regulate the pernicious activities of the street corner orator, who preaches discord, sedition, and who in his attacks against the government flag, the home and religion, saying that the condition of affairs as pertaining to the workman is due to the fact that the constituted form of society and government that we are working under is all wrong. This species of anarchist gives nothing that will take the place of society as it is at present but wishes merely to tear things to pieces, leaving it then for someone, or by chance some way, to supply a remedy.

Nightly these diatribes, against everything that is orderly and decent, take place on the street corners of our large as well as small cities, and the offensive epithets that are hurled at those who have accumulated some thing by persistent industry and economy, is becoming so galling that a measure is proposed by the employers of the state of Oregon which it is hoped may serve as a damper upon the foreign (oftentimes not citizen) agitator, who mistakes liberty for license.

The opinion was also brought out in the meeting that the boycott and the form of picketing usually adopted by labor leaders in cases of industrial strife were inimical to the best interests of any community, and that therefore the citizenry of the state of Oregon, especially those who had its welfare at heart, should approve a measure that would prevent this un-American and dastardly method of attack upon any employer who would not immediately give in to all of the demands of a walking delegate, or on an employee who saw fit to work and support himself or family, in his God give fight, as he chose.

From the tenor of the remarks made during the meeting it could be seen that not only was there much alarm felt regarding the trend of legislation in recent years, but that those who had by patient and careful conduct of their affairs laid by something for a rainy day, or who had by their initiative and foresight created a business, which was giving employment to labor, were highly exercised lest by reason of the unscrupulous politician, who lent ear to the more unscrupulous anarchistic leader and his cohorts, were to bring about a state of their affairs lair by something for business or jeopardize such holdings as they had by careful effort been able to accumulate.

Legislation as affecting business interests means also that the farmer, horticulturist and cattle raiser will be similarly affected, for they are all employers and property owners and must needs be a very important link in the general prosperity as regards economic and industrial affairs.—Pacific Northwest.

Persistent Advocate of Popular Rights

Editor Davey, of the Harney County News, says of the progressive record of Ben Selling, progressive Republican nominee for United States Senator: "Ben Selling was an earnest and persistent advocate of popular rights and privileges when the men who are now leading the noisy band of Roosevelt shouters were among the most hide-bound stand-patters, some of them going so far as openly to refuse as members of the Legislature to vote for the successful candidate of their own party for United States Senator, just to emphasize their opposition to the popular system of election."

Gov. West to Speak at Church Banquet

The first meeting of the Congregational Brotherhood to be held Tuesday evening, October 1, will have a program of great interest and practical value to its members. The presence of Governor West as the leading speaker of the evening will give the occasion special distinction and his speech on "Giving Light to Dark Places" will be awaited with great interest. In addition to this there will be a series of ten minute talks by several men, each chosen to present briefly the merits of one of the seven of the more important bills to be submitted to the people of Oregon at the coming election. Capital Punishment

Discussed by a Congressman and Two Prominent Women

By Mrs. CHAMP CLARK, Wife of Speaker of the House

I AM UNALTERABLY OPPOSED TO CAPITAL PUNISHMENT. I would not like to be responsible for taking what I could not give—HUMAN LIFE. If the victims of the electric chair could have been put at some public work, making ROADS or PARKS or other employment for the PUBLIC GOOD, how much better it would have been for SOCIETY.

By Mrs. LA FOLLETTE, Wife of Senator From Wisconsin

I AM OPPOSED TO CAPITAL PUNISHMENT ON GENERAL PRINCIPLES. CAPITAL PUNISHMENT tends to INCREASE rather than OBVIATE CRIME. I do not think the state ought to take HUMAN LIFE in the INTERESTS OF SOCIETY, for such EXECUTIONS have a most evil effect on the PUBLIC.

By Representative HENRY De LAMAR CLAYTON of Alabama

I AM GREATLY IN FAVOR OF MAINTAINING THE DEATH PENALTY AS PUNISHMENT FOR SUCH GRAVE FELONIES AS MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE, CRIMINAL ASSAULT AND OTHER GRIEVOUS CRIMES.

Although I have not discussed the question with many of my colleagues, it is my impression that most of them are of the SAME OPINION.
