MISS MARIE BURKE IN THE COMEDY, "POMANDER WALK" AT HEILIG THEATER, OCT. 3, 4, 5.

JOLLY BILLY CLIFFORD TO BE HERE

Billy (Single) Clifford's latest version of "The Girl, the Man and the Game" is justly termed a musical farce in two long laughs. Its plot is a consistent one in which there are many ludicrous situations and laughable complications. Added to this Billy has intertwined eighteen new songs that are fresh, bright and breezy, full of just the sort of melody that the public demands. This clever form of diversity will be offering at the Heilig Theatre for three nights, beginning today.

"POMANDER WALK"

To an English theater goer, the names of the principals of the "Pomander Walk" Company on a program would mean a guarantee of exceptional performances. Americans, more or less ignorant of the brilliant records of these gifted players, have only the assurance of the New York critics, who were unanimous in declaring that "Pomander Walk", besides being a truly delightful comedy, was also one of the best acted plays of the year to depend on. It will be this much-praised cast that will participate in the performance of "Pomander Walk" that is scheduled to be given at the Heilig Theater, corner of Seventh and Taylor streets, for three nights, commencing Thursday October 3, with special price matinee on Saturday.

PAID IN FULL

Baker Players to Appear in Eugene Walter's Great Play.

At last stock lovers of this city are to have the opportunity of seeing Eugene Walter's greatest of all American plays, "Paid in Full," for the popular Baker players will open this week with a Sunday matinee. Intense in plot, characters and dramatic force, though a simple every day story of city life, "Paid in Full" has few equals among modern dramas. It was the original sensational New York run in the east in which were two former Baker players and since that time it has been to Portland several times on the road and at prices from two to four times those of the Baker. There are three principal characters, Joe Brooks and Emma, his wife, and Captain Williams, a harsh old South Sea trader, for whom Joe is working.

Willing to Oblige.

Marconi, at a dinner in Newport, was once seated beside a lady who, mixing him up with his compatriot, Mascagni, said:

"Oh, I'd so love to hear you play your beautiful 'Intermezzo.'"

"I'll do it," the inventor answered promptly, "if you've got a wireless piano."
