BARTHOLDT TO ROOSEVELT

Congressman Richard Bartholdt has issued a reply to Bull Moose Roosevelt, in defense of an attack upon him by that distinguished candidate of the Harvester Trust. Mr. Bartholdt does not mince words either. "I shall not only support Mr. Taft, but oppose you in all legitimate means at my command, because of the contrast between you and him. Mr. Taft is sane, safe and judicious, and under him the country's progress and peace will be secure. He is a man worthy of the dignity of his high office. During the last years of your administration I had almost become disgraced with public life. Your constant slaying to the galleries, your hobnobbing with the political bosses, your continuous political dickerings and bidding for notoriety and your perpetual declarations without actual performance had thoroughly disgusted me and the cant and insincerity of it all had gotten on my nerves. And do you know what reconciled me to continue public service? It was the advent of President Taft. After all the sham here was pure gold again! Standing before him with his kindly, open face beaming on me, I felt instinctively that I was facing the majesty of an

VICTIMS OF SNOW SLIDE LOCATE HERE

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Prater, Miss Edna Prater and Chester Prater, Mrs. Paul Edwards and her three children, have arrived from Couer d'Alene, Idaho, and are making their home at Gladstone, where Mrs. Edwards and Chester Prater have accepted positions in the store of Richard Freytag. Mrs. Edwards and her three children were in a snowslide at Mace, Idaho, about two years ago. The Edwards home was completely demolished, and the family had a narrow escape from death, having been buried for several hours in the snow. One young man, who was boarding at the Edwards home at time of the slide, was instantly killed, his body being found near the children of Mrs. Edwards, who were uninjured. The Edwards home was one of seventeen within a few blocks of each other that were demolished. Mr. Prater, before coming to this city was watchman for seven years in the Standard mines, and assisted in carrying out the injured and dead from the debris at Mace. The superintendent of the mine, where he was employed, with his daughter, were among the ones who lost their lives.

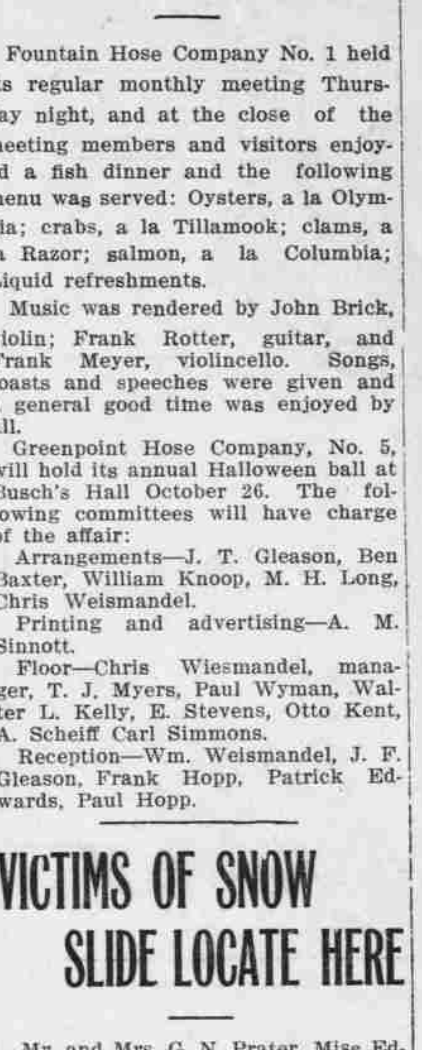

OAKS BEAT BEAVERS, INCREASING LEAD

PORTLAND, Oct. 3. (Special)—Oakland increased its lead in the race for the Pacific Coast League pennant to four and one-half games by defeating Portland 5 to 2 in a featureless and frigid game before the smallest crowd of the season this afternoon. The ninth-inning Seal rally which defeated Los Angeles in the south enabled the Oaks to increase the margin between first and second places and brought Vernon within two games of Los Angeles and six and one-half games of the top. The results Thursday follow: At Portland—Oakland 5, Portland 2. At San Francisco—San Francisco 4, Los Angeles 3. At Los Angeles—Vernon-Sacramento game postponed, rain.

Insure the Wage Earner a Fair Compensation

By WALTER H. BENNETT, Former President of New York State Bankers' Association. It should be our aim to so educate not only those in our calling, but all with whom we come in contact, that they may be able to think for themselves and realize the need of legislation which will insure the much needed and BEST CURRENCY REFORM THAT CAN BE SUGGESTED BY THOSE WHO HAVE MADE A STUDY OF THE NEEDS OF THE COUNTRY IN THAT DIRECTION, assisted by those whose everyday life is devoted to the practical necessities of this wonderful country of ours, still in its infancy. THERE ARE MANY THEORIES ADVANCED WHICH IT IS CLAIMED WILL QUELL THE ENDEAVOR TO INSTILL UNREST IN THE MINDS OF THE PEOPLE, AND THE ONE THAT STRONGLY APPEALS TO ME IS THAT WHICH MAKES POSSIBLE INSURING THE WAGE EARNER A CALLING THAT WILL BE SUITED TO HIS PHYSICAL AND MENTAL HERITAGE AND THAT WILL YIELD HIM AN ADEQUATE COMPENSATION.

Queer Byproducts of the French Occupation of Morocco

Photos by American Press Association.

MEMORIALS of the old days of the Barbary pirates are being brought to light by the French army of occupation in Morocco. Among the spoils brought home from the city of Mequinez and placed in the army museum in Paris are three old pieces of artillery (shown in the upper photograph), which must have been captured from European ships by the Moorish corsairs of a century ago. One bears the arms of the Holy Roman Empire and the date 1788, another the Portuguese royal arms and the date 1776, while the last is British and was cast in 1800. The second photograph is of a French soldier and one of the mules that are indispensable to the army of occupation in the rough country in which it has to conduct operations
