

NEW YORK GANG LEADER IS KILLED

"BIG JACK" ZELIG IS ASSASSINATED ON OPEN TROLLEY CAR

REVENGE IS SAID TO BE MOTIVE

Slain Man Was to Have Been Witness Against Lieutenant Becker, Accused in Gambler Tragedy

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—"Big Jack" Zelig was shot and killed tonight. The East Side gang leader and prospective witness in the trial of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, which begins Monday, was seated in a Second avenue car when Philip Davidson, who says he is a fruit dealer, jumped on the running board and fired the fatal shot. Davidson leaped from the car and ran away, but was caught, weapon in hand. He admitted the shooting and declared it was for revenge, the police say. According to the prisoner Zelig had held him up at the point of a revolver late today in an East Side hallway and robbed him of $400. The police were at a loss whether to believe Davidson's story and put a late hour report that Zelig had been lured to the scene of the shooting by a telephone message were being investigated. Patrons of a Second avenue restaurant, some distance away, told that Zelig, who was in that neighborhood earlier in the evening, had received a telephone call from someone who made an appointment to meet him at Fourteenth street and Second avenue. Zelig jumped on a car, the story ran, and a few moments later word was flashed back to the restaurant that he had been shot.

CONVICTS APPEAL TO OREGON CITY MAN

Henry Hughes, of this city, a few days ago, received a handsomely made horse bridle from the state penitentiary, which is the handwork of a young man who is serving "time," and who is anxious for Mr. Hughes to sell the bridle so as to obtain money to secure books on civil engineering. The young man is desirous of becoming a civil engineer when his term expires. Mr. Hughes, although a stranger to the convict, will endeavor to sell the bridle.

SHIELDS TO SCORE SINGLE TAX PLAN

LEAGUE SECRETARY WILL MAKE SPEECH HERE TOMORROW EVENING

SCHEME MEANS LAND CONFISCATION

Famous Speaker in Tour, of Large Part of Oregon Has Been Greeted by Great Crowds

Intensely interesting promises to be the lecture of Charles H. Shields on "Single Tax Exposed" at Willamette Hall in Oregon City next Monday evening at 8 P. M. Mr. Shields has now covered a large part of the State of Oregon in his speaking tour and has right along the line been greeted with very large crowds. The interest that his discussions of Single Tax have proved of invaluable assistance to all taxpayers whether or not they are believers in the scheme offered by the Single Taxers. "I have found but little Single Tax sentiment," remarked Mr. Shields the other day. "When sentiment there is for Single Tax is entirely among a class of persons who see in Single Tax an opportunity to make the farmer pay all the taxes, quite forgetting that when the farmer is ruined, the whole business of the merchant with whom the farmer deals disappears. "Single Tax has one aim in view—and one only. That aim is the confiscation of private property in land to the state. "So that is why I say to those who favor Single Tax: If you want your land confiscated, your home and your lot, why vote for Single Tax and Graduated Single Tax."

BROWNELL SPEAKS AT CHURCH TONIGHT

George C. Brownell will speak at the Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock this evening on "Should Women Participate in Politics." Mr. Brownell is an advocate of Equal Suffrage and it is expected that the attendance will be large. Mr. Brownell was asked by Dr. Ford, pastor of the church and several members of the congregation to deliver the address. It is believed that hundreds of the mill workers will be present for it is generally conceded that the workmen are more vitally interested in equal suffrage than any other class of society. It has been demonstrated that women in casting their votes always vote for equal opportunity for all.

RECORD ESTABLISHED BY FISH HATCHERY

The Little White Salmon station of the United States Bureau of Fisheries on the upper Columbia River to date has taken more than 28,000,000 Royal Chinook salmon eggs, a record for that station, the largest having been made in 1907, when 19,000,000 eggs were obtained. The Big White Salmon station, also on the upper Columbia River, has taken 13,000,000 eggs to date. The eggs taken at Little White Salmon surpass that of any other season in the history of fish culture in the Columbia river basin. The eggs have been secured from fish which are of fine quality, many of them weighing more than 60 pounds after being spawned. Four years ago the Government fed a large number of salmon fry at these two stations, and this excellent run of fish may possibly be due to that experimental work. The collection of eggs is also under way on the Clackamas River and indications are good for a fine season there. At the present time the Government hatcheries at Little White Salmon and Big White Salmon are filled to their capacity, and the Bureau of Fisheries has been shipping eggs as soon as spawned to the Oregon State Fish Commission hatchery located at Bonneville. As high as 2,000,000 eggs have been shipped at one time during the past week. The work of the Bureau of Fisheries in this territory is under the direction of Superintendent Henry O'Malley.

BARLOW VOTERS ARE FOR TICKET

REPUBLICAN NOMINEES MAKE FINE IMPRESSION AT MEETING

ECONOMY IN OFFICE, IS SLOGAN

Superintendent of Schools, Gary, Makes Strong Speech For High School Fund Law

There was a large attendance and enthusiasm was at a high pitch at the meeting held at Barlow Saturday evening, at which the Republican Candidates for office spoke. E. P. Dedman, Republican nominee for recorder, promised the voters, if elected that he would serve with the least possible expense to the tax payers. C. Schuebel, nominee for representative, the first to speak. E. C. Hackett, candidate for sheriff, said the Democratic administrations were extravagant and that if elected he would conduct that office at a less expense than it had been conducted by Democratic incumbents. J. F. Nelson, candidate for assessor also spoke on the same lines and promised strict economy if elected. T. J. Gary, County Superintendent of schools, spoke for the High School Fund Law, telling the audience that this bill would be carried, as it was for the benefit of the rural districts. This law, he said, was not an experiment, as it had been tried successfully in other counties. His principle reason for advocating this bill, he said, was that he did not think it wise for the parents to send children during the most critical period in life to a city, where they only spent six hours in school, and the remainder of the time, the parents would not know where they spent their time.

CONGREGATIONALISTS TO MEET AT HOOD RIVER

The annual meeting of the general conference of the Congregational church will be held at Hood River October 8 to 10 inclusive, this being a conference of the Congregational churches of the state. Among those of this city who are contemplating to attend this year are C. H. Dye, L. Adams, Joseph Cook, Rev. and Mrs. G. N. Edwards, Mrs. H. C. Stevens, Miss Muriel Stevens, Mrs. C. H. Caulfield and Miss Agnes Harris.

DIMICK CAUSTIC IN REPLY TO U'REN

SINGLE TAX ROLL IS NOT CORRECT, DECLARES MAYOR OF CITY

GLARING ERRORS ARE REVEALED

Chief Executive of Municipality Announces That Alleged Comparisons In Booklet are False

Grant B. Dimick, who has been challenged to a joint debate on Single Tax by W. S. U'Ren Saturday wrote the following letter to Mr. U'Ren: I have received two letters from you within the last few days requesting me to meet you in joint discussion of the Single Tax Bill, which will appear on the ballot at the general election to be held on the second of November, next, and I wish to inform you that if you had printed a true copy of the assessment roll of Clackamas County for the year 1910, as you agreed to do, I would gladly discuss the Single Tax question with you, using the copy of the roll as the basis for an argument, and in fact a true copy of the assessment roll for 1910 and a comparison of the assessments therein with the proposed Single Tax assessments, would be a sufficient argument to convince the average tax payer whether he was for or against your Single Tax system. I have just received what purports to be your copy of the tax roll above mentioned and find therefrom that more than three million dollars of assessed property on the tax roll for said year has been left out of your purported copy of the roll, and whether that has been done intentionally by you and your employees, I am unable to state, but I am informed by the County Assessor of Clackamas County that he called your attention to the gross errors in your purported roll before you circulated the same, and you promised him to make the corrections which you failed to do, but sent out those purported copies of tax rolls knowing they were full of errors. You were informed by the Assessor that the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company had paid $7,556.32 taxes more than you had given it credit for. The Crown-Columbia Pulp & Paper Company had paid $902.50 more tax than you had given it credit for. The First National Bank of Oregon City had paid $496.24 tax more than (Continued on page 4)
