SUNNYSIDE AND ROCK CREEK ; hops till now and nearly all are Born, to Mrs. Adolph Stoll, Sept.

18, a ten pound boy. A young people's branch of the W. pressed to sell, therefore will wait a T. U. was organized at Sunnyside little. September 15. There are twenty members enrolled and we are expecting more as we become better acquainted with the work. The meetings are held Friday evening of each week in connection with the song practice. Begining with October 11 the meetings will be held at homes instead of in the church.

School has been the order of the day at Rock Creek since September 16, with Miss Unruh principal and Miss Richey, primary teacher. school started Septem-Sunnyside ber 30, with Miss Mary Vierhus as teacher. Sunday school at Sunnyside has been poorly attended lately on account of whooping cough. Miss Myrtie Stool is visiting her

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grady and daughter are with Roy Johnson for a short time, to help with potato doigging. Sunnyside has a new central girl. Miss Bertha Reed having resigned in favor of her sister. Addie. Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler, state secretary of he Y. P. Branch of the W. C. T. U. will give a recital at the F. M. church at Sunnyside Wednesday evening, October 16. Everyone come and hear her.

There was a farmers' meeting at Sunnyside school house, October 1. There will be another on Saturday evening October 12.

Frank Stoll and wife and sister, Myrtie visited their brother, Fred and family Saturday. Fred Stoll has moved into his new house and gave a

The young people of Sunyside and a surprise party on the evening of October 3. They spent a very pleas-for Texas in about three weeks. We he will do a thriving business. ers. They are are admired by all

WILLAMETTE.

Ex-Senator Kruse was an Oregon City visitor on Wednesday, having gone there in the interest of good

Mr. Wall, the popular salesman, at Aden's store, with his wife have moved to Wilsonville, and will occupy the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Black. Mrs. Stallnecher is visiting her son Dan and wife of Elwood, and taking a bles while "spud" digging is going on. peep at her new grandson, who arrived recently.

H. D. Say was a Portland visitor on Wednesday. Dr. Brown is still taking care of Mrs. W. S. Sconce we things which were returned from the fair, and have not been called for.

E. C. Hackett, Republican nominees for county recorder and sheriff were made a business trip to Woodburn in Wilsonville on Tuesday, fixing up Wednesday political fences. Frank Seely and family, having sold out at Molalla, have returned to our village to reside, much to the delight of their many friends. Mr. Raffleson, who has been very ill of pneumonia, is slowly improv-Mrs. Rusk, of Eastern Oregon, is for it. the guest of her niece, Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Cronin has been enjoying a visit from her sister, and family.

All the liop balers have been busy in this community lately. The Republican meeting was not very well attended on Monday evening on account of the rain, which caused many persons to remain at home, who had planned to hear the

On Friday evening the rattle of tin cans and the shooting of cannon around the Crissell dwelling, serenaded the newly wedded couple in the old-fashioned chivari style.

A gooly number of the high school pupils spent Sunday at home. The dance gievn on Saturday evening, in the A. O. W. W. hall, was well attended, and the young people report an enjoyable time. Miss Jessie Murray has returned to her home in Washington. Miss Mary Murray will remain here for Joe Roberts and family fom Sherwood, have moved to the old home Marguam and Scott's Mill road. place, near Wilsonville.

A delegation of Wilsonville citizens attended the county ceurt last week in the interest of a better road in its construction is now on the from the corner.

Mrs. Roberts have moved ground, and the balance of the lum-to Battle Creek, Wash. Mrs. Jaeger, a very highly respected pioneer, of this vicnity died at her home on Sunday, and was buried in the Pleasant Hill cemetery on Tuesday at two o'clock. The sympathy of this community is extended to the bereaved relatives.

STAFFORD.

We have had a little rain again, but not enough to stop farm work, as it mostly came in the night.

struck with the blight, nothwithstanding the fact which we hear that Ear- Leah Beers Sunday. nest Bockman picked up 160 sacks to the acre after discarding all that seemed in the least affected.

road when returning from town one day last week. Mr. Pomperine has bought a new automobile, making two in the fam- and will remain another year. ily, as Otto, the son, purchased one last spring.

Hop men are enjoying the proceeds day, as there are some experts there of their labors and we are glad to see along that line. the industry prosper.

shape to ship. 15 cents is the highest price offered as yet for hops and growers are not

GLAD TIDINGS.

The sale at the Harvey Dart place given by Fox and Mason drew a large crowd. The bidding was animated, and everything brought a fair price, a number of cows were sold, ranging in price fom $45.00 to $65.00.

Unexpectedly, after a few days of sunshine, the rain is falling again, Mrs. Gage Thursday, October 17th, and the farmers who still were hopes of saving the remainder of their clover crop will now consider it impossible owing to the lateness of the season. A number of farmers in this vicinity have been digging their potatoes, and the yield so far is very large. C. McKinney will start soon hauling lumber to build him a house. primary teacher.

Frank Ericson will do the carpenter Harrison, son of Ira James is slowly recovering from a severe case of last week. sickness. We are glad that a young G. Marqu man of exceptional qualifications, as urday. pertains to good citizenship, business tack, and gentlemanly deportment. Frank Ericson will start building C. McKinney's house immediately, as cuse for batching while there are so many pretty girls in the country, and many of them good cooks. Several of the youngsters attended the Saturday night dance at Mc-Fadden's Hall near Molalla.

Mrs. Geo. Newsome and Miss Hattie went to Mt. Angel on Monday. Ed Seaman will run the Grimm place another year.

Fert Hibbard was picking apples Rock Creek gave the Douley family Bert is well satisfied with his home near Wilhoit that he purchased of O. Robbins last February.

Oscar Bevan has gone to the logging camp at Tillamook.

Arnold Soderberg expects to start he will be well liked by all, and that Miss Mabel Miller, who acted as some of the finest potatoe clerk so long for Mr. Ridings, still ed in Clackamas County. acts in that capacity, being given employment by J. H. Boldon, the present owner.

RURAL DELL.

Leon Cochran commenced digging otatoes Tuesday. Mrs. Fred Watson visited friends

Dick Lampman is digging a well for Ira Jones,

Elmer Wigstrand visited with Amdahl's Sunday,

Otto Owens is working for the Needy Hop Bailing company. Mrs. W. S. Sconce was reported ill

E. P. Dedman, of Clackamas, and Miss Stella Criswell is teacher.

Mrs. A. L. Widstrand and children were business trip to Woodburn

Mrs. Fred Smith visited her cousin, Mrs. Helen Elliott Tuesday . Apples are being picked by local on a visit. Mr. Hawley is one of the growers, although some of the vari- charter members of Harding Grange, visited friends and relatives here Saturday and Sunday. Dominique represented this section at do away with the middle man and sell the dance at Molalla Saturday night direct to the consumer. The Board of Directors hired Dick Sampson to get the school house and well in readiness for school last week, urday. The sale given by the Ladies' Aid was well attended. The auctioneer, everything that was put up at a very good figure.

MARQUAM.

Potato digging is progressing fairly well with a bumper crop. Very little rot reported.

The three heavy frosts have killed most of the vines, so most of the late fields will be ready to dig in a week or ten days. John Barth, the road boss, is having quite a lot of gravel hauled on The Enterprise is always welcomed in our homes a portion of the material to be used ber will soon be hauled by McKinney and Yarret. L. N. Jones will start soon for Eastern Oregon. He will be gone perhaps two weeks. His son, James, will superintend the farming during his ab-Mr. Rue has cut a part of his corn, and will start digging his 4-acre patch of spude in a day or two. Frank Ericson and John Wooster have made a barrel of cider each for their winter's use. John Davis' bungalow, built upon the spot where his dwelling house re-Crops are usually good except po-tatoes, which are almost universally it will sure be a beauty. Eph Bengli was visiting his sister,

The new minister located at Marquam delivered a sermon at Glad eemed in the least affected. Tidings in the forenoon, and at Mar-Sam Moser had a horse die on the quam in the affernoon on Sunday. Mr. Allen who rented the Rachel Todd place last fall has made arrangements with the present owners

A person can get a game of pitching horse shoes at Marquam most any

The Bentley Bros. are busy digging

a move on you and get a cook, no ex-10 pounds to the box, which is considered pretty good.

We have heard, but not authentic that Pameprines' hops sold for 15 Powell's bought a new separator few days ago. The majority of the farmers about here use separators and send their cream to a creamery. A man comes through the neighborhood twice a week and gathers up the cans, Mr. Gage's nephew, Ed White, of Michigan, visited them last Saturday and went to Sheridan to visit Arden Gage, his cousin.

Grandma Tiedeman is Grandma Brink. They knew each other in the days of their youth, and have many recollections of that far Mrs. Nessbaum has a quilting bee organized for Thursday of this week. The Ladies' Circle will meet with and she hopes for a full house.

The Clarke's school started on Monday, October 7. The teachers are Floyd Webb and Miss Ena Stout. The

Chas. Harrington and M. Chas. Bay an, Lawrence Grace, assisted Mr. Buchee shigle his new house a few days

G. Marquardt was in town last Sat

The new road supervisor, ( John Putz, is working on the new road. eZla Johnson is boarding at Mr. C. Haag's.

Mr. and Mrs. Bottemiller and daughter, Miss Ida, were in town last week. Mr. Bottemiller hauled out a load of powder last Thursday.

Sam Elmer is digging his potatoes. Mr. Bottemiller sold three calves to Mr. Weidener last week Mr. Dye and Mr. Dedman, of Oregon City, were out at Clarkes last Saturday. Chas. Henton hauled a load lumber to town last week. Jake Elmer, of Portland, Clarkes visiting his mother, who has been very sick but is improving now.

Henry Kleinsmith was in town last Mr. Haag was in town last week. W. H. Bottemiller started digging his potatoes on Monday and were some of the finest potatoes ever rais-

Mr. Wolfson and family were in Mr. Marquard has started digging his potatoes.

land. The Timber Grove school started on Monday, Oct. 7, with Miss Zela Johnson as teacher. Mr. Wettlaufer hauled a load of

The Buol brothers are clearing chap last week. Floyd Webb, the Clarke's school eacher, is boarding at S. Staut's. Mr. Gustave Haag has gone to Montana, where he has purchased a new Miss Bertha Haag, of Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Ida Haag.

LOGAN.

Digging spuds is the order of the day now. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Steinman, of Currinsville, are visiting Logan relatives this week and also attended Grange Saturday. B. C. Hawley, of Corvallis, is down eties did not color as they might have had we had more sunshine and Mr. Cutting is here in the interest less rain, they seem to be free of of the Farmers' Society of Equity. worms, which more than makes up He tried to make it clear that marketing farm products was a business Miss Eugenie Catlett, of Portland, and required business methods. A meeting was called at Logan Saturday night and an organization was Otto Owens, Fred Sailer and John perfected. The principle object is to Quit a number of Loganites went to Gresham to attend the Fair Sat-

Clear Creek Creamery patrons will was well attended. The auctioneer, receive 36 cents net for butter fat for Andrew Pleve, succeeded in selling September. Clear Creek butter scored 94 at the Canby Fair, and was not made of selected cream either.

Miss Mary Swales is home on a short vacation. Miss Swales is one of the graduate nurses from the Good Samaritan Hopital of Portland. Fred Wilcox is chief instructor at the upper Logan school.

J. F. Campau, representing the Mt. Angel Creamery Company, made a business call on the Clear Creek Creamery officials this week. Lower Logan school is progressing nicely with Miss Anna Bachman as principle and Miss Wieveslck as a primary instructor. C. C. Robbins and family, of Portland, were out on their weekly "hike."

DRYLAND.

Sunday.

The blight seems to have done a great deal of damage to the tomato crop as well as the potatoes. It effects the green tomatoes as well as the ripe ones, causing them to rot

Miss Lillian Mitts spent Sunday afternoon with her sister, Mrs. Frank

J. E. Calavan, school supervisor for this section of the county, is visiting the schools which are now in session. Jesse Mitts and Lee Fish left Thursday atfernoon for Southern Oregon, where they expect to be gone for a week or ten days.

Potato digging has been the order of the day, but will be delayed for some time on account of heavy rains. A great amount of clover is still in The prospects for getting it threshed seem very poor at present.

MULINO

This vicinity was visited by a heavy rain Monday afternoon, but the prospect is for fair weather again at School began here Monday with Mr. lones, of Portland, as teacher.

on Sunday to begin her school Mon-Several of the Mulinoites took in the fair at Canby Saturday. Fred Churchill went to Mount Angel Monday with a party of surveyors to work on the Clackamas Southern surveying the right of way.

Miss Inex Snodgras went to Col-

pportunity

To Secure Our High Grade Cloaks and Suits at less than

WHOLESALE PRICES

Hundreds have taken advantage of this great sale of

Manufacturers Samples

Are you one of them, if not you should come and see what it really means in the matter of saving as well as the wonderful display of the season's newest and best garments produced by the

Best Manufacturer in America

Every garment guaranteed to represent a saving of at last

One Half

Hundreds of Beautiful Models to select from

Open Saturday until 10:30 P. M.

Come in and have your garments laid aside

The New York Manufacturers

Samples Sales Company

405 Main Street, Electric Hotel Sample Room, First Door South of Dining Room

"Jack O'Lantern Boogieman"

AS SUNG BY

Elizabeth Murray

New appearing as MADAME SHERRY in Messrs. Frazee, Lederer & Woods presentation of the three act French vaudeville

"Madame

NEW AMSTERDAM THEATRE, NEW YORK

Words and music by Sidney S. Toler. Published by permission of Joseph M. Daly, Boston, Mass.

This Song will be printed in every copy of Sunday's issue of the Morning Enterprise

A 25 cent Piece of Music Every Week Free

No Cutting, No Folding, Ready to Put on and Play

We publish each week the newest songs of New York's Biggest Musical Successes

Southern Pacific Railroad of Mexico

traversing the states of SONOROA - SINALOA - TEPIC - JAL ISCO. Gives Access to OPPORTUNITIES FOR WEALTH

Cattle, Farming, Mining, Timber