A wild cry of "lynch him" went up from the crowd. Colonel Roosevelt spoke to the people and told them to spare the would-be assassin.

The man was taken into the hotel, and held there until he was removed to the police station.

In spite of the entreaties of physicians, Colonel Roosevelt insisted upon delivering his address.

"I will make this speech or die, one r the other."

Harry F. Cochems, one of the Wisconsin Progressive leaders told the great crowd which had assembled in the auditorium that Colonel Roosevelt had been shot, and asked the people to be calm. Or., Oct. 14.-The Oregon additional land to care for a larger family or to meet the thousand and ne exigencies that arise finds it necessary to becure money through a mortgage on his home, lands or crops, will see a boon in the bill proposed by initiative petition which will be marked "364, Yes," on the general ballot in Nevember.

This bill provides for the exemntion from taxation of all debt of any kind, whether on contract or note, mortgage, bond, or otherwise, with the exception of bank stocks, bank shares and banking capital.

Taxation of mortgages and mortgage notes shifted the burden to the back of the mortgager. While apparently the tax has been directed at the mortgagee, who furnishes the money and holds the mortgage, the rate of interest has been in ariably placed at such a figure that the interest paying mortgagor has paid the tax.
