THE OSTEOPATHIC PRIMER. A Fourth Cause of Disease Functional Abuses.

All diseases do not come by the same route. Do not suppose that osteopaths are so narrow as to claim that. The foregoing are examples, please remember, of particular cases, and of certain classes of ills. Keep your mind open for still other osteopathic routes to disease.

Functional disturbances due to abuse of organs through over-work, such as come from over-feeding, imperfect diet, alcoholic excesses, mental strain, evil passions like jealousy, anger, hate, revenge—the "mental poisons" of life, just as surely as they constitute moral sins—these factors all upset vital economy and produce disturbances of blood flow in the organs just the same as a bony lesion or congested muscles.

I wish forever to relieve your minds of the idea that the osteopathic theory is that only displacements can cause disease, which brings us to another osteopathic conclusion.

Disease may be caused by violating the rules or correct living, by neglecting the laws of health and hygiene, for example, overeating and drinking. Thus, if the patient has dyspepsia, from over-eating or any other cause, we will discover the cause by getting the history of the case, by examination.

But osteopathic practice is unique in this respect, and in this it also differs from the other schools of practice; we carefully trace the nerve and blood supply of every condition as evidenced in the symptoms. We make an anatomical diagnosis. We seek the cause of symptoms and treat that cause.

Does not a system that pays so much attention to putting the machine in good running order appeal to you as a good common sense?—Osteopathic Herald.

THE CORP'S MOURNING STORY. You know the story the comb told. It's a very discouraging story, too.

Day by day, a few more strands are added, of hair that is turning grey, losing its vitality, its strength and its health.

Grey hair is an unbecoming old age. Natural pride should have its own say. You wish to look young and it is your DUTY to appear so. You can't even LOOK young if the silver threads begin to show.

Be a "Young Woman" in looks, always. The grey hairs belong to the chaperon and to the grandmother.

WEAKNESS SHOWN IN CATTLE MARKET

The Portland Union Stock Yards Company reports as follows: Receipts for the week were 1035 cattle; 25 calves; 2700 hogs; 3654 sheep and 126 horses.

Taken as a whole there was a slight weakness in the cattle market. Buyers did not go down the line as briskly as usual, although there was a very snappy tone to the demand for the better quality of butcher stuff.

The hog market for the week closed steady. There was an upward tilt of 5c in the week's trading, but the bulk of the sales went at last week's market which was $8.60.

There was a steady tone to the sheep market in the face of big supplies.

SHIELDS' CHALLENGE ACCEPTED BY U'REN

W. S. U'Ren has written the following letter to Charles H. Shields, secretary of the Oregon Equal Taxation League:

Your acceptance of my proposal to debate the Graduated Single Tax amendment, as published in the Sunday Oregonian, gives me very great pleasure. I certainly shall not offer any objection to your talking about the Henry George Theory, the Felix Fund, the election of Taft or anything else that pleases you during your debate.

I now desire to have this debate in as many towns as possible and suggest, Ashland, Medford, Grants Pass, Roseburg, Albany, Corvallis, Salem, McMinnville, Oregon City, Portland, Hood River and The Dalles, beginning Monday, the 21st, at any town that pleases you. As it will be a series I suggest that we take turns for the opening and closing.

The fact that you have spoken in many of these towns need not deter you, because the debate will attract at least ten times as many voters as came to hear you alone. For instance you had sixty-five voters present in Oregon City, but a debate will bring at least ten times that many.

Mr. U'Ren has mailed the following letter to Grant B. Dimick:

I read a few days ago in the Morning Enterprise and in the Sunday Oregonian that you would not debate with me on the Tax question. I am sorry to see that you have lost your nerve. The boys told me not to drive you too hard at Beaver Creek last spring but I should never get another chance at you. It seems they knew your weakness better than I did. I hoped and expected you would have courage to meet me in Oregon City as you promised them.

I didn't see any reason for your refusing, because the debate could not hurt any chance you really have to succeed Governor West. The fictitious reasons you give are not good. Any half-grown boy who reads your letter would know that if half the things you charged me with are true you would be only too eager to meet me on the platform.

MAN ACCUSED OF STEALING HORSE LOCKED UP HERE
