TO A BLUEBIRD. Tell me bright bird with sky blue wing, What longing fills thy lovely breast? No longer wilt thou blithly sing, But flutter round with mute unrest?

What visions of sunnier clime Through autumn's mist before thee rise? Beneath the smiling southern skies? What bloom of endless summer time

Upon my lawn the summer long, And in the field with tasseled corn I heard with joy thy tuneful song Among the voices of the morn.

Thou knowest where a bluer sky Will match the beauty of thy wing, And thither wilt thou shortly fly Upon the leafy palms to sing.

There shalt thou wing on sunlit plains Where near thy voice I fain would roam, But ever in thy breast remains The picture of thy northern home.

Farewell bright bird with sky blue wing The winds are chill, the nights grow long, Ere comes again the bloom of spring I shall be watching for thy song. ANDREW FRANZEN.

PITCHER FORD PROUD OF HIS STICK WORK. "What are you holding your bat in your hand for?" asked Ed Sweeney, the New York Yankees' catcher, when he saw Tim Lincecum trying out some bats the other day. "You pitchers have a nerve to set your pictures in the paper with a bat in your hands."

"Is that so?" said Ford. "Look over the averages and you will find that I am leading the club in batting. I am hitting over .300. Don't overlook that." With which clever retort Ford commenced swinging three bats a la Cobb.

BALL PLAYERS DON'T LIKE TO PAY DUES. Assessment of $18 Apiece Given as Reason Why New Union Won't Succeed.

The recently incorporated Baseball Players' fraternity is now the big talk of the fans outside of the coming world's series. Some say that the formation of this body will eventually lead to a war, while others declare that it will die a natural death.

The obstacle in the way of the success of the organization is the assessment of the players. It is said that the 256 players already enrolled have been asked to pay dues of $18 apiece annually, which would make a total of $5,148.

If there is anything the modern player hates to do it is to part with money. The player of today is a great contrast to the old timer who liked nothing better than to throw his money away. Nowadays they use all their coin buying farms, orchards, garages, etc., and they don't part with a cent that won't bring them back its equivalent at least.

It is believed that this assessment thing will cause the death of the new union. If this doesn't cause its demise it is said that a war with the magnates will mean the knockout punch. It is understood that the first thing the players will ask for is a representation on the national commission, which request will most likely be refused, with the result that a war will be started with the usual result—the triumph of capital over labor.
