Lord Clive.

Lord Clive, the English conqueror of India, a bold, active warrior, exposed to death in scores of desperate battles and by several plots, fell a victim after his return to England to the opium habit and committed suicide.

Didn't See the Point.

"My dear," said a lady to a friend who was complaining of a servant. "You can't expect all the virtues for $15 a month."

But I pay $18.

"But I pay $18," was the practical response. Campaign and Linen. Keep a few pieces of campaign gum in your linen closet. It will aid in keeping the linen white.

FRUIT PLentiful IN LOCAL MARKET

There has been little change in the Oregon City market during the past few days. Plenty of fruit is arriving daily. Grapes are having a good demand, although they were never so plentiful as this year. Concord are retailing at 3 cents per pound, and are of excellent quality. Apples are ranging from 65 cents up for the best. Apples are more plentiful than pears. There are some quinces in the market, but the demand is not good. There are plenty of vegetables in the market, those arriving daily from the gardens in the vicinity of Oregon City. Potatoes are being dug, and the farmers are making good use of the fair days in gathering in their crop. The crop is unusually large, and very few were damaged by the recent rains. In many sections of Clackamas county clover seed is being threshed. Several of the farmers residing in the vicinity of Molalla, Liberal, Monitor and Needy will have good yields of seed. Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows: DRIED FRUITS—(Buying). Prunes on basis 6 to 8 cents. HIDES—(Buying). Green hides 6c to 7c; salted 7c; dry hides 12c to 14c; sheep pelts 20c to 85c each. MRS. SIMMONS RECOVERING

Mrs. Carl Simmons, who has been very ill for the past three weeks of diphtheria, is recovering and the McCausland home, where Mr. and Mrs. Simmons are residing will be fumigated today. Mr. McCausland and family are living with Mr. and Mrs. Meyer during the illness of Mrs. Simmons.

BAPTISTS SEEK MISSION FUND

The Parents' and Teachers' Club of Concord has arranged for its annual bazaar to be given at the Concord schoolhouse November 9. The proceeds of the entertainment will go toward the school fund. Last year this club raised enough money to purchase a handsome piano for the school building. The following are the women comprising the committee for the entertainment: Mrs. Tyra Warren, chairman of the original booth; Mrs. Campbell, chairman of the fancy work booth; Mrs. Charles Risley, chairman of the delicatessen; Miss Sally Warren, chairman of the candy booth. The officers of the club, who will also assist with the entertainment are: president, Mrs. John Risley; vice president, Mrs. Campbell; secretary, Mrs. Phillip Outfield; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Risley; press correspondence, Mrs. W. A. Sherman. There are eighty members of the club, and since its organization it has been a great benefit to Concord. The delegates to the state congress of Women's Clubs to be held in Portland in the near future are Mrs. John Risley, Mrs. W. A. Shewman and Mrs. Edward Labowitz.

Advertisement for J. Levitt O'Coats featuring a man in a suit and coat, and the text: $15 FIFTEEN DOLLAR $15 SUITS & O'COATS $15. Men and Young Men, now is the time of the year when you are to treat yourself with a new SUIT or OVERCOAT. We know you will buy here when YOU know the big values we can give you. All you need is to be told about them. That is why we are putting our values straight to you. We know we have the best clothes for the least money, because we buy right and can sell right. We have two reasons why you save money by buying from us. Here they are and they will Easily Convince You First Reason Our Clothes represent the acme of STYLE and FASHION and are exactly what the particular dressers are seeking this season the world over. These SUITS and O'COATS are especially designed by experts and are tailored with unusual care in the correct new fall two- and three-button styles, with new lapels and easy fitting coats in browns, greys, fancy blue mixtures of fine, smooth woads and casimeres and rough chevriots, pin stripes and diagonal weaves. We have the finest fall showing in town. Guarantee you we have the largest number of suits to make your selection from. Second Reason Better VALUES at lesser COST mean greater business The man of moderate salary must look first into his purse and then into his wardrobe. For him the desirable garments--those with the fashionable swing--are priced just beyond his reach. Heavy advertising in the national periodicals boosts the cost of such lines a few dollars too high. Going direct to the manufacturers we have our clothes made by the best tailors. They have the made-to-measure air, the class, the individuality--best of all. They are bought so they can be priced to suit the man of moderate means and give him clothes that others must and will charge him more for $15 Suits J.
