COLONEL SITS UP AND FEELS FINE

"I AM AS LIVELY AS A BULLDOG," EX-PRESIDENT TELLS FRIENDS

STORY OF SHOOTING RELATED BY HIM

Bull Moose Leader Says His Making Speech Is What Any Other Man Would Have Done

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The first vivid impressions of Colonel Roosevelt on the night which he was shot in Milwaukee were related tonight by the Colonel. Apparently on the way to recovery, he was permitted to enjoy a greater degree of freedom and for the first time he gave an account of the happenings in the first few hours after the bullet found its mark.

The Colonel said that on Monday he expected to leave for Oyster Bay and hoped to be back in the campaign making speeches again week after next.

"I feel as lively as a bulldog," said the Colonel, by way of a preface. He was sitting on a huge leather chair by a window in Mrs. Roosevelt's room, adjoining his own.

DR. HINSON DELIVERS FINE ADDRESS

Minister Glories in Fact That He Is Not in Accord With Mills—Officers are Elected

The Baptist State Convention, which adjourned Friday evening, elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year:

President, Jeff. H. Irish, of Eugene; vice president, Rev. W. H. Beaven, Portland; recording secretary, Rev. D. M. McPhail, Portland; historical secretary, Rev. H. F. Merrill, Albany; treasurer, J. F. Falling, Portland; auditing committee, C. A. Lewis and J. C. Molam, Portland; additional members of board of managers, H. F. Merrill, E. M. Runyon, Arthur Conklin and J. O. Maxwell.

Dr. W. B. Hinson, who spoke at the morning session upon "The Work of Christ," said that someone had complained that in his view of atonement he was not in accord with B. Fay Mills. He said that he gloried in the fact that he was not. He declared, if the Bible was true, it is wrong to say "A. D. 12."

"Christ existed long before Bethlehem," said the minister. "In the beginning," was the word. If Christ came to Bethlehem as Buddha came to India, or Mohammed to Arabia, then Christ can never save us. I have been saved by God and I know it. I will not turn away from eating good wheat bread to make a meal of the scourgings of the street. Like the apostle of old, "I know in whom I have believed." I am saved by the death of Christ and by the life of Christ before his crucifixion. If I ask of Sinai, "What do you want of me?" "I want your life or your blood," I answer, "I'll give you both and be doubly sure." There is the life of my substitute, and there is his blood that was shed for me.

"The man who says, 'You can't know anything about the other world,' I answer that I can. Elijah came back; Moses came back; Darius' daughter came back; the young man Lazarus came back; the youth from Nain came back; Jesus himself made several journeys to and fro. He went in the body. He went in a changed body as mine shall be changed. Where am I going? I don't need to attend seances where long haired men and short haired women plan

MRS. MAUD WISHART DIES AFTER OPERATION

The many friends of Mrs. Maude Russell Wishart, wife of I. R. Wishart of Oakland, Oregon, but formerly of this city, were grieved to hear of her death at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, Friday morning at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Wishart with her husband and two little children, Russell and Edith, arrived in this city Thursday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Wishart, parents of Mr. Wishart, where they remained until Wednesday evening, when they went to Portland, where Mrs. Wishart consulted a physician. She was suffering from a growth on her neck. An operation was performed Thursday afternoon, and the patient rallied from the effects, but during Thursday night her condition turned for the worse, and she passed peacefully away Friday morning.

Mrs. Wishart's maiden name was Maude Russell and she was the daughter of Mrs. Russell, of southern Oregon. She lived at Roseburg during her girlhood days, and before her marriage to Mr. Wishart was graduated from the Oregon Agricultural college. She was of a happy disposition and had won many friends by her charming manners. For several years she lived in this city, after which she moved to Grants Pass, where Mr. Wishart was in the drug business. Leaving that city, about six years ago, she moved to Baker, Or., where she resided until a few years ago when she moved to Oakland, Or., where she has since made her home. Mr. Wishart being in the drug business, and mayor of that city. She was loved by all who knew her.

Mrs. Wishart leaves besides her husband, I. G. Wishart, two children, Russell, aged thirteen years, and Edith about two years of age; mother, Mrs. Russell, of southern Oregon; two sisters, one of whom lives in southern Oregon and one in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. George Wishart, of this city, being her father and mother-in-law.

Mrs. Wishart's mother is visiting in New Hampshire and the funeral arrangements will not be made until she is communicated with.

FIRE IMPERILS HOTEL GUESTS

BLAZE IN CHARMAN DRUGSTORE DISCOVERED IN TIME TO SAVE BUILDING

DEPARTMENT DOES GOOD SERVICE

Mrs. J. J. Tobin and Charles Tobin Arouse Hotel Guests Who Go Quietly to Lob.

About forty guests at the Electric hotel were imperiled shortly before 1 o'clock this morning when fire started in the office of T. L. Charman's drugstore, which occupies part of the ground floor of the hotel building. The blaze was extinguished by the fire department before it had gained much headway. All the hotel guests either went to the lobby or to the street and waited until Chief of the Fire Department Hannaford announced that there was no further danger. Many of the guests were delegates to the Baptist Convention.

Mrs. J. J. Tobin, wife of the proprietor of the hotel, and her brother-in-law, Charles Tobin, were in the lobby of the hotel, when Mrs. Tobin smelled smoke. She and Mr. Tobin made an investigation and upon going into a room above the drugstore noticed smoke coming through the floor. Mrs. Tobin telephoned to have the fire department called out while Mr. Tobin aroused the guests. He told them there was no immediate danger, but they had better dress quickly and get out of the building. None of the guests became excited, although a number went to the lobby scantily attired.

The fire was in the office of the drugstore and it is thought caught from defective insulation of an electric wire. The loss, it is thought, is not more than $500. The fire was extinguished by a chemical engine. When the blaze was discovered the wind was blowing at a high rate and had it gained much headway the entire building and probably others would have been burned. All the lights in the city were out at the time. Night Policemen Green, Frost and Cooke were among the first to arrive at the burning building. The entire fire department responded promptly and did fine work.

FOOTBALL GAME OFF.

Manager Price, of the Oregon City football team announced Friday that there would be no game tomorrow, owing to the inability of the team to arrange a contest with another eleven.

GIRL ENDS LIFE AFTER AUTO RIDE

FIFTEEN-YEAR OLD VALERIA PROFFITT FALLS DEAD INTO MOTHER'S ARMS

TWO YOUNG MEN HELD BY SHERIFF

John Finucane and Harry Timmons With Miss Proffitt and Clara Johnson on all Night Trip

The authorities late last night announced that they were unable to explain the suicide of Valeria Proffitt, fifteen years of age, who, after a joy ride in Portland, died in her mother's arms early Friday morning. John Finucane and Harry Timmons, each twenty-two years of age, and Clara Johnson, fifteen years of age, the other members of the automobile party, are being held pending an examination. The men are accused of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. An autopsy showed that the girl who ended her life by drinking carbolic acid had not been attacked, and the only motive advanced for her act is that she feared her parents would scold her for having spent the night away from home.

Mrs. Proffitt is prostrated, and it is feared the shock may result seriously. Coroner Wilson will hold an inquest at 10 o'clock this morning. Frank Proffitt, father of the dead girl, insisting that a thorough investigation be made.

Shortly before eight o'clock Friday morning the Proffitt girl ran into her home and seizing her mother about the neck, exclaimed:

"Mother, I am going to die. Good bye."

The girl became unconscious at once, and died before medical aid could be summoned. It was found that she had purchased the carbolic acid from the general merchandise store of Everhart & Hall on Molalla and Hood avenues a few minutes before she reached home. She informed Mrs. Hall that her sister had cut her finger and said she wanted the acid to apply to the wound. The half-emptied vial of poison was found by the dead girl's father in the yard near the house.

The Johnson girl was taken into custody soon after the death of her friend and informed sheriff Mass of the automobile trip and the occupants of the car. Finucane, who is employed by a street contractor, was found at work on the street by the sheriff and taken to his office. Timmons was found at his home in Glad

The yield was unusually large and Mr. Green expected to get about 125 sacks of spuds. However, just before time to dig them they began rotting and he saved only fifteen sacks.
