Special bulletin of the Congregational Church

FOR TODAY

A Temperance address at 10:30 a. m. by Mrs. Julia D. Phelps, of Los Angeles, one of the National superintendents of the W. C. T. U. Sermon by the pastor at 7:30 p. m., on "Crime and Punishment or, What Shall We Do With the Man Who Goes Wrong?"

ADVERTISING TALKS No. 2

(By Ralph Kaye.)

Are you getting the BEST results from your advertising? If not there is something wrong—provided of course what you offer has MERIT.

Advertising is a matter of DOLLARS and SENSE applied to the proper market.

To create business you must create a DESIRE for your goods.

Good advertising is not merely telling people you have certain goods to sell at certain prices—in order to arouse interest in your goods you must show the PERSONAL POSSIBILITIES your goods possess. People want REASONS before buying.

For instance,—if you are in the Confectionery business do people know your candy is PURE and WHOLEsome—as a result? Do they know that a certain amount of candy is GOOD FOR THEM—that it has a tendency to make people FAT? Do they know the DELICIOUS FLAVOR of your candy—the kind of flavor they DREAM about? And how about your fruit candies? Do people know you use the REAL FRUIT? And so on. Such methods may take a little time, but you will find it the ONLY way to get results. All good things are worth waiting for—especially when BETTER advertising means MORE business.

CIVIC DUTIES VS. THE POLITICAL GAME

Ida M. Tarbell says that one of her chief objections to women suffrage is that "it will take the attention of women from what I believe to be the real civic duties by interfering with the political game, when they should be concentrating their attention on specific civic work."

All right minded women want this work done, but they differ as to the method. The suffragist thinks the ballot the panacea for all the ills of society. The anti-suffragist believes that the constant and effective influence now exerted by women on legislation and public affairs, is due to the character and intelligence of the women who advocate good causes. A woman now interested in a matter of public welfare is known to be unselfish, and with only the interest of her cause at heart. The same woman under the man suffrage is only one of the political units, with ignorant and indifferent women voters added to the other elements arrayed against her success.

A few women today are idealizing the ballot, while what will really solve juvenile delinquency, intemperance, the white slave traffic, and the social evil is education, education and more education in the homes and from the earliest hours of childhood and therein lies the civic duty of women, bigger than the casting of any ballot and absorbing enough to occupy all the women in Oregon for all time.

It is to keep the women of this state out of the "Political Game" and leave them free for the greatest of all their duties that we ask you to vote against the women suffrage amendment at the coming election.

SOME SPICY SPORT CHATS

New Football Rule Makes Scoring More Spectacular.

FORWARD PASS AS AN AID.

Materialization of Ten Yard Zone Behind Goal Line For Scoring Purposes a New Feature—Lacrosse is Becoming More Popular Than Ever.

By TOMMY CLARK. There will be many breathless moments for football spectators this season when a team has come into the shadow of its opponents' goal posts and the signal is given for the forward pass.

With the materialization of a ten yard zone behind the goal line in which a forward pass may be received, a new and decidedly spectacular way of making a touchdown has been introduced. It is not necessary that the ball literally be touched down to make the play complete, although the player is at liberty to touch it to the ground if he

The Camera Pose. It seems a rather blunt thing to say that no woman without a little affectation takes a good photograph—unless, of course, she is a beauty; but the statement is true, none the less. The perfectly natural downright woman rarely photographs well. Unable to assume an expression she does not actually feel, she takes a position as stiff and uncomfortable as she really is before the fearsome eye of the camera.

The natural born coquette, on the other hand, is practiced in expressing things she does not feel by tricks of gesture, by head movement, by a sweep of the lashes, a raising of the eyes, and so on. "Look pleased!" adorns the photographer, and she can do it in a minute—just as she can look demure, or coy, or soulful, or anything else as expediency requires. Naturally, she takes a charming photograph, often without possessing half the beauty of the woman who does not know how to pose before the camera.

The Season's Latest Style Note. Fashion has decreed this season that for dressy suits the coat and skirt shall be of a contrasting color and material. In the cut is shown a charming example of this cut. The skirt is of silk serge in a delightful shade of pale biscuit color, and the coat, a jaunty affair, is of tobacco brown velvet. The silk sash fringed with dull is able and desires to do so. The act of catching a forward pass within the zone will constitute a touchdown and count six points.

Personally I do not care much for the forward pass on any part of the gridiron, because whenever one is successful it looks like a loophole through which a team has escaped from a bad situation. And when it goes wrong there is a fine lot of confusion and much wearisome readjustment of battle lines. We must admit, however, that it looks fairly good to us down by the goal line, where the struggle to score has been hardening so often. With a new weapon in hand the attacking team will test the strength as well as the agility of the defense to the limit.

At all the football centers where conditions have not required the coaches to linger on rudiments the forward pass is being developed as rapidly as possible in practice. Harvard, Yale and Princeton are busy with it, and with Carl Williams on the job at Pennsylvania to assist Coach Smith, the Quakers will take up the task of perfecting it. Of course, at Cornell they are busy with simpler things.

The national game of Canada is rapidly becoming a world wide sport. The Britisher has scattered it and association football wherever he has settled. Baseball is confined almost entirely to Americans and Canadians and is being taken up by the Japanese and Chinese.

On the other hand, lacrosse is played only by Canadian residents in foreign lands, but by teams composed of natives in the United States, Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Japan and the like.

W. Farnsworth, the New South Wales Rugby football halfback, has signed to play for Oldham, one of the prominent English teams. Farnsworth's fee for signing is the highest that has been paid for a Rugby player in the history of the game—$2,000.

At the Portland Theatres

LAST CAR LEAVES FOR OREGON CITY AT MIDNIGHT

JULIAN ELTINGE IN "THE FASCINATING WIDOW" AT THE HEILIG. The famous Julian Eltinge and his splendid company of players, will present the musical comedy triumph, "The Fascinating Widow" at the Heilig Theater, 7th and Taylor streets, for 4 nights, beginning Sunday October 20. Special price matinee Wednesday.

JULIAN ELTINGE OFF THE STAGE. What kind of a man is Julian Eltinge off the stage? This question is asked thousands of times in every city where the famous impersonator and his musical comedy "The Fascinating Widow" appear. "The only mystery about Julian Eltinge is his possession of certain assets through the offices of which he is able to transform himself into the "most beautiful woman on the stage today." When he has kicked on his handsome gowns and tossed aside the other accessories to his marvellous "make up" as Mrs. Monte the real Julian Eltinge is revealed. The first insight to his nature, which is a modest and retiring one, is the fact that he usually leaves the theater through the front entrance after a performance to escape the crowds which gather about the stage door. In every theater played by him, he is held in the highest esteem by the men behind the stage and upon a return engagement, everyone connected with the theater is ready to go out of his way to do the star of the "Fascinating Widow" a favor. Everyone who knows Julian Eltinge personally pronounces him "a prince of good fellows." Julian Eltinge and "The Fascinating Widow" will be seen at the Heilig Theater October 20, 21, 22, 25.

THE SPENDTHRIFT.

The Baker Players to Present Interesting Play of Domestic Life.

Ten thousand dollars a year would seem to most of us to be enough to live happily and comfortably on, but "The Spendthrift," which the Baker players will present all this week beginning Sunday matinee, deals with one of these cases in which the wife is a frivolous, society worshipping butterfly, who manages to run through that amount, hardly knowing where it goes and in the end, bringing her husband, a prosperous broker to

"OFFICER 366" AT HEILIG. Coban & Harris present the biggest comedy hit of the past three seasons, "Officer 366," at the Heilig Theater, 7th and Taylor streets, for an engagement of 3 nights, beginning Thursday, October 24. Special Price Matinee Saturday.

The Game of Gossip. The game of gossip is played thus: One of the company invents and writes down a short, striking narrative, say in about a dozen lines. This he reads to himself carefully and then folds away out of sight. Taking the paper on his left side, he repeats to him as accurately as he can what he has written.

Number two repeats this to number three, and so it passes round till it reaches the last player. The last person recites the story, and it is then compared with the original record. It is never the same, and the variations are generally very amusing.

The Three Glasses. Take three glasses, one of which shall contain clear water, one soapy water, the other nothing. Blindfold one of the party and lead him or her to the table on which the glasses are arranged. With the left forefinger she or he tries to dip into one of the glasses. Should it be the empty dish she will remain single; if into soapy water, she will marry a widower; if into clean water, her husband will be young and handsome.

The Declaration of Independence of America was printed by Mary Katherine Goddard in Philadelphia.

Good and Bad. She—Why do so many men go to the bad? He—In their eagerness to be known as good fellows.

Not Acceptable. "I had a chance to make my everlasting fortune the other day." "Did you grab it?" "No, I couldn't stand the conditions." "What was the chance? To serve out Harry Thaw's time?" "No; to take the place of a man who was to be electrocuted." "Say, that would have been everlasting, wouldn't it?"
