STAFFORD.

We have had beautiful weather until the middle of this week, when it rained a little. Late clover seed and buckwheat has not filled out equal to that gathered earlier, but is very thick and rank on the ground.

Mr. Weddle will have his new house ready to move into soon.

Arden Gaze and wife, from Sheridan came Sunday on a visit to his father's and while there picked some boxes of apples from the old home orchard to take home.

Quite a number from here and Frog Pond attended the Grange Fair at Oswego Saturday. The display was fine, the dinner excellent and Master Borden's address of welcome well rendered, an elicited prolonged applause. A short program followed of music and recitations after which all who wished adjourned to a lower room, where were displayed as fine a collection of vegetables and fruits as has been seen at any of the fairs this fall, a portion of which was sold at auction.

On last Thursday the ladies of the neighborhood met at the Nussbaum's and got three quilts off the frames, two of which belonged to Mrs. Aerial, and one to Mrs. Brink, after which the hostess served a delicious supper.

Mr. Hallon and family came Saturday after the fair, and spent the next day at her father's returning to their home in East Portland in the evening, accompanied by Mrs. C. M. Gage.

The Stafford school organized a literary society last Friday, under the supervision of principal Geo C. Larkins. Frank Oldenstadt was elected president from the eighth grade; Elizabeth Nemic, vice-president, from the eighth grade; Arthur Becker, secretary, from the seventh grade and Cecelle Shaulba from the ninth grade as editor of our school paper, which will be read at each meeting, viz: the second and fourth Fridays of each month, making the next meeting on Friday the 25th of October. The society earnestly requests all patrons and friends of the district and community to be present at any and all meetings. There will be short programs also at every meeting.

This is a good beginning for our school and we hope as an individual that the society will prosper and we are quite sure it will under such able leadership.

Mr. Caley, of Portland, has been installing lights in the church, such as has been put in the Chapel on school house hill.

MACKSBURG

Since the last issue of the Weekly Enterprise two deaths of especial sadness have taken place in Macksburg, Chris Roth, one of our most highly respected citizens breathed his last on the evening of Sunday, October 12, at the age of 78 years and Miss Lena Kummer, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kummer, died on the night of Friday, October 11th.

Mr. Roth, it was thought by his friends, had about recovered from an injury, which has been mentioned in the Enterprise, when he was suddenly attacked by pneumonia. The disease baffled all treatment and terminated fatally in a few days. The death of Mr. Roth following that of his wife, which occurred only three months ago, breaks up one of our oldest and most esteemed households,

THE great battleship New York, sister ship to the Texas, which was begun Sept. 11 last year, will be launched in the last part of October at the Brooklyn navy yard. She will be one of the biggest and best fighting ships in the world, costing $8,500,000 without armament or furnishings. It will take 2,400 men nearly two years more to complete her. The New York will have a length of 573 feet, a breadth of ninety-five feet two inches, a total displacement of 27,000 tons and engines of 28,000 horse power. Her major armament will consist of ten fourteen-inch guns. She will be one of the first vessels of the navy to be armed with fourteen inch rifles. With a displacement of 5,000 tons more than that of the Florida, the New York when launched will be the biggest and most powerful fighting ship ever constructed for the United States navy. She and her sister ship, the Texas, will be larger in every way than the Florida, which, it is expected, will soon be ready to go into commission at the Brooklyn yard. The New York is to be built entirely by the construction corps of the navy at the New York navy yard, of which Commander Robert Stocker, U. S. N., is the head. The great battleship is shown on the ways in the lower photograph, and above is seen a diver examining the ways under water on which the ship will slide into its watery berth.

DRUG STORES WILL CLOSE AT 8 O'CLOCK

The druggists have agreed upon a proposition which is satisfactory to everybody in this good town except the person suffering from an angry molar, the babe who needs paregoric, and needs it at once, and the bibliophile—a la Roosevelt—who along about 11 o'clock, when everything else is in a state of innocuous desuetude, desires to become bibliophilistic and wants some kind of a magazine badly. The proposition agreed upon is that the drug stores be closed evenings until further notice at 8 o'clock, except on paynights at the mills and Saturdays. They have been closing at 9 o'clock. The clerks go to work at 7 o'clock in the mornings and the proprietors decided that it was fair to them that the stores be closed one hour earlier. The bibliophile, who purchases his reading matter at the drugstores, and is somewhat of a Bohemian, feels somewhat outraged. However, there are men paid to sleep in most of the stores at night, and if you should need medicine and need it badly, all you have to do is to wake them up, and ask for what you want.

COUNTY DIVISION HAS FEW FRIENDS

W. W. Meyers, socialist candidate for county commissioner, who has returned from a trip through the eastern part of the county in the interest of his candidacy, said Saturday that he found little sentiment for county division. "I did not meet a man at Sandy," said Mr. Meyers, "who favored the proposition to divide the county. At a meeting we had there at least fifty voters were present and all were against forming a new county. It was the same at Eagle Creek. I am firmly convinced if sentiment throughout the state is the same as it is in Clackamas county the plan will be over,whelmingly defeated."

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT TO BE PASTOR'S THEME

One of the important questions to be decided by vote of the people of Oregon in November is the abolition of capital punishment. It raises the whole question of what to do with the man or woman who goes wrong. What is the purpose of punishment? How can society fitly punish a murderer? The question has been brought before two of the church brother-hoods of Oregon City and it will be discussed by Rev. George N. Edwards at the congregational church tonight at the regular service.

DR. MILLIKEN TO PREACH ON SUICIDE OF GIRL

Dr. W. T. Milliken, pastor of the Baptist church, will preach this evening upon "The Tragedy of a Ruined Life." He will call attention to the suicide of a girl this week after an automobile trip to Portland. Dr. Milliken said Saturday: "Some young men think it is smart to contribute to the delinquency of children. At one time the child, for she was but fourteen years old, was a member of the church, having professed conversion. Her name was still on the roll at her death. Someone led her away from the right path, and the Master of men, who himself will be the judge, says: "Whosoever shall cause one of these little ones to stumble, it is profitable that a great millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depth of the sea. Who to that man through whom the offense cometh?" The man who tempts a child into any form of sin deserves only the most scathing denunciation from all who value true manhood, and is unworthy to be ranked as a man."

MR. AND MRS. TAYLOR BANQUET HONOR GUESTS

The women of the Royal Neighbor Camp tendered a banquet Tuesday evening to the Modern Woodmen of America in the Woodmen hall in honor of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. D. Taylor, whose wedding took place in this city last Thursday evening, and who are members of the lodge. There were about twenty-five members of the lodge attending, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The dining room was festooned with red, white and blue and the decorations were of autumn leaves, ferns and cut flowers. Many congratulations and best wishes were extended Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

and is much felt in this, as well as in other places where he has been known.

Mr. and Mrs. Roth leave a large family to mourn their loss. Their ten children: Mrs. Knofziger, Mrs. Kauffmann, Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. Loder, Mrs. Christner, Mrs. Strubar, and the Messrs. Joe, Dan, Will and Lee Roth were present at the funeral. Following a short service at the house there was an address at the Zion church. The burial was at the Zion cemetery.

Lena Kummer was stricken with typhoid fever about three weeks ago, and, despite the most unremitting care and the best medical aid available, grew steadily worse till the night of Friday, the 11th, when death came to her release.

She had been perfectly conscious recognizing and speaking with friends till a few hours before the end came.

Lena was a girl of musical promise, and was just eighteen years old. Her death is deeply felt, not only by her own people but by all who knew her.

She had endeared herself, especially to all, who had been associated with her in school, being an apt and faithful scholar, as well as a bright and lovable classmate. Her former teachers are greatly grieved at her early death. Her funera was largely attended and there were many beautiful floral offerings.

John Kummer, who was taken ill at the same time with his sister, is better now.

Mrs. Chas. Kraxberger, who has been ill for several days is recovering. With the exception of three cases of sickness, Macksburg seems to be very healthful this season. The weather is superb and the late crops are turning out fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Walsh, with their children, were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. Henry Walsh, at Drylands. They came home on Sunday night. Mr. Walsh returning to work at Drylands Monday morning.

WILSONVILLE.

Professor Graham and family have moved to Portland, where the Professor is taking up his musical duties again.

J. Thornton and Mr. McKinney returned from a deer hunt in Southern Oregon last week and their fortunate neighbors have been feasting on venison.

Dr. Brown was in Portland on Friday.

Mr. Shawie spent Friday in Portland.

Mrs. Cronin's sister and family have returned home.

Mrs. J. W. Thornton is expected home this week, after visiting with her son in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bethme have moved to the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Wall.

Mr. Eichenberger, who has just returned from a trip to Germany, visited his brother-in-law, M. Bataglia, last week.

The road work from the corner into Wilsonville is now assured, the merchants having contributed largely in money, and the farmers are donating their teams and labor for that purpose.

The school house is now completed, and school is going on as usual, under more favorable circumstances.

The fifth grade has been added to the village school, and outsiders may affiliate by paying $20 a year, or $2.75 a month tuition.

Mrs. Bataglia and daughters went to Portland on Saturday to attend the wedding of Miss Martha Eichenberger on Monday.

H. D. Aden has been buying a splendid stock of new fall goods.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Crisell were serenaded again on Tuesday evening, and made glad welcome ring for the merry-makers.

DR. W. B. HINSON TO HAVE ASSISTANT

D. W. B. Hinson, pastor of the White Temple in Portland, who spoke at the Baptist convention in this city Friday, announced Friday evening that Dr. P. A. Agar, superintendent of missions of the Idaho convention had been called as assistant pastor of the White Temple. Dr. Hinson did not know whether Dr. Agar had accepted, but a telegram from Spokane received in this city announced that he had. Dr. Agar is about forty years of age and has a family. He will be the first assistant pastor the White Temple has ever had.

ATHLETIC CLUB FOR YOUNG MEN PLANNED

At the suggestion of the pastor, Rev. G. N. Edwards, an athletic club will be organized in the gymnasium of the congregational church next Wednesday evening. The instructors will be Augustus Wagner, instructor of science and director of athletics in the high school, and Charles Lesler, who has had much experience in Young Men's Christian Association work. J. C. Cook will assist in the organization and management of the club. Applicants for membership must be eighteen years or older. Classes will be conducted each Wednesday evening in the church gymnasium. Members of all churches are invited to become members of the club.

PROFIT IN CABBAGE AND KRAUT

There is no country where cabbage and cauliflower do so well as in this section. The climate is just right, and a first class article can be produced without irrigation and the markets are good, compared with what some of the large factories in the Middle West are paying for kraut cabbage per ton. Notice quotations in an Eastern paper where some of the largest factories paid $4 per ton for cabbage, while here it is from $8 to $12 per ton. While the market is seldom less than $20 per ton, and as high as $40. An acre will grow 8 to 12 tons, but when cabbage is low in price say not over $8 per ton, a great deal of this product is made into sauer kraute by farmers and individuals who like the home made article better than a factory production. For the benefit of these you will find the following way to make kraut that will be good and keep good as long as it lasts. One should use new barrels every year or else get it so very clean and sterilized that it will be as clean as a new one. Cut the cabbage very fine preferably the long way. Add to every 25 pounds of cabbage a cup full of dairy salt, mix well and place in barrel. Press down with your hands until the liquid appears, do not use a stamper for it crushes the cabbage too much. To make kraut in large quantities the same rule should be used, the barrel must not leak, remove the head when barrel is full, place the head back in the barrel, then take a small gimlet and make a hole in the head, this will let the gasses and fermentation out, and keep out all the impurities. When the kraut is through fermentation and the liquid has gone down, the barrel should be filled with water to which has been added a little salt. In this way kraut can be kept a long time. LITTLE THINGS.

The streams of small pleasures fill the lake of happiness, and the deepest wretchedness of life is the continuance of petty pains. County of London. Twenty-four parishes and twenty-eight boroughs are comprised in the county of London. MISS BEATIE AND MR. CARTER TO WED (Continued from page 1) State University and has taught in the schools of this city and Portland. She is one of the most cultured women of Oregon City, and has taken a leading part in all work looking to the advancement of the city. Her father, C. F. Beatie, who died about twenty-six years ago, was one of the most prominent pioneers of the state. She is a sister of Mrs. David Caulfield and Mrs. L. T. Harris, of Eugene. Mr. Carter, when he came to this country, settled at Wilhoit. He soon identified himself prominently with the interests of the county, and, after moving to Gladstone, was honored by being elected a member of the legislature. Mr. Carter obtained the license Saturday afternoon and, although his friends and relatives were surprised when they learned of the approaching wedding all were delighted and hastened to offer congratulations.

DR. J. W. NORRIS AIDS HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

The High School library has been increased in value and efficiency and the student body correspondingly elated by the gift of Dr. J. W. Norris of sixty volumes of literature and history. The collection is composed of many volumes of rare value, historical and literary, and others of high practical merit. All are helpful as daily reference works. They are beautifully bound, most of them in morocco. In the collection are: Gibbon's "The Roman Empire"—six volumes; Lyman's "History of Oregon"—four volumes; Hallam's "The Middle Ages"—three volumes; Grote's "History of Greece"—four volumes; Green's "History of the English People"—five volumes; Boswell's "Life of Samuel Johnson"—four volumes; Persian and Japanese Literature—two volumes; Lord's Beacon Lights of History—fifteen volumes; Historical Works of George Rawlinson—five volumes; Carlyle's "French Revolution"—two volumes; Plutarch's Lives—five volumes; Taine's "English Literature"—four volumes; Hindu, Turkish, Moorish, Malaysian and Egyptian Literature—four volumes. This contribution to the school library where it will daily benefit and give genuine pleasure to hundreds of students, to teachers and others, is highly appreciated by the faculty and students and by the community as well. The collection has been arranged in the library under the general title of "The Dr. J. W. Norris Gift."

The Pacific Northwest Land Product Show to be held November 18th to 23rd and promises to be one of the biggest shows held in the State since the Lewis & Clark Fair. Already Clackamas County is getting busy collecting exhibits for this show. The best of everything at the Canby Fair is on exhibition at the Publicity Office and any one not having had time to visit the fair can see now those good samples of what can be grown here. Everyone is invited to inspect the big fruit and vegetables. Those contributing to this collection are the Barlow Improvement Club, Harding Grange of Logan, Warner Grange, and many good farmers who are interested in exploiting and showing what can be done in Clackamas County. People somehow take pride in growing big vegetables, and like to show them. They have a
