H. P. Myton, of the Republican county committee, Salt Lake City, Utah, writes to the Republican National committee in Chicago, that Utah is safe for President Taft.

The turning of the tide toward Taft was inevitable under the circumstances. It was to be and was foreseen. The more the people get down to the cold facts and take a square look at these facts, the stronger and more general will be this same drift toward the president.—Marion, Ind., Chronicle.

A prominent Democratic living in Marne, Iowa, having been asked to contribute to the Democratic campaign fund, replied that he would like to do so but if the Democrats came into power he knew that financial gloom would settle over the country and that he must, therefore, protect his credits.

FRIEND OF WORKINGMAN

"William Howard Taft is the best friend the American workingman ever had in the White House, and it is up to us to keep him there."

This emphatic statement, made at a mass meeting of employes at the main shops of the Chicago & North-western Railroad, at the noon hour by Andrew P. Kelly, a well known labor leader identified with railway men's organizations, brought a ring-

Swimming an Important Lesson Public Schools Fail to Teach

By KATHERINE MEHRTENS, Secretary of the United States Life Saving Corps

WE have all branches of manual training in our public schools, from sewing to carpentry, yet little or no attention is paid to human life. Children are taught all the rudiments of housekeeping, stenography, music and singing, but the greatest lesson of all, THAT OF SAVING THEIR OWN LIVES, is absolutely ignored.

IF I HAD MY WAY I WOULD HAVE LARGE SWIMMING POOLS BUILT IN OR NEAR EVERY PUBLIC BUILDING, WITH A SALARIED SWIMMING TEACHER ALWAYS ON HAND. SWIMMING SHOULD BE A PART OF A CHILD'S EDUCATION JUST AS LEARNING TO READ AND WRITE IS.

If the children were taught to swim nine-tenths of the accidents by drowning could be avoided.

ing cheer of applause from those present and indicated that President Taft is recovering emphatic support in the ranks of organized labor.

The speaker recounted the various labor laws enacted during the present administration and compared the record with the partial accomplishments of previous administrations. He pointed out that in the closing days of Roosevelt's second term the railroad men of the south were threatened with a sweeping ten per cent reduction in wages owing to the industrial stringency that came in the wake of the panic of 1907-1908. This cut in wages, he declared was postponed for ninety days and was finally averted by the election of President Taft, who ushered in an era of unprecedented prosperity.

"President Taft is the nation's business agent," said Mr. Kelly. "He has made good. He has given a square deal. He has brought increased prosperity and increased wages. He has helped the laboring man. He is entitled to our support. Who ever heard of a laboring man turning down a business agent who was on the job? That's President Taft to a T. We are with him and we will keep him on the job four years."

Shop officials declared after the meeting that Mr. Kelly had been better received than any other speaker during the campaign.

Noonday meetings are being held daily in all the railroad shops in Chicago and vicinity and are being largely attended by enthusiastic workmen who do not want a change from present prosperous conditions.

MUST VOTE FOR TAFT

Roosevelt, Who Cannot Be Elected Says That Wilson's Election Means Nation-Wide Disaster.

Col. Roosevelt, the Third Term candidate, cannot possibly be elected. There is no way in which he can carry enough states to give him 266 electoral votes.

But by dividing the Republican party, Col. Roosevelt can aid in electing Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic candidate. Should Wilson be elected? Roosevelt says that Wilson's election would plunge this country into nationwide disaster. Here are Roosevelt's own words written in the Outlook of July, 27, 1912:

"If Dr. Wilson were elected, he would either have to repudiate the promises made about the tariff in the Democratic platform or else bring every industry in the country to a crash which would make all panics in our past history seem like child's play in comparison. In short, were Dr. Wilson elected on this platform, he would be obliged at the very outset of his administration to face the alternatives of dishonesty or disaster, the alternatives of refusing to carry out the expressed pledges of the platform, or else of causing such disaster to every worker in the country as would mean nationwide ruin."

As Roosevelt cannot be elected, and as Roosevelt says that Wilson's election would mean disaster it is a logical conclusion that the vote of the country must be given to President Taft.

Monkeys' Resque

"Kamala" is the vernacular name of the red dye produced from the glands of the mature fruit of a tree named Mallotus philippinensis, which is also called the monkey face tree because monkeys paint their faces red by rubbing them with the fruit. Here is a striking instance of the influence of heredity.

WHY CONGRESSMAN W. C. HAWLEY Should Be Re Ejected to Congress.

Because Mr. Hawley has had "No interests to serve but the public interests."

Because in point of ability, experience in qualifications for the position of congressman no opposition candidate can compare favorably with Mr. Hawley.

Because of large abilities and efficiency is added Mr. Hawley's reputation for honesty, moral manhood and a character without blemish.

Because he was born in Oregon, knows her needs and has secured millions of dollars for public improvements in the First District.

Because he does not spend recesses between sessions in Congress in idleness but travels thousands of miles annually over his district conferring with his constituents and learning their needs and opinions that he may better serve and represent them.

Because it has been proven that Mr. Hawley is able, efficient and successful and has large plans for the people which he can complete in an other term.

Because he has reached an influential position in Congress after years of hard work on committees on Agriculture and Labor and his future labors would bring greater results for Oregon than any new man could hope to secure until after several terms in Congress.

Because without distinction in party affiliation, wealth or position, Mr. Hawley has served all of the people to the full extent of his abilities.

Because as a public servant he has labored for progressive legislation beneficial to the people, the State and Nation that Presidents Taft and Roosevelt, his associates in the House, and his constituents generally have praised Mr. Hawley in terms similar to those of Governor West who made the following state ment after a visit to the National Capitol: "In intellect, oratorical ability and devotion to the interests of the people, Hawley stands head and shoulders above the great majority of the members of the National House of Representatives."

Advertising is successful without a proper store, proper employees and the right amount of capital it must be assumed that these three conditions are essential to the conduct of profitable trade, and it is as obvious that so long as advertising accomplishes the business of profit advertising is necessary. The mere appearance of advertising indicates that business is being done or will be done, and so long as everybody prefers to buy of men of success rather than of men of failure just so long will the man who advertises be likely to do the largest business.

If it happened it is in the Enterprise.

FORAKER SUPPORTS TAFT

Says All Other Candidates Seek to Destroy Republican Party.

By his physician's orders, former Senator Foraker has been compelled to decline the invitation to make speeches this campaign. Of course as a loyal Republican, he is supporting Taft. For quite a while the former senator was in Maine for his health, and while there he was a keen observer of the political situation. He declares that the result in Maine was emphatically a victory for the policy of protection. Upon his return home he gave a highly interesting statement to the Cincinnati "Commercial Tribune," from which the following is excerpted:

"It is the duty of every Republican who wants to support the Republican party and Republican principles to remember that there is no way to support the party and its principles except by supporting President Taft. 'Nobody else pretends to represent the Republican party. Every other candidate for the presidency is the open and avowed enemy of the Republican party. All alike are seeking its defeat and destruction.'"
