PER WEEK, 10 CENTS

SHERMAN'S BODY TO LIE IN STATE

FUNERAL OF LATE VICE-PRES-IDENT TO BE HELD TOMOR-ROW AFTERNOON

HADLEY MAY BE HIS SUCCESSOR

Missouri Governor Choice of Several Members of Committee as Candidate to go Before College

UTICA, N. Y. Oct. 31.—Arrangements for the funeral of Vice-President Sherman were practically completed today. The services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church and will be attended by President Taft and members of his Cabinet, Senators and Representatives, foreign diplomats and Government officials.

It was at first announced that the obsequies would be held in Christ Church, of which Mr. Sherman was a member but as this edifice seats only about 700 persons, the plans were changed when Rev. Ralph W. Brokaw offered the use of the Presbyterian Church, which has a seating capacity of more than 3000. Rev. Louis H.
Holden, Mr. Sherman's pastor, will conduct the funeral service, assisted by Rev. M. W. Stryker, professor of Hamilton College and Dr. Brokaw, pastor of the Presbyterian Church. An hour before the church services there will be a private service for members of the family at the Sherman residence.

The body of the Vice-President will lie in state from 2 P. M. to 4 P. M. tomorrow in the rotunda of the county building.

At the close of the funeral services the body will be taken to Forest Hill Cemetery, where it will be placed on the beautiful Babcock mausoleum, which was completed only recently and where Mr. Sherman's mother rests.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The selection of a successor to Vice-President Sherman as the Republican candidate to go before the electoral college in January was the subject of informal discussion among Republican members of the National Committee now in New York. Governor Hadley, of Missouri has been announced as the choice of the committee, but no effort has been made as yet to settle on a candidate.

The fact that Chairman Hillies has delayed the meeting of the National committee until November 12 will, it is believed, prevent any general agreement upon the Vice-Presidential candidate until after the results of the election are known.

CHURCH HALLOWE'EN SOCIAL DELIGHTS

The hallowe'en social given at the Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening by the members of the Friendly Bible Class was largely attended, and proved a most successful affair.
The early part of the evening was devoted to a literary and musical program consisting of the following numbers: Piano duet, Misses Clark; vocal solo, L. Aldredge; duet, Mrs.
Hugh Kennedy and Bradley Woodward; reading, Miss Pickthorn; solo, Miss Lulu McGally; recitation, Sammy McLarty; solo, Miss Helen Ely; solo, William McLarty; piano solo, Mr. Miller; vocal solo, Hugh Kennedy.
Games were enjoyed as well as ghost stories, many thrilling stories being told by members of the class.

The decorations of the room were very appropriate, being of huge pumpkins, jack o'lanterns, witches and cats. The young women members of the class, attired in sheets and pillow cases, acted as a reception committee, and it was difficult for the guests to distinguish them.

RECEIPTS OF CLERK'S OFFICE MAKE RECORD

The receipts of the County Clerk's office established a new record for October. County Clerk Mulvey announced Thursday that $792.50 had been received, the highest amount collected before in one month having been $754. The collections in October 1911 were $584.25. The increase is due to the larger number of utility licenses than in any previous months.

MRS. EVANS HOSTESS OF HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Evans entertained a delightfully a hallowe'en party at their home in Oak Grove Thursday.
Old time games, cards and music were played. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The rooms were very pretty with Hallowe'en decorations.

HALLOWE'EN REVELERS FORCED TO OBEY LAW

The activity of the regular policemen and the nine extra men sworn in by the mayor at the suggestion of E.
L. Shaw made hallowe'en night a remarkably quiet one. There were plenty of masqueraders on the street, but the young men who remove gates, put wagons in haylofts, and do similar stunts were not in evidence.

REPUBLICANS HAVE GLADSTONE RALLY

DISTRICT ATTORNEY SPEAKS FOR COUNTY, STATE AND NA-TIONAL TICKET

MILWAUKIE TO HEAR CANDIDATES

Great Mass-Meeting Will be Held at Woodman Hall in This City
Tomorrow
Night

One of the most enthusiastic meetings held by the candidates for office in this county during the present campaign was that at Gladstone Thursday evening by the Republicans. Miller's Hall was about two-thirds filled, and the speakers were given the closest attention.

E. B. Tongue, candidate for re-election for District Attorney, was the principal speaker. He declared that the county, state and national ticket should be elected and said that the Republicans of Clackamas County had indicated they would do their duty.
Mr. Tongue is one of the most eloquent and forceful speakers in Oregon and he was applauded throughout his address.

Others who spoke were E. C. Hackett, nominee for sheriff; J. F. Nelson, nominee for assessor; E. P. Dedman, nominee for recorder and C. Shuebel, nominee for representative in the Legislature.

The candidates will speak at Milwaukie this evening and Saturday night will have a big rally in Oregon City. George C. Brownell and other prominent Republicans besides the candidates probably will speak. It is the intention to have the rally in the Woodman Hall.

GLADSTONE RESIDENTS FIND LITTLE WANDERER

Almost one third of the residents of Gladstone participated late Thursday afternoon in search for the three-year-old daughter of B. E. Berry, bookbinder for the Oregon City Enterprise.
The little girl wandered from her home at Columbia Avenue and Extra Street, about 3:15 o'clock and was not found for more than an hour and a half. Mrs. Berry gave the alarm and neighbors soon joined her in the search. It was not long until scores of men, women and children were scouring the woods in the outskirts of the city. The child was found near the Harrington home and had wandered through part of the woods. The little girl was delighted to see her mother, and said:
"Oh, Mamma, I am so glad to see you. I had a fine time and I was not the least afraid."

PIGEON SUSPECTED OF AIDING POLITICIANS

A carrier pigeon evidently belonging to some branch of the United States government has found a home at the residence of J. E. Jack, county assessor, Fourth and High Streets, this city. The bird, which has a tag bearing the initials U. S., the number 1628, and an arm with "1" inscribed on it appeared at the home of Mr. Jack about a month ago, and has refused to leave. It makes its home on the porch in the rear of the house and is so gentle that it eats out of Mr. Jack's hands.
"I am convinced," said Mr. Jack, who is a Democrat, "that the pigeon either lost its way or has been sent out by the Republican headquarters in Portland or some other city to find out what the Democrats think of their prospects at the coming election." Mr. Jack is a well informed politician. However, he keeps quiet on this subject when in the presence of the wandering pigeon.

MISS ADA BEDWELL AID SOCIETY HOSTESS

Miss Ada Bedwell was the delicious hostess of the Canemah Aid Society Thursday afternoon. Most of the afternoon was devoted to quilting, and all of Miss Bedwell's guests thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The hostess served delicious refreshments.
Miss Bedwell's guests were Mesdames Sarah Miller, Mary V. Howell, W. W.
Freeman, Samuel Faust, Naomi Bowers, A. H. Finnegan, H. E. Jones, J. O.
Scott, E. W. Scott, W. L. Midlam, Charles Lane, of Pendleton, sister of the hostess and Lynn Hatch.

BALLOTS ARE SENT TO JUDGES OF ELECTION

County Clerk Mulvey announced Thursday that all the ballots and ballot boxes would be in the hands of the judges of election by Saturday night. Mr. Mulvey turns the ballots and boxes over to Sheriff Mass, who has them delivered to the judges of election in the various precincts. Owing to the length of the ballots it is expected that the counting of the votes will take longer than usual.

TRAFTON M. DYE AND Y. W. C. A. AIDE TO WED

Trafton M. Dye, the eldest son of Colonel and Mrs. Charles H. Dye, of Oregon City, will be married in Portland next Thursday to Miss Mary Elizabeth Ward, social secretary of the Young Woman's Christian Assa-ciation. The wedding will be solemnized at the home of the bride's mother. Mr. Dye is a graduate of Oberlin College and of Columbia University, New York, where he was one of the editors of the College Law Review.
This position is one of the highest honors that can be attained by a student at Columbia. He is now a practicing attorney in Portland. Miss Ward was graduated from Albion College, Mich., and is a young woman of many accomplishments.

MRS. WALLIS, RESIDENT OF SHUBEL, DIES

Mrs. Agnes Wallis, for more than 30 years a resident of Shubel, died at her home Monday. She was seventy years of age and is survived by her husband, Henry Wallis. Mr. and Mrs.
Wallis were born in Germany, both coming to this country while young.
They were married 40 years ago. Four children survive their mother. The funeral was held at the home, Rev. H.
Mau, officiating. The interment was in the cemetery at Clarks.

STREET FILL DAMAGES BUSCH'S PROPERTY

The filling in of Main Street between Eleventh and Twelfth Streets, by the Montague-O'Reilly Company, which has the contract for hard-surfacing the street from Moss to the Abernethy, has caused one of the concrete piers erected by Frank Busch at his retaining wall to break. The Busch property is much below the street level and the wall was erected as part of a foundation for a building which Mr. Busch expects to have constructed soon. As a result of the breaking of the pier the filled in street in one place encroaches upon Mr.
Busch's property. He will insist that the condition be remedied.

that his colt will be just as fast, if not faster, than his noted sire.

BURK'S REPORT LEADS TO STREET PROBE

The appointment of T. W. Sullivan to make an investigation of the classification of work on Sixteenth, Jackson and John Quincy Adams Streets, was the result of a report made to the city council by F. C. Burk, inspector of streets. Mr. Sullivan reported that the work should have been done cheaper than the proposed charges of the Oregon Engineering & Construction Company, which has the contract, because of a lack of cement gravel and hard pan. Mr. Burk's report was as follows:
"I hereby call your attention to the fact, that according to the report of the City Engineer in classifying the earth on Sixteenth, Jackson and John Quincy Adams Streets, where the same is now under the course of improvement, allowance has been made for hard pan and cement gravel, where in my judgment and according to the specifications for the improvement of the said streets, no hard pan or cement gravel ought to be allowed. The sub-grade where these allowances have been made, was placed with four horse teams in each case.
The sewer on Fifteenth and Jackson Streets has been put in at an expense of $745.50 and I believe that a wall sufficient for the purpose could have been built for not over $400.
The sewer at Green Point according to my opinion, is not practical, for the reason that the manhole has been placed so near the river, that the same will fill up, and cause the water to back up and fill the sewer and leave no outlet."

pital, for appendicitis, is improving home in this city today.

BUSCH INSISTS ON R. R. HAVING YARD

MERCHANT TELLS COUNCIL CARS
STREETS

FREIGHT STATION IS ALSO URGED

Plan is to Have New Franchise so Constructed as to Make Improvements Virtually Mandatory

Residents of Oregon City are determined that the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company shall agree to erect a freight station and having a freight yard in this city before another freight franchise is granted.
The City Council considered the new franchise at one of its recent meetings, and does not intend to pass up it until the people have expressed themselves. At a recent mass meeting in the council chamber, which was attended by several councilmen, and at least a score of property owners, Frank Busch declared that the road should be forced to provide the station and freight yard. Mr. Busch first made the suggestion at a meeting of the Live Wires about a year ago.

"The franchise should not be granted until the company agrees to the proposition," said Mr. Busch at the mass meeting. "Loaded and unloaded cars should not be allowed to stand on the streets. The city probably cannot compel the company directly to make the improvement, but it can compel it to keep its freight cars off the streets, except those in actual operation, which would force the company to provide the yard and station." Coal, feed, lumber, wire, etc., are shipped here in large quantities, and much of it is allowed to stand on side tracks at the lower end of the city.
It would be more convenient for the company and the cars would not be in the way and eyesores on the street if it had a yard. The company owns property which could be converted into a yard. Most of the freight business done in the city is at the lower end and the company would save money by not having to haul its cars to the station at Third and Main Streets and having the freight sent to various parts of the city.

"I have talked with E. G. Canfield, and other citizens regarding the project and all of them agree with me." The council has given notice that all residents of the city are invited to be present the night the franchise is considered and present their views.

BRIDEGROOM OF FEW DAYS ODDLY GONE

George Huard, who disappeared in Portland Saturday, and who was married the Tuesday previously to Mrs.
Jessie Durbin, is still missing, and his wife is alarmed about him. Mr. Huard who had been employed by the Blum-auer-Frank Drug Company as shipping clerk for the past two years, appeared at his work at the usual time Saturday, but about 2:30 o'clock informed his employers that he wished to go to his home at Oak Grove. He however, did not go home. He was seen by his father, who lives at Woodstock, Portland, about 12 o'clock and was seen by a friend at 3 o'clock that afternoon in Portland.

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Huard took place in this city October 22.
Mayor G. B. Dimick performing the ceremony. The couple went to Evergreen, the home of Mrs. Huard's mother, Mrs. Clodfelter. Mrs. Huard said that several times since their marriage her husband remarked that he feared that he was going to lose his mind. His father said that his son before marriage was suffering from melancholia and it is possible that he has been seized with one of these spells.

Mrs. Huard has searched Portland, and detectives have aided her without avail. Mrs. Huard was in this city a few days ago, and reported her husband's disappearance to Sheriff Mass, who is trying to locate the missing man.
Mr. Huard is about 6 feet three inches tall, has Auburn hair, light complexion, is smoothly shaven, and has two gold front teeth. He is 30 years of age. At the time of his disappearance he wore a gray suit, black derby hat, and cravenette coat.
Mrs. Huard is prostrated over the disappearance of her husband and a physician is in attendance. Her condition was critical Wednesday. Her friends are taking an active interest and are assisting in the search.

Several schoolboys attending the Oak Grove school reported Wednesday evening of seeing a man sitting near the river bank and weeping. The boys not arriving at their homes until late in the evening a search was not made that night for the man, but several parties were on the lookout Thursday. When leaving for his work on the day of his disappearance Mr. Huard returned three times to bid his wife farewell.
Mr. Huard is well known in this city and at Gladstone, having lived in Gladstone about a year ago with his parents, his mother dying at that place shortly before they moved to Clackamas. Shortly before marrying Mr. Huard lived with his sister Mrs.
J. Sweeney.
Anyone hearing of Huard's whereabouts may telephone to Black 753, Oak Grove, and the news will be sent immediately to his wife.

If you saw it in the Enterprise it's so.

TONGUE SHOWS UP SHERIFF'S OFFICE

DISTRICT ATTORNEY MAKES PUB-LIC ACTIONS OF MASS
IN HILL CASE.

COMPARISONS ARE BROUGHT OUT

Mr. Tongue Denounces Attempt To Railroad Suspect And Says Taxpayers' Money Will Not Be Squandered

OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 31.—(Editor of the Enterprise.)—E. T. Mass in his campaign and in his PAID advertisement has a great deal to say about the Hill murder case but is very silent on the subject of the several other murders that have been committed in this county during his two years in office wherein he has not secured the evidence to cause any person to be indicted for a single one of them. He says: "The district attorney's office did not give me the help in the Hill case he required. The fact is he took to his assistance a high priced Portland detective and not only did not, except on one occasion, come to me for advice, but he absolutely refused to follow any given by me. They seemed to think they knew all about criminal law and criminal evidence and I knew nothing, perhaps they also thought I wanted a part of the thousands of dollars reward, but I did not. They have been one reason why they did not seek the assistance of Mr. Stipp or myself. I do not know. The readers may not draw their own conclusions.

Not only did Mass refuse to consider any advice from me but Mr.
Cowing—who in a circular being circulated praising Mass and condemning Mr. Stipp, the grand jury and myself—refused to EVEN recognize us in the matter. On March 15th I wrote him the following letter, to-wit: Messrs Cowing & Cowing
Portland, Oregon.
Gentlemen:
I had some little talk, a day or so ago, with Detectives Carpenter and Mitchell. They seem to be tolerably well convinced that they can locate and arrest the fiend who committed the Hill murder. They told me of some evidence they have which occurs to me to be pretty liberally strong so far as it goes. At any rate it occurs to me that the matter should be sifted out. They seem to have some hesitancy in doing any work on the case unless some advances come on you, as you had employed Levings.
For some reason or other while Levings claimed to have known some of the information given to me by Mr. Carpenter, and Mr. Mitchell, Levings did not intimate to the Grand Jury that he had any such knowledge.
It occurs to me that by the attitude heretofore assumed by Levings and Mass, that they practically debar themselves from proceeding against any person other than Harvey.

I am extremely anxious that the man that did this fearful deed be apprehended and brought to the bar to stand trial, and I suggest for you to talk the matter over with Carpenter and Mitchell meets with your approval. I would like to have you to do so at the earliest possible moment because I do not believe that they can be induced to take up the case unless it be with your full consent and approval.

Very truly yours,
E. B. TONGUE.
The work of these two men would not have cost Mr. Cowing one cent.
Only that but Mr. Cowing did not even answer the letter, but turned it over to Levings and Mass who of course would not allow any one else to work on the case. For if the other fellow should find the murderer of the great reputation of Mass and Company as criminal catchers together with the reward would be gone fore-ever. If Mr. Cowing was half as anxious to find and hang the man that committed the Hill murder as he pretends to be, why did he not answer this letter? Why did he not help us?
Why did he not give us a chance?
He claims to have so much personal knowledge. Yet he never came near the Grand Jury. He did not give them the benefit of this great amount of personal knowledge he speaks of.
Mr. Cowing's own daughter before the Grand Jury refused to say that she even thought Harvey was guilty.
I am told by the county clerk that Levings, the so-called detective, has not as yet rendered a bill to the County Court for his valuable (?) services. Why has this not been done?
Is he awaiting until after election when the amount he asks for cannot hurt Mass' chance to be elected?
Why does not Mr. Mass be honest and fair enough to tell the voters that "Levings and he admitted to the County Court that they did not have evidence enough against Harvey to convict him?"

Does he think a campaign of misrepresentation and deceit is honest and square or does he know what that means?
He says the Grand Jury in their report commended him for his work in the Harvey case. They did in the following language, to-wit:
"We also wish to commend Sheriff Mass, in his efforts to apprehend the murderer of the Hill family." But he wants the people to infer the Grand Jury either condemned or was silent on the District Attorney.
The part in the report of the Grand Jury which he does not mention reads as follows:
"On account of the many, various and conflicting reports in the newspapers concerning the investigation of the murder of the Hill family, we take this opportunity to commend District Attorney Tongue and Deputy Stipp in their honest, careful, cautious and unbiased method pursued in conducting the investigation."
