Candidate for

District Attorney

GILBERT L. HEDGES

To the Voters of Clackamas County:

Among the candidates soliciting your votes at the coming November election is Gilbert L. Hedges, candidate for District Attorney of the Fifth Judicial District embracing the counties of Clackamas, Washington, Clatsop, and Columbia, who is especially entitled to your consideration.

Mr. Hedges was born and raised in Clackamas County and has been here all his life except the time spent away from home in College and in law school preparing himself for the particular work which he is now asking you to employ him to do. Mr. Hedges filled this office by appointment under Governor Chamberlain and no doubt his success in handling the criminal business of the Court will be remembered by many of the voters of Clackamas County, especially those voters who were on the jury panels during that period of time.

The district attorney's office should be filled with a bright, active young man, who is not afraid to work and who has no political axes to grind and who will without fear or favor enforce the laws of the State of Oregon against all transgressors, whether they be high, low, rich or poor and such a man is Gilbert L. Hedges.

Except for the short time which Mr. Hedges held the office by appointment this office has been occupied by a citizen of another county of this District and since Mr. Hedges is a resident of Clackamas County he should be entitled to the votes of Clackamas County as a matter of loyalty and also upon the general principle that Clackamas County will receive more efficient service from the district attorney's office where the district attorney himself resides within the county.

Why go from home to vote for an attorney to transact and look after your county's legal business when we have one among us who is qualified in every way to do the work and who has proven by a past trial and experience that he can do it in a capable and fearless manner.

L. ADAMS,
of Oregon City's Big Dept Store.
