LOCAL BRIEFS

Dr. van Brakle, Osteopath, Masonic Building, Phone Main 399.
For that graceful figure, wear the Spirella Corset, Room 4, Willamette Bldg. Phone Main 3552.
Mrs. S. M. Gillett, who underwent a serious operation at the Oregon City Hospital a few weeks ago, is improving so that she will be able to be taken to her home near Mountain View next week.
Edward McFarland, who was taken to the Oregon City Hospital last week, when he undergoing medical treatment for ear trouble, is improving.
Miss Gribble was Tuesday taken to the Oregon City Hospital where she is receiving treatment for a severe attack of appendicitis. It is thought that a surgical operation will not be necessary.
Joe Dhoglie, who was brought to this city about six weeks ago, is still at the hospital. Mr. Dhoglie was severely kicked in the knee by a horse six weeks ago, the knee cap being badly lacerated. Drs. Todd and Guy Mount operated on the knee.
Walter Beach, who was formerly connected with the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company, is in the Oregon City Hospital, having come here to have an operation performed. Mr. Beach will be able to leave for his home the latter part of this week.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Godfrey, who have been occupying the James Roake property on Eleventh and Washington Streets, and the family of Mr. Meadows, who have also been occupying this residence, have moved. Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey have taken one of the Farr apartments, and Mr. and Mrs. Meadows and two children have gone to Portland, where they will make their future home. Mr. Meadows will be employed by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company in that city.
Mrs. M. E. Harrington, of this city, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. M. E. Harrington, of Sellwood.
J. G. Sehorn of Iowa, is in this state visiting his sister, Mrs. M. P. Weaver, of Clackamas, and was in this city Wednesday. Mr. Sehorn is a newspaper man, and may decide to locate in Oregon, as he is much impressed with the West.
Henry Henricl, of Homedale, was transacting business in Oregon City Tuesday.
Miss Ida Manning, of Mulino, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.
Messrs. Herman and Erick Diet-

SUFFRAGE VOTE IN CLACKAMAS CLOSE

Graduated single tax is defeated in this county, the incomplete returns giving $46 for the bill and 2221 against it.
Governor West's hope to abolish capital punishment met with little favor in Clackamas, it being defeated here by nearly 2 to 1. The boycotting bill will lose in this county by more than 1000 votes, and a similar vote was given to the bill prohibiting the use of streets and parks for public discussion, except by permission of the mayor.
The two appropriation bills for the University of Oregon, which appeared on the ballot under the referendum, lost in Clackamas by more than 4 to 1, and the county single tax measure, beaten, the first returns giving 997 votes for the measure and 1858 against it.

Old Time Apothecaries.
Some of the old time apothecaries restored their patients with remedies which their successors today are barred from selling. John Archer, physician in ordinary to Charles II, kept apothecaries' shops in various parts of London and sold tobacco at all of them. Archer recommended his patients to smoke, holding that "tobacco purifies the air from infectious malignancy by its fragrance, sweetens the breath, strengthens the brain and memory and revives the sight to admiration." He charged 2 shillings an ounce for his tobacco, which was supposed to possess special virtues "to be perceived after taking one pipe."—London Standard.

No Sincere.
"Why do you keep pestering me for money all the time?" demanded old Closselst as his son begged for a few dollars extra. "Why don't you go out somewhere and work for it?" "Gee, dad," replied the boy, "is there any harder work anywhere than getting a dollar out of you?"—Harper's Weekly.

DEMAND FOR HOPS TO BE MUCH BETTER

The indications are for an early resumption of trade in the hop market. For the past week the hop market has been somewhat dull. The hops that are held by the growers will probably command about the same prices as those which were sold several weeks ago. The prices paid for hops the past few days are from 18 to 19 cents, these prices being for the best hops. Many of the growers are looking for even higher prices than these between now and the end of the year. Some of the Eastern dealers are sending West for their hops, but these dealers are trying to keep prices down. It is expected that there will be a considerable amount of sales in November.
The egg and butter market of Oregon City is unchanged. Potatoes have gone up to 75 cents retail for the local merchants. There are some potatoes to be dug. The crop is good.

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows:
HIDES—(Buying). Green hides 6c to 7c; salted 7c; dry hides 12c to 14c; sheep pelts 30c to 85c each.

BASEBALL'S 1912 ROLL OF HONOR

Cobb and Zimmerman Lead the Leagues in Batting.

WOOD TOPS ALL PITCHERS.

Boston Americans' Star Pitcher Has the Best Twirling Average—Milan is Greatest Bag Piffere—Pirates Best Batting Club.
All the old warhorses have their names enrolled on the baseball roll of honor for the 1912 season. You'll find the Cobbs, Spencers, Woods, Doyses, Mathewsons, Bakers and Zimmermans—they're all there—bending the big leaguers.
Ty Cobb just simply murdered the ball this year. The Detroit star had 227 hits for an average of .414. No wonder they call him the greatest man on the diamond today. Cobb didn't restrict his energies to batting alone. For in base stealing and run getting Tyrus was right around the leaders.

Joseph Wood of Boston led the pitchers in the American league with an average of .827.
It is peculiar that the pennant winning Giants and Red Sox were not the best hitting and fielding clubs in their leagues. The Pirates carried off these honors in the National, while the Athletics did the same thing in the junior organization.
In the National league Zimmerman of the Cubs led the league with a grand average of .363. Larry Doyle was also a long distance batter, with ten circuit clouts to his credit.
The National league had thirty-two hitting over .300, the Giants supplying four of that number. The Pittsburgh club carried off the batting honors with ten men hitting over .300.
The Pirates ranked first in club batting. Giants second and Chicago third, while the Cincinnati Reds, brought up the rear.
Zimmerman was the slugger in chief, while O. Wilson was second, Wagner third, Cravath fourth and Larry Doyle fifth.
Pittsburgh was the best fielding club, with an average of .971. Fielding was the main weakness of the Giants throughout the season, for the best New Yorkers could do was to land in next to last place with an average of .954.
It was on the bases that McGraw's men stood out brilliantly, for of the ten leading base stealers the Giants were responsible for five—Merkle, Murray, Doyle, Snodgrass and Herzog.
Hendrix of Pittsburgh was the league's star pitcher, with .727. "Big Jeff" Tesreau closely pressed him for the title with .720.
The National league had more Swat Milligans than its rival, for only twenty-eight players hit over .300 per cent in the American league against thirty-two for the National.
Cobb and Jackson were tied for the greatest number of hits. Each made 227, although Jackson played in fourteen more games than the Detroit wonder. "Home Run" Baker finished the year with 252 per cent. He pulled off ten cleanup wallops during the year.
The Athletics led in fielding, with .953 per cent, and the lowly New Yorkers were flanked with .938.
The speedy Milan topped Cobb in base stealing. Milan pilfered eighty-six, while Cobb gnetted sixty.
Eddie Collins was the best run get ter and was followed by Speaker, Cobb Jackson and Baker, all players of more or less ability.
The Athletics did the best club batting for 282 per cent. The St. Louis Browns finished in last place with a total of 247 per cent.
Jackson was the heavy slugger, clouting for 107 extra bases.
The hero of the world's series was Jake Stahl, manager of the Boston. Stahl played consistently good ball all through and outgenerated Johnny McGraw. Herzog of the Giants led both teams in batting.

Questions for Nov. 10

(Copyright, 1911, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)
World's Temperance Sunday. Hosea vii.
Golden Text—Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning that they may follow strong drink, that tarry late into the night till wine inflame them! Isa. x:11.
(1) Verses 1-2—Why cannot a nation nor an individual be mortally healed as long as wrongdoing is continued?
(2) If a government is corrupt and the teachers of the nation false to their trust what will be the condition of the people?
(3) Would men in authority act corruptly if they actually realized that God took notice of their every wicked way?
(4) What effect does continued wrongdoing have upon the judgment of the sinner, upon his own acts?
(5) Verse 3—How fares the nation when the king, the president, the governor, the judge, or others in high authority have been subtly blinded by "graft" or influenced by wine?
(6) Verse 4—When lust and anger burn into a man until his whole life is "leavened" what is the influence of such a life and what will be the man's future?
(7) Verse 5—What is the difference in the effects of "wine" upon the "king and upon the plebeian?"
(8) What is the general effect of drinking wine at banquets and other similar functions?
(9) At what stage in wine drinking does an ordinary decent man join "his hands with the scorners?"
(10) Verse 6—After an all night carousal how does a man feel in the morning?
(11) When men "lie in wait" to do some devilish thing and drink while they wait what effect does the drink have upon them?

(12) Verse 7—When men are "hot" with wine is it ever a burning desire to do good? Give your reasons. (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)
(13) When we find men "hot" with rebellion against good judges and good government, to which class do they generally belong, total abstainers or drinkers? Why?
(14) In these days how many good, God fearing men use wine as a beverage?
(15) Verse 8—When professed Christians consort with the wicked what will be the inevitable result and why?
(16) What kind of a man is he who compares with "a cake not turned," that is burned on one side and half raw on the other?
(17) Verses 9-10—What proportion of drinkers are so fuddled that they are unconscious of loss and cannot see danger?
(18) When men or women are besotted with pride what hope is there for them?
(19) Verses 11-13—What were the results when God's ancient people relied upon other nations for help when God had promised them all the help they needed?
(20) Verses 14-16—How is it that when men have brought great suffering upon themselves by sin they still insist upon rebelling against God? Lesson for Sunday, Nov. 17, 1912. The Great Question. Mark viii:27-ix:1

An Odd Sermon.
It seems doubtful if there is anything more crooked than the following title of a pamphlet published in 1703: "The Deformity of Sin Cured; a Sermon Preached at St. Michael's, Crooked Lane, Before the Prince of Orange, by the Rev. J. Crookshanks." The pamphlet was sold by Matthew Denton at the Crooked Billet, near Cripple gate. The words of the text are, "Every crooked path shall be made straight," and the prince before whom it was read was deformed.
Dr. Jowett's Discovery.
Dr. Sophia Jex-Blake, whose persistent efforts finally brought about the admission of women to the practice of medicine in England, once remarked, "It is absurd to keep the door longer shut against young women, seeing how many old women are inside!" Her tireless eloquence was once the object of a witticism by Dr. Jowett. The master of Balliol sat next to her at dinner, and after the ladies retired he remarked, "I always knew that lex meant law, but never until this night that Jex meant jaw!"
Dedication.
"If I were a great author I would dedicate a book to you."
"You'll do that anyhow," replied the bride.
"What sort of a book?"
"A check book."—Washington Star.

Lovely, but Unwashed.
In former times even highborn ladies and gentlemen seem not to have troubled even to wash their hands with any frequency. Even the fair and witty Margaret of Navarre on one occasion avowed her neglect of elementary cleanliness in the frankest way. "Look at these lovely hands of mine," said she to one of her courtiers. "They have not been washed for eight days, yet I'll wager they outshine yours." In an old French manual of etiquette, "Loix de la Galanterie," published in 1640, the complete dandy is advised to "take trouble to wash his hands every day and his face almost as often."
An Enterprising Barrister.
An English barrister was once engaged in a nautical case, in which it appeared that a vessel had been exposed to a very severe gale of wind and had been thrown upon her beam ends. The barrister, ignorant of nautical matters, asked a seaman who was in the witness box how it was they did not lower the topmast, upon which the witness said, with a sneer, "If you knew as much of the sea as I do you would know that this is not a very easy matter." This incident led the counsel to turn his attention to the subject, and he invented an apparatus for lowering topmasts, for which he obtained a patent and realized thereby upward of $100,000 by his invention.
A small classified ad will rent that vacant room.

YOUR HOME LIFE.

What is the effect of your presence in your home? Does your look fall like a sunbeam or a shadow across the breakfast table? Upon what subjects do you speak with greatest freedom and keenest relish—your aches and failures, or the things which are beautiful and fine and high? For your own sake and for the sake of others you ought to bring your soul into a jubilant mood; you ought to make your presence in your home a joy to all within its walls.

She—And to think you the only girl you ever loved! He—Yes, dear. She—And to think you thought I believed it!
The Planet Mars.
The whole globe of Mars, which has a diameter of about half that of the earth (528 thousandths—6728 kilometers, or 4,281 miles) weighs only 105 thousandths of our globe, or 625,584 quintillions of kilograms. The density of the materials which compose Mars is inferior to that of the substances which compose the earth in the proportion of 711 to 1,000.
