Our Babies Cry For Protection From Disease

By NATHAN STRAUS, Philanthropist, of New York It is well to teach mothers how to modify and pasteurize milk at home when they are out of reach of a milk depot, but this is feasible only for the better situated classes. Conditions in tenements do not make it possible for mothers to do this work properly. THE BABIES CRY FOR PROTECTION AGAINST DISEASE. THEIR MOTHERS LIFT THEIR HANDS IN FRANTIC SUPPLICATION FOR THEIR LITTLE ONES. DISEASE AND DEATH THROW THEIR SHADOW OVER THE CRADLE AND ENGULF THE MOTHERS OF THE LAND IN THE INEXTINGUISHABLE SORROW THAT WE CAN WARD AWAY. IT IS A CALL TO BATTLE—A CALL TO ENERGETIC AND UNITED ACTION. It is not enough to educate the public and the health officers. We must strain all our resources to SAVE THE BABIES THAT ARE NOW LIVING, and all those who will come into the world before the tardy hand of official administration has been quickened and strengthened to grapple with this menace to the home and to the land. We need infant milk depots. We need doctors and nurses consecrated to the work of assuring to the little ones the food that they need FREE FROM THE TAIN OF DISEASE. The babies are human beings, not subjects for study and exhibits for committees or doctors. They are HUMAN BEINGS THREATENED WITH DEATH, and it is our function to save them. This is a work to stir the good red blood in every man and woman, a work that has greater possibilities of good than any other that I have ever heard of, a work that will pay dividends in the satisfaction that can come only in helping the little ones, in making their hands chubby and their faces rosy and GIVING THEM THE FAIR START IN LIFE TO WHICH THEY ARE ENTITLED

GOVERNOR SAYS SEVEN MEN MUST BE HANGED

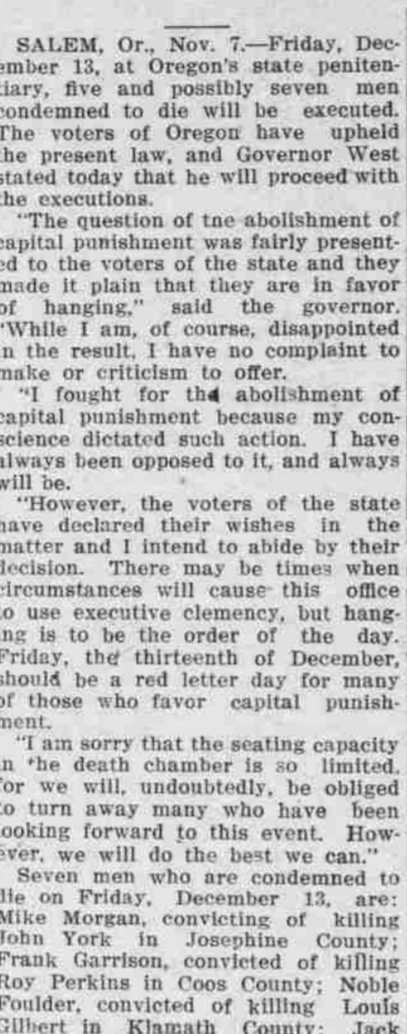

SALEM, Or., Nov. 7.—Friday, December 13, at Oregon's state penitentiary, five and possibly seven men condemned to die will be executed. The voters of Oregon will uphold the present law, and Governor West stated today that he will proceed with the executions. "The question of the abolishment of capital punishment was fairly presented to the voters of the state and they made it plain that they are in favor of hanging," said the governor. "While I am, of course, disappointed in the result, I have no complaint to make or criticism to offer. "I fought for the abolishment of capital punishment because my conscience dictated such action. I have always been opposed to it, and always will be. "However, the voters of the state have declared their wishes in the matter and I intend to abide by their decision. There may be times when circumstances will cause this office to use executive clemency, but hanging is to be the order of the day. Friday, the thirteenth of December, should be a red letter day for many of those who favor capital punishment. "I am sorry that the seating capacity in the death chamber is so limited, for we will, undoubtedly, be obliged to turn away many who have been looking forward to this event. However, we will do the best we can." Seven men who are condemned to die on Friday, December 13, are: Mike Morgan, convicted of killing John York in Josephine County; Frank Garrison, convicted of killing Roy Perkins in Coos County; Noble Foulter, convicted of killing Louis Gilbert in Klamath County; Jack Roberts, convicted of killing Donald Stewart and George Hastings in Multnomah County; and Charles and George Humphreys, convicted of killing Eliza Griffith in Benton County. The Humphreys brothers' case has been approved by the supreme court on stay of execution, and unless the court decides against them before the fatal December day, they will not be included in the hangings.

WILSON DECLINES TO REVEAL PLANS

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 7.—"I think my right course just now is to hear everybody out, and that I should not make any statements." This was the answer made by President-elect Woodrow Wilson today to a series of requests for statements of his attitude on National and International questions. He was asked by various newspapers about an extra session of Congress, Canadian reciprocity, International relations, the Panama Canal and a variety of issues. In line with his campaign argument that the Presidency should be conducted "through the common counsel of the country," he will now, so far as possible, assume a receptive attitude, rather than one of pronouncing himself on issues before he takes his office. Governor Wilson looked eagerly to day toward a big basket of mail filled to overflowing. It appeared he would continue his custom of opening all mail himself. He likes to do it. "You know that I will recognize the typewriters of some of my personal friends, he mused. "I don't know just how to do it. I guess I'll need a tonic to go through that fat pile though." He began slowly to open some of the letters as he talked. William Morrissey, secretary of the Colorado Brotherhood of Locomotive Trainmen, wired that the organization would give the new President "a hearty support." A cablegram from San Juan, Porto Rico, read: "My hearty congratulations to standard-bearer of Democratic principles in America. Union party fully confident justice at hands of party that always stood for their rights in Congress. "BARCELO, President."

REV. EDWARDS TO ADDRESS ROBBIE BURNS SOCIETY An illustrated lecture on Scotland will be given this evening at the Congregational Church at 8 o'clock. Rev. Edwards will be the principal speaker and will present a large number of stereopticon pictures illustrative of Scotland's history and present greatness, especially bringing out its picturesque lakes and castles and the homes of its famous men of letters. In addition there will be several entertaining lectures contributed by members of the Robbie Burns Society. Mrs. Matheson will sing Scotch ballads. Mr. McLarty will recite "To a Mouse." Rev. Milliken will illustrate the religious life of Scotland by a story from "Beside the Bonny Briar Bush." Members of the Terford family will render some real Scotch music. Parts of the Cotter's Saturday Night will be read by Mr. Noble, accompanying pictures on the screen. The Apple Cross girls and "Sammie" McLarty will illustrate Scotch songs in costume.

Hero of Roosevelt Shooting, Schrank's Diary and Pistol

Photos by American Press Association. THE hero of the attempted Roosevelt assassination was Elbert E. Martin, the colonel's private stenographer, who leaped upon John Schrank, the assassin, before the latter could fire a second and perhaps fatal shot. Martin, who was a football player and an athlete not so long ago, is here shown holding pages of the candidate's manuscript through which the bullet passed. A page from Schrank's diary, written daily on loose note paper, in which the supposed insane man tells "the people of the United States" of the McKinley dream, is also shown, together with the pistol Schrank used in sending a bullet into Colonel Roosevelt's chest.

DIFFERENT COUNT

Witter Bynner, the well known poet, condemned at a literary dinner in New York a young chorus girl's marriage to an elderly sonneteer. "I remonstrated with the old fool," said Mr. Bynner. "I pointed out to him that the disparity of their ages formed an insurmountable barrier to their union. "But," said he, "I am only forty-three, while she is twenty-four, a difference of nineteen years." "It's true enough," I interrupted, "that there is only nineteen years' difference between you now, but think what it will be twenty years hence, when you're sixty-three and she's twenty-five!" Exchange.

LIFF MARKS

We are not writing in the sand. The tide does not wash it out. We are not painting our pictures on the canvas and with a brush so that we can erase the error of yesterday or overlap it with another color today. We are writing our lives with a chisel on the marble, and every time we strike a blow we leave a mark that is indelible.—Lyman Abbott, D. D.
