Gowns & Dresses

Only one of each kind; very exclusive, high-class

stylish Parisian models, bought at prices so far below the usual that we are able to price them at a rea

1500 Gowns and Dresses

in this sale at Must-Go

Prices

$ 8.00 Serge Dresses$.4.98

$10.00 Serge Dresses$ 6.95

$20.00 Fancy Dresses......$12.95

$25.00 Fancy Dresses$14.95

$30.00 Fancy Dresses$18.50

A few extremely fine up-to-the-minute models, Parisian effect, Messalines, Chiffons, Laces, no two alike, Values up to $75.....$14.95, $19.85, $24.95

Johnnie Coats

A sale unequaled in price, collection, colors, styles and fabrics. Let us show you; beatiful colorings, mix-

$20.00 Johnnie Coats$12.95

$25.00 Johnnie Coats$14.95

$30.00 Johnnie Coats$19.85

Others up to $40.00 specially priced for this sale,

Silk Petticoats

$4.00 Petticoats $1.98

$5.00 Petticoats $2.98

Others up to $12.50 specially priced for this sale.

Corner Sixth and Alder retary and Treasurer. Any one over sixteen years of age, belong to any or to no church, eligible to member-

The pupils of Prof. Thompson's room responded to the Hallowe'en party planned by some of the older oupils for the evening of October 31st.

Autumn leaves with Hallowe'en characters on the boards were the pleasing decorations. Doris Painton and Ruth Cook favored with recitations in keeping with the occasion and Geo.

Pierce being the planist for the even-

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Roethe, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. A. F.

Mrs. Daggatt entertained with

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Webb are re-eiving congratulations on the arrival of a little daughter, who came to their home on October 15th.

The little Misses Lillian and Francis Sandstrom, Bessie Roberts Mary Wilma, and Elizabeth Bruechert, Dor is and Mary Jane Painton enjoyed themselves at a Hallowe'en party at the home of Miss Morse on Saturday evening. The house was very pretthe center piece was a pumpkin of dving a series of dances at Busch's

Mrs. Edith Truscott, of Gresham,

Mrs. Lee DeLong will be the motif of a theatre party given by her daugh

Mrs. S. P. Dow left on Wednesday months' visit with her mother, Mrs.

While awaiting for the returns of Jones, of this place.

keeping with the occasion.

Scripture, Mr. Thompson, 'Mr.

Refreshments were served to ship and to office.

tures, solid colors, white.

-WORRELL'S

bona fide sacrifice

Stories from Out of Town

MACKSBURG.

The crops are all harvested, but the ranchmen are none the less busy preparing the ground for the next The grubbing, too, goes on, whenever the weather will permit. The summer of 1913 will see many cultivated and productive fields where | Hood River. now only blackened, unsightly stumps and logs meet the eye.

The work on the Canby and Molalla rairoad continues unabating, despite the rainy weather, cheering the farmers with the prospect of an evernearing market for their produce.

Mr. Scramlin has added greatly to the attractiveness of his general merchandise store by putting in an electric lighting plant. The effect is very cheering to passers-by in the dark and rainy nights of the present season. Dan Roth has bought a stable at Woodburn. He will go there to take charge of it at once. Two brothers from New Orleans, La., have brought their families to settle in Macksburg. One has taken the place belonging to Phil Scheer. The other has built a house for himself on the Canby road between the ranches of Henry Kummer and Mr. Schwan-

Following is a list of the Macksburg Hilda Barth, Bessie Barth, Ecich Boesche, Rex Barth, Alfred Boesche, Fred Ganske, Emma Ganske, Henry Ganske, Lillie Harms, Gladys Harms, Andrew Harms, Inice Keisling, Walburger Kraxburger, Elnora Kraxberger, Oswald Kraxberger, Rosie Kraxberger, Adolph Kraxburger, Hedwig Kraxburger, Adam Kalb, Elsle Kalb, Mildred Kusling, Vastia Kusling, Louis Lorenz, Luther Lorenz, Wract, Charles Noack, Minnie Noack, Myrtle Lorenz, Joy Suth-

GLAU HUINGS

C. H. Marsh took a number of fine dressed nogs to oregon thy a lew uaya ago.

ueo. Daugnerty has had several sneep are lately, being the good condition at the time, it is a question as to just what was the matter with

ser. Allen started plowing for Price but owing to the rain he has quit, tin more settled weather.

O. L. Hammond has started his

John Callahan, of Molalia, is delivering number to be used in planking the ain near the C. H. March place. C. A. bengle is extending his wire fence in front of his nouse to include a small amount of land lately bought or ueo. Jackson.

S. Kinner, who owned the Mart Leado place has sold it at just what price we are not as yet informed. our blacksmith at Marquam appears to have all the work he can do. The social given at Marquam on Friday evening was not so largely attended as usual owing to the rain.

Chas. Spuriin, at one time a resident of this vicinity, has moved from the Sappingfield place on Havell Prairie, a farm he has rented three miles northeast of the State Fair grounds, located on the main Salem and Silver-

E. J. Seaman is well satisfied with a large gray team he purchased of Mr. Allen.

Henry Hatter will soon be done hauling boards from the mountains. and he will not be at all sorry either. James Moore after a visit of several days has returned to his home in East Portland. Pode Jones killed a fat beef last week and in a few hours sold it out among neighbors. Geo. Wooster is building a commodious root house and cellar with concrete foundation. Something that every farmer needs. Harrison James is slowly recovering his strength, but is not yet able to work. The sale at John Taylor's on October 30 was largely attended and everything sold to his satisfaction. Geo. Adams and Loyd Shaver, of Molalla. were on the grounds, Mr. Taylor having rented his farm to his son, Austin, will, we understand, move to the beautiful, thriving and picturesque village of Molalla, and take a well earned vacation after many years of

Mr. and Mrs. S. Usher spent Sunday with Geo, and Ollie Newsome. Robt. Morris, of near Liberal spent Saturday and Sunday with his sister who lives one mile west of Marquam, who has been very ill lately.

E. K. Dart and Clud Marsh went to the mountains on a hunt. They found great hunting grounds that is to say they did a lot of hunting but found no game, besides the trip proved very disagreeable on account of so much

L. M. Jones proposes hauling and stacking a patch of clover that he failed to get hulled, and after it is thoroughly rotted, haul and scatter on his fields, believing it will prove a great fertilizer.

Mr. Allen went to Portland on a yet returned.

worked the past eight months for Cains Herman, has started to work for Geo. Daugherty for the winter.

A minister from the East will commence a series of meeting at Molalla on Saturday evening, October 2. The least and possibly longer, it depends upon interest manifested. He is of Sec denomination known as the Church of Christ. Ole Rue has been making cider the past few days. Frank Ericson will go to Scotts Mills tomorrow to lay in his winter's flour.

Clark McKinney will commence moving into his new house today.

Mr. Cordell has gone to bring home the binder and mower he bought at the Ela Judd sale. John Cross has been chopping grain for Edgar Shaver.

Tom Yarret went to Needy to bring home a few sheep he had bought. Sheep are selling at very high prices and good milch cows are "out of sight" for a poor man, as at a sale a few days ago good cows sold with-out any trouble at $100,00 per head. Miss Watts and Miss Belle Gray were visiting with Mrs. E. K. Dart Sunday. Mrs. Cordell's mothers is staying with her at this time. Her maiden name was Hatton. Her father came to this country in 1845. settling near what is known as Stone. Clackamas County, Oregon.

WILSONVILLE.

Wednesday visiting his parents.

atin last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wright have

H. D. Aden has in a splendid stock of new fall goods.

here, was in our village last Friday. Mrs. Ridder and daughters, Anna. and Emma, were in Portland on Sat

Portland last Saturday. Emil Tanchman, our genial ferry man, was in the Rose City last Wed nesday, on business. Mr. and Mrs. Norris Young, Mrs. M.

school in Newberg, on Thursday, Mr. Spralsky, who died on Saturday in our village.

Mrs. Chas. Wagner, Mrs. Dr. Brown, school pupils who have been neither Mrs. M. C. Young, Mrs. Cronin and absent or tardy in the month of Octgress of Mothers in Portland last Tuesday and Wednesday and report a > Wednesday, being detained in New-berg on business. Games were played, dainty refreshments served, and was expected. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Aden, Mr. and Mrs. J. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Todd. Mr. and Mrs. Norris Young, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ridder and children, Misses Alma Summer, Dora Seeley, Bettle Batalgia, Anna Batalgia, Menga Batalgia, Messrs. J. Seeley, Geo. Stangel, Walter Murray, Milton Seeley and with its new school house, and splen-

The Odd Fellows gave a supper to the members of the Rebekah lodge on Saturday evening at the Cottage Hotel. Mrs. Dill served a sumptuous repast in the splendid style for which she has become famous, in our village, A program was given by some of the members of the Rebekah lodge which included reading by Miss Helen Murray, Mrs. Melvin and Mrs. Cronin, and splendid recitation by Mrs. H. D. Aden. entitled "St. Peter at the Gold-en Gate." There was singing and neighborly sociability, for which the fraternal orders are noted.

ROCK CREEK AND SUNNYSIDE

Nearly everyone is anxiously await ing the returns of the election, to find out which candidates won and if suffrage carried.

A pleasant Hallowe'en party was given at Burton Deardorff's on last Thursday evening. There were about 30 persons present, and all enjoyed a good time with the goblins and witches. Salads sandwitches, cakes, pies and popcorn were served thout 12 o'clock. They also had taffy pulling, most of those present joined

Mrs. Dick Hunter was visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. Stoll, Tuesday. had cold. Hope she will soon be bet-

TWILIGHT.

Heights with relatives.

Mrs. A. H. Harvey entertained day evening at 8 o'clock. The pro-

A number of young friends of Albert and Pearly Scheers gathered at business trip last week and has not the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scheer and enjoyed a Hallowe'en par-Young Rudolph, a German, who has ty Thursday evening. The rooms were decorated appropriate for the occa-The guests were served a delicious luncheon.

sanitary dairy. He is very favormeetings will continue a week at ably impressed with this neighbor-

Several new pupils have been enrolled in school.

dition at the present time is some-tept him at home for a while. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, who have ocupied the Finley home for the past onth, are away for this week. Mrs. ewis is visiting at Molalla, while Mr. Lewis is in Eastern Oregon Miss Crane, of Portland, was an ver Sunday visitor at the E. A. San-

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pierce have returned from a trip to Southern Ore-

The first social meeting of the Community Bible Class will be at the ome of Mrs. Delia Roberts on Thursday evening, November 7th for the

Chas. Ridder was in Wilsonville on

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner were in Tualreturned from a few days' visit in L. F. Darby, who formerly resided urday.

Mrs. Bowman and children were in

C. Young, and son, Wallace, were in the Rose City Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Say visited their sons, who are attending high evening was well and favorably known

Rev. Stone, the new pastor of the M. E. Church, will preach next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

very enjoyable time. A very pleasant surprise party was planned for Chas. Ridder at his home on last Tuesday evening, but the guest of honor did not arrive until though many were the sincere regrets the guests spent a folly evening, alharlie did not come home, a"

George Batalgia. Wilsonville is now surely up-to-date

The Y. P. B. will give a program in a few weeks, will give date later. The quarterly meeting at Sunnyside church will commence Friday evening and contin til Sunday, when there will be meeting through the day and evening too.

Frank Stoll has bought Mrs. G. R. Ellis' place at Rock Creek.

in the games Mrs. Townsend has been quite poorly for some time of rheumatism but is a little hetter.

Mr. Barnes, of Minn., made a fly-ing visit to his brother-in-law, G. R. Ellis lately and expressed himself as well pleased with Oregon. He expected to make a short stop in Cal., ilso several other places on the nomeward route.

Mrs. P. Hunter is nursing a very

Joe Deardorff has been having a concrete floor put in the basement in the barn, which will make it fine. He has also had a milk room built which will make it much more handy in making the butter.

Mrs. Geo. Schreiner has been spending the week-end at Clackamas guest at dinner Sunday from Portland. The Community Club meets Saturgram is in charge of Mr. Spiger and will be very interesting Cook and the pupils. Hallowe'en candles after the drilk

A gentleman from Washington, D. was in looking for a farm to start

JENNINGS LODGE.

Mrs. Lucy Newell has been confined to her home for several days. A tily decorated with lanterns, the color Mrs. W. Kyser. nurse is in attendance and her con-scheme being black and yellow. The what improved.

Langdon Spooner is recovering fruit. The favors and games were in his recent illness which has ters in Portland on Wednesday. for her home in St. Paul, after a four purpose of organizing by electing of election a number gathered at the Ole Bergstrom and family Sunday. ficers: President, Vice-President, Sec. Joys home on Tuesday evening and the evening was spent in dancing. DOVER.

-"WORRELL'S"

Mr. Kleinsmith and family moved their new home Saturday. Mr. Griffith is home from Run for the winter.

Mrs. Updegrave is improving after serious illness. Little Alice Udell is getting along nicely after her operation last Fri- Sunday evening with a fair sized Thompson related a Hallowe'en story, day.

The school gave some songs. Mary Mr. and Mrs. Vanatta were Sandy visitors Saturday. A very interesting program was given by the bogs of the Dover school last Thursday. A number of visitors

Russell, Mesdames Pierce, Painton, Emmons, Roberts, Bruechert, Miss Mrs. M. M. Reid is on the sick list Will this week. The Hallowe'en social at the M. E. On Friday afternoon the pupils of church last Friday night was much Miss Campbell's room gave a Jack enjoyed by all.

O'Lantern Drill in which the pupils The Firwood saw mill expects to of the primary room took part. Miss be ready for operation by the first of Campbell treated the little ones with next week. C. A. Keith made a trip to Estacada Saturday, returning Sunday af-Coffee Katch at her home, Ardigah ternoon.

Acres, on Saturday last.

Joseph Joseph DeShazer had a force of men digging potatoes last week.

Mrs. Bowen and Mrs. Harrison have returned from a month's visit in Arkansas and Missouri. Mr. and Mrs. Schafer of Independence, visited their daughters, Mrs. Loundree, Mrs. Frank Patterson, and

J. Stafford and family and Mr. and place cards were tiny pumpkins and Mrs. Frank Patterson moved to Kelso from Bull Run, recently, Mr. Hutchinson is building a house for his family on ground leased from next Sunday. Verne Heathman, of this place is C. J. Sindall. School was closed Monday and hall in Oregon City, the first being Tuesday. A new heating and ventilat that time of the year. last Saturday evening. school soon by Mr. Frost, of Forest was a caller at this place on Mon. Grove.

RURAL DELL.

Nearly all the potatoes in this section were taken care of before the rain set in. Mrs. T. H. Sconce went to Molalla

Mr. Sanden and family visited with

Worrell's Friday Temptation Sale

2000 Suits, 600 Dresses, bought from Edward Sampson, E. Lowitz & Co., Parisian Gown & Costume Co., of New York and Chicago at 43 cents on the dollar. The greatest aggregation of styles in Gowns and Dresses at less than manufacturers' cost. The styles are so varied and numerous it is impossible to describe them. The greatest of all

November Sales! A sale just at the wanted time. A sale that will interest every econimical Portlander. A selling occasion never equaled on the Coast, which will bring forth throngs of bargain seekers. Every sample and model garment in this sale is extremely good and attractively priced---worse than a SACRIFICE

Rustproof frames, the best that can be had.	~
$1.50 Umbrellas		98
92.00 CHIOTCHAS		DATE: Year
$3.00 Umbrellas	*	$1.98
Others up to $12,00, specially priced for this sale.
"WORF	RELL	1S"

2000 Tailored Suits! Bought for 43c on the dollar. The tale of woe to sell us these Suits was worse than awful, but the price for cash is what brought us to make up our mind to take the lot. Blue Serges, Fancy Mixtures, Blacks, other fancy trimmed garments, values up to $35.00, Temptation sale Price.

"Worrell's"

Worrell's.

Storm and Auto Coats

In the good old staples, loose and belted effects; ladies' misses, and juniors. $4.95 up to $75.00, a coat for

o very	purse,	phe	20.18	H.y.	pro	cea	TOL	thi	8 8	ale.
8.00	Coats					w 34 74							8	4.9	5
$10.00	Coats	F			14 Dec 10	*30.40							$	6.9	5
$12.00	Coats	1						F.4.4	W1404				$	8.9	5
$15.00	Coats												$	9.9	5
$20.00	Coats												$1	2.9	5
$25.00	Coats	١.,										L	$1	4.9	5
Every	price	up	to	$7	5.	Ve	lve	ts,	pli	ish	88.	ca	rac	culs
broad	tails.														1

-WORRELL'S

Sale Silk Kimonos and Mandarin Coats

8 5 00	Wimanas					2272	=
0.00	Kimonos.		*			$3.9	5
$ 8.00	Kimonos.	STATE OF STREET				0.00
$12.00	Kimonos.					$8.98	5
$25.00	Mandarin	Coats,	real	Importe	d, hand	embroid	Ž.
eı	ed		ERFE.			. $12.9	5
					-WORE

Worrell's Sample Cloaks

FOR WOMEN PORTLAND

and

Opposite Oregonian

Mr. and Mrs. Longstreet Vaugn, of Molalla, and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lo- is married. The election went Democratic in der were visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Sonce Sunday. this precinct. Woman's Suffrage was Ole Bergstrom and Fred Smith defeated.

hauled some goods for Mr. Sanden from Canby Tuesday. Many of Rural Dell's young folks Wednesday. were at the Hallowe'en surprise party on Miss Nell Yoder last Thursday, A City Tuelday. very nice time was enjoyed by all

The Young People's Society met crowd in attendance A large number of farmers responded to the call sent out by F. M. Swift, Director of the Clackamas Southern, that there would be a railroad meeting at the Rural Dell School house Saturday night, for the purpose of raising enough funds to build the road from the Molalla country to the Montor country. Grant B. Dimick, Secretary of the road, and O. D. Eby, Vice-President, were also present and explained to the audience the necessity of building the road, the amount work that had already been done, and what they will do in the next few months to come. Although they did not succeed in getting any subscriptions at this meeting, there is no nuestion but that the farmers of Rural Dell will do their part in building the road through this section when they begin to realize that this road is not built of air, but the hard earned cash of the working class of people.

BARLOW.

Miss Lillian Anderson, who eaching school in Oregon City visited Miss Hattie Irwin Tuesday. Mrs. Wolstad is ill in Portland. She will not be able to come home before The boys are hauling ties and of course it is raining as it always does en-Everything was quiet at the polls the children and teachers rejoiced ever a day's vacation. Mr. Pope, of New Era, has moved his family into the Paul Holt's house. Jas, Jesse visited his parents last Mrs. L. B. Irwin and Mrs. Wm.

Woster and children, of Aurora, called at their brother's, Wm. Bauer's News has just reached us that Miss

Hattie Coleman, who was reared here, out who now resides at Willamette

Mrs. Van Winkle and her granddaughter, Miss Ada, returned home

Mrs. Wm. Bauer went to Oregon

The oldest government now to be found among men is that which obtuins in the Isle of Man. The-Tyn wald, as the legislative body of the famous little island is called, is the oldest lawmaking assembly on earth. It dates back to the ninth century and | ists." is the only legislative body on earth that has had a continuous existence from that time to this. The Isle of Man is still independent of Great Britain so far as its local affairs go, the British parliament exercising jurisdiction only in a federal way. The Manxmen are and ever have been stubbornly tenaclous of their liberties and not even to the majesty of England do they propose to bow. New York American.

Lake Victoria. Lake Victoria has been in existence 3,000,000 years, according to the comoutstions of Dr. Fellx Oswald, the geologist, whom the British museum authorities sent to Africa some time could be sold at half the price of a ago to investigate this question.

A Naive Economist. The not uncommon fallacy that

"Who has got the bay horse you drove last summer, Sid?"

is amusingly illustrated by this con-

"Nobody; he's dead." "What? He didn't die on your hands,

"Yes, he did. Bill, sure." "By George, that's too bad! He was a good one"

"Yes, he was, but I didn't care so every much. He didn't cost me nothine. I paid for him in work."-Youth's Companion.

A Poet's Antipathies.

Mr. Ofto Heller in his work on Hisen ttempts to arrange some of the poet's atipathies in the order of their fromth. The lowest pit of lisen's inferno is reserved for politicians and ournalists. Scientists, he says, should not be allowed to torture animals to death while politicians and journalists are so plentiful and cheap. A slightly higher position is occupied by the clergy, and nearly all of Ibsen's ciergymen, "are spokesmen of a narrow minded, inflexible morality." The lawyers take place just above the clergy. The law breeds casuists and sophists, and the "whole tribe are branded as anti-ideai-

The manfacture of straw braid for hats and bonnets was begun as early as 1798 in Dedham, Mass., where a twelve-year-old girl by the name of Betsey Metcalf discovered a method of making braid for bonnets from oat straw, smoothed with her seissors and split with her thumbnail. A bonnet of seven braids, "with bobbin inserted like open work, in imitation of the Euglish straw bonnets then fashlonable, and of high price," was much admired and many duplicates were demanded, since a bonnet like Betsey's similar imported one.-"Women In Industry."

I rial by Urdeal. In Nigerla, should the suspicion of witchcraft fall on any one, trial by ormoney is not merely the measure of deal alone can free him. The most value, but the only real value as well, usual one is that of eating a poisonous bean called esere, which usually versation between two Vermont farm- kills the suspected person, > Medical. A young doctor said to a girl: "Do you know, my dear, I have a heart affection for you?" "Have you had it long?" she coyly inquired.

life without you," he responded. "Then you had better asthma," she softly murmured.

"Oh, yes. I fee: I will liver troubled