Just Too Dear For Anything. A story is told concerning a famous man of letters who visited Washington and appeared at a dinner party. He sat next to a young girl, who rattled away at the famous man. He wanted to talk to his hostess, but hadn't a chance. The girl said to him: "I'm awfully stuck on Shakespeare. Don't you think he's terribly interesting?" Everybody listened to hear the great man's brilliant reply, for as a Shakespearean scholar he has few peers. 'Yes," he said solemnly, "I do think he is interesting. I think he is more than that. I think Shakespeare is just simply too dear for anything!"

The Great Question, Mark viii: 27-Golden Text—Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God. Matt. xvi:16 (1) Verse 27-Where was Caesarea Philippi situated and what class of people were the inhabitants? (2) Why did Jesus want to who the people said he was? (3) Is it right or wrong, and why, for us to be anxious about what the people say of us? (4) Verse 28-Why did the people think Jesus was either John, Elijah or one of the prophets? (See Matt. xiv:2) (5) In view of the fact that prior to this they had been saving he was the Christ, why were they not now saying so? (See John iv:41; Mark iii:11,

(6) Why did not Jesus publicly declare himself as the Christ and why did he refuse to let them make him king? (See John vi:15.)

(7) If Jesus at this time was not vacant room.

(4) Are you following the weekly fulfilling the national expectations of the people concerning the Messian opinions the people had of him? (8) Verse 29-What evidence have we today that Jesus is the Christ of God? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.) (9) How did Peter know that Jesus was Christ? (See Matt. vx1:15-17) (10) Peter and the other apostles had known before that Jesus was

Christ, but how does this declaration here differ from his former belief? (See Matt. xiv:33; ix:27; xii:23.) (11) There is belief and belief, but what is the only way to reach the su breme conviction that eJsus is the Christ? (See I Cor. xii:3.)

(12) Verse 30-Why, seeing Jesus came to the earth as the Christ, did he forbid them to make that fact known? (13) Verse 31-When we are thwart ed in doing our work in the best way the way in which we had planned what should we do then, and why? (14) Would Christ have preferred that they had accepted him as their Saviour rather than rejecting him? (15) Was it God's original purpose or not, and why, that the Jews should reject and cruicify Jesus? (16) Verses 32-33-Wherein consisted Peter's folly in differing with Jes-opted Peter's view what would that have led him to do? (18) Veres 34-35-Why is it that no man can be a follower of Jesus without self denial and suffering?

(19) What is the nature of the self denial and suffering which all true Christians must endure? (20) Verses 36-37-What is most priceless possesion a man has? (21) To what extent of loss should a man go if essential to the salvation of his soul? (22) If a millionaire dies without salvation and a poor man dies trust-ing in Christ what will be the differ ence in their wealth in eternity?

(23) Verse 38-What is it to ashamed of Christ and what will it be to be rejected by him? (24) ix:1-How did some of those that stood there witness "the kingdom of God come with power?" Lesson for Sunday, Nov. 24, 1912 The Transfiguration. Mark ix: 2-13.

Just as Well.

Some years ago an engagement was broken off in Howard because, after he had dressed for the ball, he lay down for a few minutes, fell asleep and didn't wake up until past midnight, leaving her to sit around in her fine fix-ups wondering what was the matter. He couldn't square it with her, so he looked around, found another girl, and the offended bride found another man. They both got married, and there are now two happy families where there would have been but one. -Kansas City Journal.
