SOCIALISM VS. CHRISTIANITY.

The Rev. C. W. Robinson having defended Socialism and opposed an editorial in the Enterprise asks some questions which we think can be answered entirely to his satisfaction if he will read the works of Socialist writers by Marx, Lassalle, and Engels, of the early writers, and Morris Rax, Hyndman, Guesde and Babel of the present day Socialists, Leibknecht, Lafargue, Adler and Plechauff, founders and teachers of Scientific Socialism. All preach against Christianity in all its forms, whether Catholic, Protestant, Baptist, of what not.

In "Materialist Basis of History" by Wilhelm Leibknecht we read: "It is our duty as Socialists to root out the faith of God with our real

Great Loss of Life Which Could Be Prevented

By Professor IRVING FISHER of Yale University OUT OF SOME 1,500,000 DEATHS ANNUALLY IN THE UNITED STATES AT LEAST 630,000 ARE PREVENTABLE. This means over SEVENTEEN HUNDRED UNNECESSARY DEATHS PER DAY, or more than the lives lost in the great Titanic disaster, which spread a pall of gloom over the world. The daily average death rate rarely gets a passing comment. As a first step in the great works of human conservation we should establish AN ADEQUATE SYSTEM OF COLLECTING AND DISTRIBUTING VITAL STATISTICS similar to the system in use in Sweden. Probably the greatest hygienic achievement of any country thus far is that of Sweden, where the duration of life is the longest, the mortality the least and the improvements the most general. There alone can it be said that the chances of life have been improved for all ages of life. Infancy, middle age and old age today show a lower mortality in Sweden than in times past, while in other countries, including the United States, although we can boast of some reduction in infant mortality, the MORTALITY AFTER MIDDLE AGE IS GROWING WORSE, and the innate vitality of the people is in all probability deteriorating. There are three great agencies to which we must look for the saving of human life in the future. They are the PUBLIC PRESS, THE INSURANCE COMPANIES AND THE GOVERNMENT.

John Graham Brooks in his book "Socialist Unrest" states that this statement of Liebknecht may be duplicated from the writings of at least twenty authoritative Socialists. August Rabel, recognizing the necessity for a different plan of attack in order to put Christians off their guard forms the "Dethronement of Religion" on page 148, "Woman, Past, Present and Future" by Rabel we read: "Rebellion will share the fate of State-Religion and will disappear of itself, without any violent attack."

Enrico Ferr declares that under the influence of scientific culture "religion convictions will perish." Prof. Geo. D. Herron, says: "Christianity stands for what is lowest and basest in life." The Professor further states, "Our noble Church of England has turned these magnificent establishments (England's colleges) into mere preserves for the upper and middle classes."

Ernest Balfour Pan in "Socialism and Religion" says in part: "The Socialist whose social creed is his only religion requires no travesty of christian rites to aid him in keeping his ideal before him."

Rev. Wm. Thurston Brown is a leader in the Socialist party. He was socialist candidate for Lieutenant Governor of New York 10 years ago. In a "sermon" published in the "Socialist Spirit" he says in part: "If ever in the history of the world any human institution was completely and finally discredited, it is the religious institution whose putrid and decaying a carcass here at the beginning of the twentieth century menaces the life of men. Never in all the past did the religious institution seem more impotent or despicable than now."

He further states: "Religion calls for the abandonment of common sense."

Ancient Cannibals. Historians relate that in Seythia, India, and among the early inhabitants of Britain cannibals were found. Columbus found them among the Caribbes, and from the name Caribee the term cannibal was derived.

ADVERTISING TALKS No. 3

(By Ralph Kaye.) Advertising is a branch or an arm of the business world, the same as law or medicine. There isn't a man in the world who, when he is sick, would call up the doctor to tell him what's the matter without first being thoroughly examined to learn the true state of his condition. Again, there isn't a business man who, when he has a law case on his hands expects his lawyer to win without first telling him every detail in connection with the case. Then why should a business man neglect the matter of advertising, which will cure his business ill and plead his case before the public. If given a square deal.

Good advertising demands proper attention, personal interest and plenty of time. It cannot be done in a minute, or a day or possibly a week. Instead of a last-minute, or day or possibly a week. Instead of a last minute proposition it is a first-minute one.

(1) Why did Jesus want to know who the people said he was? (2) Is it right or wrong, and why, for us to be anxious about what the people say of us? (3) Why did the people think Jesus was either John, Elijah or one of the prophets? (See Matt. xiv:2)

(4) In view of the fact that prior to this they had been saying it was the Christ, why were they not now saying so? (See John iv:41; Mark iii:11, 12; v:7.) (5) Why did not Jesus publicly declare himself as the Christ and why did he refuse to let them make him king? (See John vi:15.) (6) If Jesus at this time was not

California Girl a Wonder At Long Distance Swims

Photos by American Press Association.

Wonders of happiness and sobs of relieved anxiety the mother of the Schmidt clasped her daughter into her arms and raised her in raptures of joy upon her. Nellie, who is the champion woman swimmer of California, had just safely completed the feat of swimming around the Alameda Seal rocks, off the Cliff House, San Francisco. For those who do not know this is considered a dangerous task for even the most expert of swimmers. Miss Schmidt swam the mile against strong tides and rippling currents in 34 minutes 50 seconds. Her other feats of importance were as follows: Aug. 20, 1911, crossed Golden Gate in record time of 42 minutes. Aug. 11, 1912, crossed San Francisco bay in 3 hours 6 minutes. Her swim positively proves the right of her claim of being the woman speed champion of the open water. It is doubtful if even Miss Vera Neave of England, holder of the world's mile record, could outdistance the Alameda wonder

NOTICES

Summons In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas.

Mildred Larson, Plaintiff, vs. Eli Larson, Defendant.

To Eli Larson, Defendant above named. In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed herein against you in the above entitled Court and cause, within six weeks from the 17th day of November, 1912, said date being the first day of publication of this summons.

If you fail to appear or answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in the complaint filed herein, to-wit:

For a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the above named plaintiff and defendant and granting unto the plaintiff an absolute divorce from the defendant, and for such other and further relief as may seem just and equitable in the premises.

This summons is served upon you by virtue of an order made and entered by Honorable J. U. Campbell, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas, dated on the 16th day of November, 1912, and which order prescribes that summons in this suit should be served upon you by publication once a week, for six successive weeks in the Morning Enterprise, a newspaper of general circulation in the County of Clackamas, State of Oregon.

G. G. Schmidt, Attorney for Plaintiff.
