YALE-PRINCETON HISTORY.

Football Elevens Will Clash For Thirty-eighth Time Nov. 16.
 Yale and Princeton will meet on the gridiron for the thirty-eighth time when they face each other on University field, in Princeton, N. J., Nov. 16. Of the thirty-seven games played Yale has won twenty and the Tigers ten. Seven games ended with the score tied and honors even. Meeting for the first time far back in 1873, the rivals played on Yale field, New Haven, and the Tigers jumped off to a flying start and won the game three goals to none. Since that time, with the exception of 1874 and 1875, the teams have met

MISS NELL YODER AND ALBERT EYMAN WED

Miss Nell B. Yoder and Albert F. Eyman were married last Thursday at the residence of Rev. Butler, of Hubbard. The bride was very becomingly dressed in a suit of brown, with hat to match. CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM

After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer. I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die. At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains. Cardui worked like a charm." There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women—Cardui—for it has been in successful use for more than 50 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease. Please try it, for your troubles. N. B.—Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request. For sale by Jones Drug Co.

Taxes Paid in Wax.
 Corsica produces the largest quantity of wax of all the countries in Europe, if not in the world. In ancient as well as in medieval times the inhabitants paid their taxes in wax and supplied 200,000 pounds annually. Since wax is to honey in quantity as one to fifteen the Corsicans must have gathered each year 3,000,000 pounds of honey.

The Poet's Inconsistency.
 "You speak of the brooks," said the critic as he looked over his friend's poem, "as the most joyous things in nature."
 "So they are," said the poet.
 "But you are inconsistent."
 "Why?"
 "Because later on you say they are ever murmuring."

Animal Ventriloquists.
 Ventriloquism is not confined solely to the human race. There are many birds whose notes it is almost impossible "to place." Take the corn crane, with its harsh "crake, crake!" One moment the sound is by your feet, the next fifty yards away. The grasshopper is another offender in this respect. Its sibilant note is hard to locate.

HUMAN NATURE.
 Be assured that those will be thy worst enemies not to whom thou hast done evil, but who have done evil to thee. And those will be thy best friends not to whom thou hast done good, but who have done good to thee.—Lavater.

each year. The Princeton eleven won at intervals, but was never able to win in successive seasons until 1898 and 1899. Yale has exacted a bitter revenge for this rupture of tradition, for since then, with the exception of 1903, when De Witt, the mighty Princeton guard, made his sensational run for a touchdown and later kicked a remarkable goal from the field which beat Yale 11 to 6, the men from New Haven have lost but one game, and that last year, when Sammy White picked up the ball and ran sixty-five yards, scoring a touchdown defeating the Elis by a score of 6 to 3. The game of 1884 was called twenty minutes before the expiration of the second half on account of darkness, Yale having at the time 6 points and Princeton 4. The referee, R. M. Ap-
