PER WEEK, 10 CENTS

amas County, with a population

VOL. IV-No. 121.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1912.

RAID MADE ON QUACK DOCTORS

173 PERSONS ARRESTED, CHARG- STIPP EXPLAINS PLAN TO RE-ED WITH MISUSE OF THE MAILS

Doctors and Drug Concerns in Two States Alleged to Have Used the Mails to Solicit Criminal Medical Practice

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 .- A Nationwide raid, involving the arrest of 173 persons in the principle cities of the matters relate to the proposed amendshals on doctors and drug concerns gon City: charged with misuse of the mails to Warrants and interest estisolicit criminal medical practice or to dispose of medicines or instruments Warrants drawn since Aug. connected with such practice.

The raid-the most extensive and Due from General Fund on far-reaching ever made by the Government-was under the personal direction of Postmaster-General Hitchcock and Chief Inspector Sharp, of the Postoffice Department . So carefully had its details been guarded that until the first arrests were made at Indianapolis early in the day, virtually nothing was With approximately $2,500 known of the Government's contemplated action.

Working with clock-like precision, the inspection force spread over 22 states, carried out the pre-arranged plans, and tonight the Postoffice Department had received word that nearly all the designated persons had been arrested. The results of the crusade are being received tonight by the inspectors' division of the Postoffice Department in the form of telegrams from various division headquarters. In isolated instances it was found impracticable to effect the arrests but those against whom warrants have been issued are under surveillance and probably will be unable to escape.

MRS. BUSCH'S FATHER DIES AT COURTNEY

Wednesday evening. Mr. Heitkemper several months, and his physicians that he could not recover. He had been a resident of Courtney for many years and was one of the most respected citizens of Clackamas County. Mr. Heitkemper is survived by his widow, his daughter, Mrs. Busch, and the fol-lowing other daughters: Mrs. Julius Brotje, of Courtney; Mrs. A. Townsend, of Portland; Mrs. J. Neidmyer, of Portland; Mrs. Benjamin Dresser, Portland, and Mrs. Edward Kirkendall. The funeral arrangements will be made today.

LANDSBOROUGH AND EDWARDS LECTURE THIS EVENING

The congregations of the Congrega-Rev. J. R. Landsborough, one of the most eloquent and forceful pulpit orators in Oregon, also will deliver

At The Star New Vaudeville

LEWIS & JONES Colored Entertainers

In a Singing, Talking and Dancing Act

also

THE WORLD'S BASEBALL SERIES

NEW YORK vs. BOSTON

Two other pictures of the entertaining sort.

AMENDMENT TO FUND INDEBTEDNESS OF

Not be increas-OREGON CITY, Nov. 20 .- (Editor country, was made today by Postof- ment of the city charter providing for fice inspectors and United States Mar- refunding a part of the debt of Ore-

1, including November... 20,267.31 amount which the general fund must pay toward the improvement of Monroe, Jackson, J. Q. Adams and Sixteenth Streets and some sewer contracts, es-per month, estimated general expenditure making a total on April 15, 1913, against the General Fund 143,635.99 This includes the permanent street improvement fund from which must be deducted the income of the city, including taxes, estimated at .....

Which will leave a balance 106,635,99

Twenty thousand dollars of these bonds become due during the year 1913, and it will be necessary in some manner to take them up. Under the present condition of the charter these bonds can not be refunded neither can any of the additional outstanding warrants be refunded by bonds. If Henry Heitkemper, father of Mrs. standing warrants could be refunded the charter would permit, the out-Frank Busch, died at his home at and taken up by bonds at an interest charge of not more than 5 per cent and probably not more than 4 1-2 per had been a sufferer from cancer for cent and the bonds would command several months, and his physicians a premium on sale, this would have announced more than a week ago the effect of reducing the interest charge to Clegon City about $1500.00 each year and it is imperative that this should be done for the purpose of allowing these bonds to be refunded when due and also for the purpose of allowing the outstanding general fund warrants or at least the greater part of them to be fefunded. Charter amendment 300 yes, 301 no, entitled "A Bill for an Act to Amend Para graph 39 of Section 34 of the Charter of Oregon City, Oregon, and which provides for bonding the City not to tional and Presbyterian Churches will being submitted to the legal voters unite in service this evening at the of Oregon City. This amount will not Congregational Church. Rev. George have the effect of increasing the debt Nelson Edwards, pastor of the Congre- | of Oregon City at all but will reducgational Church, will lecture on his the interest charge materially and it experiences on the Alaskan frontier. is sincerely hoped that the people will

L. STIPP, Recorder.

Twenty-two persons from Oregon City will attend the annual banquet of the Manufacturer's Association of Oregon tonight at the Portland Commercial Club. The banquet starts at 6:30 o'clock and the Oregon City delegation will leave on the 5:30 car for Portland. The Willamette Pulp & Paper Company has taken six tickets, the Oregon City Woolen Mills, Hawley Pulp & Paper Company, Oregon City Enter-prise and Frank Busch two each, and the following have taken one ticket: Oregon City Foundry, Oregon City Courier, Bank of Oregon City, First National Bank, Builders Supplies Company, Western Stock Journal, Huntley Bros. Company, and O. D.

CLUB PROCEEDS TO

Civic Improvement Club will give an ed some piano selections. Those who entertainment with a short program Friday evening in the Assembly Hall

Mrs. G. A. Bickle is chairman of the entertainment committee and will have charge of a booth. Each of the women having charge of booths will dress in costume to correspond with their respective booth. Miss Lucile Kellogg will have charge of the candy booth, assisted by several little girls This club is doing a good work and the proceeds of the entertainment will be used to extend the Mount Pleasant-Oregon City walk.

sonal Property and Debt Would

Morning Enterprise)-The following

mated Aug. 1, 1912.....$ 61,868.68 streets completed ..... 21,000.00 To this will be added the timated at .

33,000,00

outstanding general city 156,635,99 The interest charges on these sums would be on the bonds 5 per cent or $2,500.00 per year, on the outstanding warrants 6 per cent or $6398.16.

exceed $100,000 to run not over 20 years, and bear interest not to exceed 5 per cent; to sell at not less than par; and for the purpose of paying off city warrants or and bonded indebtedness. Such bonds to be taxed as other personal property", is now pass this amendment.

OREGON CITY MEN TO ATTEND BIG DINNER

HELP BUILD WALK

The women of the Mount Pleasant

J. J. COOKE ASPIRES

John J. Cooke, applicant for Postmastership of Oregon City.

J. J. Cooke, who is an applicant for postmaster of Oregon City, to succeed T. P. Randall, was born in Damascus, Clackamas County, and came to Oregon City thirty two years ago. For the past 52 years he has been the jun- County Central Committee .He had for mamber of the firm of Wilson &

In 1898 he was elected sheriff of elected. He has always taken a great had no other expenditures. interest in politics, and always worked for the success of the Democratic

MR. OLDS IS PAID HONOR BY RELATIVES

Mrs. J. M. Olds of Twilight, enter-tained at dinner in honor of Mr. Old's 78 birthday last Saturday. Only immediate relatives were present there eing seventeen children and grand children. A delicious dinner was birthday cake was sent from California by Mr. Old's daughter, Mrs. C. Annan, which was very suitable for the occasion. The decorations of Oregon grape, chrysthemums and ferns were very beautiful. Many useful and handsome presents were received by

DELIGHTFUL PARTY

Miss Marie Harney and B. L. Harney entertained a number of friends at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harney, last Saturday evening at Twilight. The rooms were tastfully decorated with Oregon grape, ferns and cut flowers. The evening was devoted to progressive whist, four tables were played. The prize, a beautiful deck of cards, was won by Mrs. Bishop of Spokane. Light refreshments were served by the hostess and host. Mrs. Bishop and Miss Harney render were present were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmidke, Mr. and Mrs. George Lazelle, Mr. and Mrs. Stider, Mr. and Mrs. William McCord, Miss Alta Ramsey, Misses Grace and Rose Stider, Mrs. Bishop of Spokane; Miss Marie Harney, B. L. Harney, Tom Kelland and Marshall Lazelle.

E. G. White Estate $200. County Judge Beatle Wednesday $28.70. appointed E. T. White administrator of the estate of L. G. White. The es-

WOMAN ASPIRES TO CANDIDATES KEEP

SHERIFF MASS LEADS IN AMOUNT PAID OUT DURING CAM-PAIGN

REELECTION COST-HIM JUST $158.35

F. M. Gill Returned to Legislature at Outlay of $1.75-Wilson, Mulvey and Tufts Aid Othcounty offices were not large, according to the reports filed with the county clerk, Wednesday having been the date for city treasurer is Mrs. Wheelist day for filing under the law. Several candidates, however, have not filed reports. E. T. Mass, the successful Democratic candidate for sheriff. enjoys the distinction of having spent more than twice as much money as any other candidate. Mr. Mass, however, probably made a more thorough campaign than any of the other candidates. James F. Nelson, Republican nom inee for assessor, spent $62.00, $48 of which he contributed to the Republican County Central Committee. J. A. Tufts, Republican nominee for treasurer, contributed $40 to the no other expenditures. William Mulvey, Republican nominee for county clerk, contributed $60 Clackamas County and in 1900 was re- to the County Central Committee. He

E. P. Dedman, Republican nominee for recorder, made a winning fight with an expenditure of $66,40, $48 of which was paid to the County Central

F. M. Gill, Republican nominee for representative in the Legislature, having been a school teacher before he became a statsman, knew how to economize. With an expenditure of $1.75 he led all the other aspirants for job at Salem that pays $3 a day. Chris Schuebel, Republican nominee for representative in the Legislature, spent $30.10. Gustav Schnoerr, also a successful candidate for representative in the Legislature, has not filed his report W. J Wilson, Republican nomines for coroner, and virtually without opserved by the hostess at noon. A position, "coughed up" $17.85. More than $16 of this went to the County Central Committee. A publisher got $1.85 of it. E. L. Davidson, who was elected Justice of the Peace in District No. 2, doesn't believe in spending money for campaign purposes, and he didn't. William Hammond, Secretary of the Republican County Central Committee, reported an expenditure of the committee of $430. Chris Schuebel was paid $24 for automobile hire. W. J. Wilson was paid $20 for automobile hire and $40.50 was paid for printing. These were the largest bills.

B. F. Smith conducted his campaign for Justice of the Peace in District No. 5 without a cent. G. F. Johnson, secretary of the Democratic County Central Committee reported that the committee had received contributions of $29.50 spent $27.50. Not a single candidate was assessed. The largest expenditure $10. was for stamps.

E. T. Mass, the prodigal candidate of the campaign, relieved himself of his $158. 35 as follows: his $158. 35 as follows:

Hall rent, $9; auto and livery hire, $33.50; Oregon City Enterprise $26.35: Oregon City Courier, $52.50; Estacada Progress, $10; Canby Irritator, $5; Grand Theater, $10; Star Theater, $5. Milwaukie Theater, $5; Stamps, $2. assessor, was reelected with an ex-$36.20, was for traveling throughout he county. M. E. Gaffney, Democratic nominee Recorder, who was defeated, spent $67.20, his printing bill being $21. George M. Hively, Democratic nomince for county commissioner, spent

P. S. Noyer, Democratic nominee for (Continued on page 2.)

Gladstone, the first city in Oregon to appoint women election officers, has a new distinction. The beautiful ing machinery-1911, $735,815; 1912, from 8 o'lock until after midnight. little city of which the Hon. Harvey $710,350 E. Cross is "the father", is the first one in the state in which a woman has announced her candidacy for the important office of city treasurer. In some cities in Oregon this office is not particularly important but in Gladstone it transends in importance that $63,750; 1912 6,600, value $69,025, of mayor. The incumbent—J. K. Par-Household furniture, watches, jewdee—fought for it as the gladiators elry, etc.—1911, $186,485; 1912, $215. the stone. The ceremony was varied of Rome never fought, and Nero, himself, cauld not have been more appreciative of victory than Mr. Pardec and his friends. But while the ambitious men of Gladstone were "fiddling" The expenses of the candidates for equal suffrage was burning into the very soul of the electorate, and the Sheep and goats—1911, 13,777, value women have the ballot. The candi-$21,085; 1912, 14,002, value $20,205.

MRS. E. W. HORNSCHAH IS BURIED AT STAFFORD

be without opposition.

The funeral of Mrs. E. W. Hornschah, who died last Monday afternoon, was held at Shubel, on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Hornschah had been suffering for many years, having underwent an operation a short time ago for cancer. Her last illness was due to asthma. She was born at Dundee, Illinois, April 27, 1859. She came to Oregon in 1875, and was married to Edward Hornschah in 1879 in Ore-The deceased in survived gon City. by her husband and nine children, Mrs. Emma Muralt, Mrs. Calla Oss, Mrs. Ella Moehnke, Lulu Hornschuch, Bulah Hornschuch, Arthur Alvin and Walter Hornschah. Rev. Mr. Wieveisich of the German. Evangelical Association conducted the his solar plexus; funeral services at the church. Rev. E. A. Smith conducted the services at the cemetery. Mrs. Hornschah was well known throughout the county and her death was a sad blow to her many friends.

CANBY LODGE TO LAY TEMPLE CORNERSTONE

Canby Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, is arranging for the lay-ing of the cornerstone of the new Temple next Sunday afternoon. The ceremony will be an elaborate one, in keeping with the traditions of Odd Fellowship. The cornerstone will be formally laid by the Grand Master of Oregon, and Grand Secretary Sharon will also be present. The principal address will be made by Judge Thomas F. Ryan, Grand Patriarch of the Odd Fellows. The members of Canby Lodge expect a large number of visitors from near-by towns.

IS ENTERTAINED

The Newlyweds delightfully enter- WARNER GRANGE TO HAVE tained Tuesday evening at the home J. E. Jack, Democratic nominee for of George Hawkins. The evening was spent in playing five hundred, penditure of $78.10. His biggest bill, H. E. Hendry carrying away the prize offered. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Hawkins . Those who were present were: Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Meissner, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hen-dry, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Latourette, and Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkins.

> Boost your city by boosting your daily paper. The Enterprise should

ASSESSMENT ROLL CITY SURRENDERS SHOWS INCREASE TO ANTLERED HERD

PROPERTY VALUATION PLACED MAGNIFICENT CLUBHOUSE IS DED-AT $730,000 MORE THAN LAST YEAR

ICATED UNDER MOST AUS-PICIOUS CONDITIONS

ON $22,678,985 CORNER STONE LAYING IMPRESSIVE

State Tax Commission's Total Valuations Also Will be Greater

Than in 1911-Jack Files Summary

A summary of the assessment roll of Clackamas County for 1912 filed Wednesday by J. E. Jack, County As- Elks gathered in Oregon City Wednesshows an increase in valuation over 1911 of $730,000. This does not include ing the new building of Oregon City the assessments by the State Tax Lodge No. 1189. Commission, which also will be larger at River Mill and Bull Run, which were not assessed last year. The total year it was $21,943,345 and the assess-080,400. The summaries for this year and last year follow: Acres of tillable lands-1911, Num-Number 99,175, value $5,970,460. Acres of nontillable lands-1911, number 528,063, value $7,898,405; 1912, number 527,836, value $8,213,-

Town and city lots—1911, $2,869,-265; 1912, $3,151,130.

Improvements on town and city lots -19f1, $1,084,630; 1912, $1,173,480. Logging road and rolling stock, 1.50 miles-1911, $4,000; 1912, one and one half miles, $4,000. Stationary engines and manufactur-

Merchandise and stock in trade-1911, $474,850; 1912, $500,550. Farm implements wagons, carriages, etc.—1911, $150,360; 1912, $167,530. Money, notes and accounts—1911, $49,945; 1912 $44,295.

Horses and mules-1911, 6,963, val-ie $389,365; 1912, 7,308, value $386,-Cattle-1911, 12.041, value $201,145; 1912, 12,121, value $220,615.

Swine-1911, 5,186, value $25,435; where the committee had a lunch pre-1912, 1,975, value $12,100.

NO PAPIER MACHE AT SHOW; REAL PUMPKINS

(Evening Telegram.)
"Oh, they are all right for imitation," said the fair visitor in front W the Clackamas County stand at the Land Products Show, as she gazed at two mammoth specimens of the pumpkin and squash tribe. "Why didn't you make that larger one weigh more that weighed 100 pounds." The Clackamas man attending the exhibit leaned against a post. He smelt something. He drew a few big breaths, looked longingly at the cider booth up the row, and started to speak when the fair visitor got in another on "You Westerners are so enterprising. I have seen photographs of a strawberry filling an express wagon Of course it is a neat trick, but I don't think it is any better than making these imitations. They look as natural as if they had grown."

"What's the use?" sighed the Clackamas attendant, wearily. Now he is gathering a stack of Bibles, and practicing on the "Honest Injun," "Cross My Heart," and other faithful old affirmations to convince the visitors that what he has brought to the Land Show have been produced from Clackamas County soil, and not from a paper mache factory.

Those two monsters that flabber gasted the woman visitor rival the Arkansas melons, in which a drove of hogs got lost all one summer.

MAN ATTEMPTS TO KILL-IS ARRESTED

J. S. Friel, of Cherryville, was ar rested and brought before Justice of the Peace Samson Wednesday. Hhe is charged with attempting to take the life of R. P. Parker, of Estacada, and carrying deadly weapons. Mr. Friel alleges that Mr. Parker had jumped a pal of his, Alfred Emlie, and that he was protecting his friend. His case is set for Friday at 4 o'clock.

THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

The Warner Grange will meet Saturday in its hall at New Era. It will be an all day meeting, with the business session in the morning and a Thanksgiving dinner at noon, consisting of turkey, cranberry sauce, plum pudding and dainties. In the afternoon there will be a Thanksgiving program under the management of Mrs. Joseph Hoffman, lecturer. The hall will be appropriately decorated for the occasion

Big Luncheon at Armory and Ball at Busch's Hall in Evening-Hundreds of "Hello Bills" Here

Over a thousand members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of sessor, in the county clerk's office day to attend the ceremonies incident to laying the cornerstone and dedicat-

Vancouver, Wash., members came this year because of the power plants by rail, with a big crowd, Eugene sent a large delegation and Albany and Salem were well represented. valuation of real and personal proper- land members arrived in special cars ty this year is $22,678,985, while last in the evening. They paraded through the street headed by their forty piece ment of the state commission was $21,- band, playing for the first time in public, since the Elks Reunion in Port-land last July. The laying of the cornerstone in the afternoon by ber 97,211, value $5,762,170; 1912, Grand Lodge officers was aftended by a large crowd. The home and club rooms were open to the public in the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. From 5:30 to 11 o'clock dinner was served at the Armory. The large building Improvements on deeded or patent- was filled from the time it was opened lands-1911, $2,015,075; 1912, $1,- ed until the doors of the Armory were closed. The most important function ies, which were held in the lodge room. Many were unable to attend as the lodge room was filled and standing room was at a premium. Those who were unable to get into the lodge . rooms, were not disappointed as the Grand Ball was held in Busch's Hall

The ceremonies of laying the cornerstone at 2 o'clock in the afternoon were very simple but impressive. The Grand Lodge officers had entire charge of the program, and following the ritualistic work by the Grand Exalted Ruler and the Grand Chaplain, the Shares of stock-1911, 6,400, value stone was laid in place to remain as long as the building shall stand. There were no souvenirs nor momentos in with orchestra music. The public was extended the privileges of the entire building and from 2 o'clock until 5 several thousand people thronged the spacious interior in admiration of its beautiful furnishings. As delegation after delegation arrived they were escorted to the Armory

Dogs-1911, 1,947, value $11,565; 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon until after 11 in the evening. The spacious lodge room was filled to overflowing at the dedication ceremonies which were held in the evening at 8:30 o'clock. Grand Lodge officers occupied the seats of the officers and when Grand Exalted Ruler Thurston Edward Daniels called the meet ing to order, every seat in the hall was taken, many were standing, and again as many were forced to stay in the anti-rooms. Grand Lodge officers conducted the ritualistic ceremonies, after which the Grand Exalted Ruler declared the building dedicated. Henry O'Malley, Exalted Ruler of Oregon City Lodge, made the first address of the evening. He called to the attention of his hearers the historic traditions connected with Oregon than 142 pounds, and the other heavier City. He told of John McBoughlin than 131? I have seen natural ones how years ago, he had settled in this how years ago, he had settled in this country a trading station, and that he had to his own detriment welcomed and assisted imigrants into the new country. This, he said, was one of the aims of this lodge. He told of the institution of the order, that was a national one, yet it was one confined to the borders of our own great country. This, he said, gave it a na tional significance. He told of the (Continued on page 2)

Commencing Today

BROOKE DOYLE

Singing, Talking and Musical Act and

A Good Run of Pictures

The Grand