POTATOE BLIGHT MAY CONTINUE IN SOIL

The Oregon Commission Company, through one of its proprietors, Dr. A. L. Beatie, has obtained valuable information for farmers from the Oregon Agricultural College relative to potato blight. Dr. Beatie several days ago wrote to the college as follows: "Will you be kind enough to give us your valued opinion on the following: On account of the blight in the potatoes this year a great many potatoes are being left in the fields and, in fact, some fields have not been dug at all. Will this leave any disease that will contaminate the tubers next year or will it in any way be injurious to other crops? If you will kindly give your opinion on this matter, please give it with your consent to be used in a way that we can best get the information to the farmers."

Professor H. S. Jackson replies as follows: "I have your letter in regard to potato blight. Will say that potato blight also affects the tomato. It is somewhat of an unsettled question whether potato blight will live over in the soil or not. I believe, however, that there is considerable evidence to show that it would be at least dangerous to plant potatoes in a field where this disease has been prevalent in previous seasons."

CORRESPONDENCE

RURAL DELL

The continued wet spell is delaying farm work considerable this Fall. Carl Sether hauled hops for Frank Fish last Friday and Saturday. Cornelius and Edward Amdahl spent the fore part of the week in Portland. Fred Olson went to Aurora Saturday Miss Myrtle Flornesse went away Friday. Mrs. W. S. Sconce went calling on Tuesday. Mr. Dyebyrd went to Hubbard Friday. M. Gottwald and F. T. Smith went to the cedar press Friday. Elmer Widstrand called on Miss Tillie Sander Sunday. Dick Sampman has placed a telephone in his house. Now Dick, you can talk to anybody and everybody as long as you please. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Widstrand. Dr. Stegman of Molalla, and family spent Sunday at their place here. Mr. and Mrs. Sander had Molalla visitors as their guests Sunday. Bill Jackson spent Sunday with Austin Dubois. Lonie Bergstrom spent a few days of last week on his father's farm here. Roy Selly formerly of this place, but now living near Corvallis, is spending a few days with old friends. Albert Eymann and Miss Nell Yoder were united in wedlock by Rev. Butler in Hubbard last Thursday. We extend our congratulations to the bride and groom and we fervently hope that their future will have much in store for them and that their married life will be long and blissful. Mrs. Joe Kauffman entertained a few of her friends last Thursday night in honor of Mrs. Kauffman and her daughter, Maggie, who recently arrive from Kansas City for a visit with relatives in this state. Taffy pulling furnished amusement for all that were present. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eymann were awakened (?) last Saturday night about midnight by the ringing of bells and shooting of guns. Nearly every boy in the neighborhood participated in the chivalry and Albert was very liberal in giving the boys a good send off for their trouble and good will.

GLAD TIDINGS

A welcome visitor from day to day is the Morning Enterprise. May its shadow never grow less. William Nicholson's barn is near completion. The house Fred Meyers is having built on his place, to be occupied by Ole Olsson, is being built very slowly owing to the lack of lumber suitable for its construction. So much building is going on in this country that the mills are taxed beyond their capacity. The man who bought the farm from A. Skinner, is busy these times moving his belongings as he acquires immediate possession. Some of the small bridge spannings and culverts in this section are becoming greatly out of repair and as the weather becomes more settled the supervisors will be compelled to attend to the matter. Mud or no mud, understand, we do not cast reflections upon our supervisors, they are good men, but the weather has been so fearfully bad that it was out of all reason to think of doing the work.
