The Retiring Party's Compliments

In turning over the control of the affairs of the country to another party the Republicans have the pleasure of reporting everything in solvent shape, with prosperity at high tide in all the states and outlying possessions. Another item to which attention is called by an official statement sets forth the fact that the foreign trade of the United States for the year 1912 will pass the four-billion line for the first time. When the Dingley law was passed in 1897 it was said that the return to a protective policy would cripple our foreign trade and set the world against us to our heavy loss. What really happened was a great and general increase. Our foreign trade in 1897, the total of exports and imports, was $1,810,000,000. It passed $2,000,000,000 in 1899, $3,000,000,000 in 1906, and will exceed $4,000,000,000 in the present calendar year.

This advance would have been called progressiveness before the word fell into freckish disrepute. It is enough now to refer to it as solid progress. All has occurred under protective tariffs, one of which is still in force, though shortly to be sapped and mined by a minority of voters invested with complete authority by pluralities in a three-sided fight. A majority of voters supported protective platforms in the recent contest, but this majority must go into the backgrounds for the next two years. They hand over the reign of power with an excellent record, and, what is even better, a good conscience. The Republican party does not consider the ear 1912 a barren one for itself. In national convention assembled it rejected a third-term movement for the second time. It would rather stand by principles and be defeated than go into any form of demagog for the sake of expediency. In two former years it was retired. But how quickly and gladly the people recalled it!

European Medical Development Superior to Ours

By Professor WILLIAM HIS of Germany

AS regards medical development this country is just now struggling for independence of private interests. I see how in the far distant future our large HOSPITALS WILL HAVE TO BECOME SUBSERVIENT TO PURELY INSTRUCTIVE INSTITUTIONS.

You will have to have sufficient endowments not only for the marble trimmings and beautiful laboratories that private wealth has contributed so lavishly here, but to keep scientific men while they are engaged in their research or study independent of any worry or care. EUROPEAN COUNTRIES CAN EASILY PROGRESS IN AN ORDERLY MANNER, BECAUSE INSTITUTIONS THERE ARE SUPPORTED BY THE GOVERNMENT, MORALLY AND FINANCIALLY.

The help-given to science by private individuals is one of the most remarkable events in the history of medicine.

like amount for the same purpose. The treasurer of the State of Oregon shall appropriate a sum of $375,000 for the locks, canal, and right of way on the west side, was approved by the Secretary of War, under date of February 15, 1912. The offer was duly made and accepted and the necessary transfer papers are in course of preparation by the owners, the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company. The abstract of title has been received and forwarded to the United States District Attorney for examination.

The Secretary of War has recommended the appropriation of $80,000 to complete the sum necessary for the purchase and rehabilitation of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company's canal around the falls of the Willamette at Oregon City.

H. L. HULL ELECTED MEADE POST HEAD

One of the most entertaining meetings ever held by Meade Post No. 2, Grand Army of the Republic, was held Wednesday. The election of officers resulted as follows: H. L. Hull, Commander; J. A. Roman, senior Vice Commander; L. P. Horton, Chaplain; J. Sewell, Junior Vice Commander; J. A. Matlock, Surgeon; J. Deramus, Officer of the Day; D. H. Davies, Officer of the Guard and George A. Harding, Quartermaster. The Council of the Administration is composed of A. J. Tufts and J. C. Sawyer and the delegates elected to attend the State Encampment are J. A. Matlock, O. A. Van Hoy, Faxon Hayford, J. McFarland and C. N. Lewis.

A life and rum corps was present, rendering a number of old-time selections. The relief corps gave a dinner, at which an invitation sent to H. S. Clyde from Mrs. Helen Longstreet, wife of the Confederate General Longstreet, of Gainsville, Ga., to the unveiling of a fountain and monument of Abraham Lincoln was read.

Costly Silence. A representative of the local authority of a German city once informed the conductor of the municipal orchestra that the extra pay demanded for the tuba players by the Wagner performances would not be granted.

"You must give the opera without a tuba," he said. Finally, however, on the conductor's earnest solicitation, the additional remuneration was conceded, but after the first act of "Die Walkure" the municipal representative referred to hurriedly sought the conductor. "My dear sir," he exclaimed, with a groan of despair, "we pay those tuba players 6 marks each, and they haven't played a note!"

Sweden's Nobility. Persistent caste marriage has led in Sweden to the disappearance of 70 per cent of the original noble families.

Interesting Pictures From The Front In Balkan War

Photos copyright, 1912, by American Press Association. THE Balkan war in action and at a standstill might fittingly describe these actual pictures from the front. At the top the war is halted, as it were, by the wreck of a train conveying Turkish soldiers and newspaper correspondents to Chorn. Notice the type of the derailed cars—small box affairs, with light wheels and poor equipment. At the bottom the war is on. A Montenegrin battery is in action.
