LAST CAR LEAVES FOR OREGON CITY AT MIDNIGHT

WALKER WHITESIDE IN "THE TYPHOON" AT HEILIG THEATER, DEC. 8, 9, 10, 11.

The favorite actor, Walker Whiteside and his excellent company will present the international drama, "The Typhoon," at The Heilig Theater, Seventh and Taylor Streets, for 4 nights, beginning Sunday, Dec. 8. Popular price matinee Wednesday.

First of the really dramatic attractions to visit Portland this season will come to The Heilig Theater, Seventh and Taylor Streets, for a stay of four nights with a popular price Wednesday matinee, commencing on Sunday evening, December 8. It is "The Typhoon," and will be interpreted by the distinguished American actor, Mr. Walker Whiteside, and his metropolitan all-star company.

It is the most widely discussed play of the decade. This extraordinary drama has arrested the attention of the leading critics of Europe and America by the daring originality of its theme, and its masterly handling. The work created an almost unexampled furor in Europe—Berlin, Vienna, and Paris, the continental cities succumbing to its viend and subtle charm and balling it as the most startling dramatic novelty of many seasons. Mr. Walker Whiteside has placed the work before the American public in its entirety, with an exquisitely beautiful stage setting.

"The Typhoon" on its first production in America was received with unbounded enthusiasm, the public instantly recognizing its unique equality, and the gripping intensity of the swiftly moving scenes and cumulative sensations held the audience breathless from the rise of the curtain until its fall on the last thrilling situation.

"The Typhoon" is the first drama that has dealt with the Oriental people with veracity and insight. It has fill mail orders for seats in the order of their receipt, when such orders are accompanied by check, post office or express orders. Playgoers in neighboring cities who enjoy the best theatrical offerings are hardly likely to miss "The Typhoon."

THE GREYHOUND

Another Play of Criminal Life to be Presented by the Baker Players.

Successful plays of criminal life, such as Paul Armstrong has written the past few years, never fail to score and this week, commencing today matinee, the Baker players will present his late success, "The Greyhound," dealing with a band of crooks whose specialty is fleecing passengers on the big Atlantic liners. The play has been seen in but few cities outside of New York so far, Portland being one of them. It was just released for stock and Manager Baker seized upon the opportunity of giving his patrons the chance of seeing it immediately. It opens in San Francisco and then shifts aboard the Mauretania, out in the middle of the ocean, where we find all the crooks, with their leader, Louis Foolman, known as the Greyhound, playing their trade. The scenes are intensely dramatic, as can be supposed, for Armstrong has solved the question of placing criminals upon the stage without resorting to the old-fashioned melodramatic tricks and still in keeping with the fascination and thrills. In this case a Nemesis is at their heels in the person of Detective McSherry, whose principal motive in constantly shadowing them is one of revenge, for Fellman has ruined the life and tried to murder his former sweetheart. In fact he thinks her dead, and her presence on the ship, of which he gets but fleeting glimpses, so preys upon his mind, that in the end he commits suicide. Armstrong is the author of "The Deep Purple," "Alias Jimmy Valentine," and many others of like character and "The Greyhound" will be found to be one of his best. The usual matinees will be given Wednesday and Saturday, and the popular Bargain night Monday.

BALKAN WAR END IS THOUGHT TO BE NEAR

LONDON, Dec. 7.—The prospects for a satisfactory and rapid settlement of the Balkan war and of the greater European interests hanging upon it seem brighter tonight than at any time since the allied armies took the field against Turkey. The envoys from the Balkan kingdoms, Greece—if Greece decides to participate—and the Ottoman empire, will hold the first meeting of the peace conference next Friday.

At the same time the Ambassadors of the great powers in London charged with the task of protecting the interests of their countries will meet as a sort of appeals to watch, advise and admonish the peace delegates.

POPE IS MADE ILL BY SWAYING CHAIR

ROME, Dec. 7.—The Pope was so affected by dizziness and sickness caused by the swaying of the gestatorial chair during the recent consistory that he nearly fainted in his apartments, and doctors had to use restoratives to revive him.

It has since been decided that at all future functions the Pope shall be carried in the chair only inside the Hall of Beatification, and not all the way from his apartments and down the steps, which occupies a full quarter of an hour. This action was taken because it was feared that at the Pope's age, such an attack as the recent one might some time prove fatal.

The use of the chair cannot be abolished, as it is part of the liturgy, and during the ceremonial the Pontiff is carried shouldered high, surrounded by cardinals, with other lay and ecclesiastical functionaries walking behind.
