Portland. Mrs. Huber of South Dakota, and her two daughters spent the day at her brother's, William Schantz. Mr. Huber will be remembered by many of our readers as Lizzie Schantz who spent her girlhood in Stafford. She married seventeen years ago and has lived in Dakota since. Her husband died three years ago leaving her a large farm to manage which she seems well able to do. She operates her own automobile when at home. It is a great corn country and every year in September there is a show of corn in a near by town which answers to our State Fair. There is an immense skelton of a bull, then corn is used to completely cover it outside and in and all the partitions being made of corn and the furniture also, chairs, tables, etc. It is called the Corn Palace and thousands flock to see it every year and birds have a feast picking kernels from the outside. Mrs. Schantz and Mrs. Huber made a pleasant call upon Mrs. Gage on Thursday and went to see Mr. Fred Baker whose sister is a neighbor of Mrs. Huber's in Dakota.

There have been no more black hand letters left here. Eventually the youngsters thought best to quit with a term in the penitentiary.

Mrs. Gage and Mrs. Lucile Holton made a visit at Simon Peters on Friday last.

Mrs. Powell's foot improves very slowly. She dropped an iron utensil upon it.

During the vacation the dirtcoats at the request of Mr. Larkins had the school house floor cleaned again.

Typoid fever has made its appearance in isolated cases. A young man taken to the Oregon City Hospital worked for John Rizer.

We hear with regret that Mrs. C. Thompson is critically ill at her home with pneumonia. Mrs. Rizer is better.

WILSONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Baker spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allison Baker.

Mr. Bothme returned from Oregon City on Wednesday evening, where he had been attending the teachers' institute.

Mr. Baker, an aged resident of this district, died last Wednesday, after a long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Moore and family of Oregon City, spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones.

The Thanksgiving dinner, planned by the Ladies' Aid Society was postponed.

Mrs. Frank Brobst, who has been visiting relatives in Woodburn, has returned home.

Miss Murray, Mrs. Aubrey Wood, Mrs. Halley and Mrs. Hasselbrink attended the teachers' institute last week, and report a very profitable and enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, of Portland, spent some days last week with their relatives here.

Alfred Baker has been quite ill for a couple of weeks.

The Thanksgiving Day dance was well attended and the young folks report an enjoyable time, and good music.

Among the high school students who came home for Thanksgiving were: Mary Brobst Elmer Seely, Dwight Seely, Elmer Hasselbrink, Rheta Vincent, Harold Say and James Say.

Mary Batalgia spent a few days at home last week.

The "Students' Literary League" of Corral Creek school held a meeting on Friday. After the regular routine of business a program consisting of songs and recitations was given. A feature of the program was an exercise, "Ten Little Pumpkin Faces," by the primary pupils. The next meeting will be December 6th, and it was decided to have a debate, the question at issue being: "Resolved, that the City People are 'Greener' in the Country, than the Country People are in the city." Agnes Batalgia has the affirmative side of the question and Lloyd Jones the negative.

About twenty of the family relatives assembled at the Graham ranch near our village to enjoy their Thanksgiving dinner together.

Mrs. Marlon Young and family, Mrs. Norris Young, S. Seely and Mr. and Mrs. Aden attended the violin recital, given by Professor W. W. Graham, on Tuesday evening at the Masonic hall, in Portland. About five hundred persons were in attendance and were delighted with the skill of Professor Graham and his assistants. This is the first recital the professor has given since his recent return from Germany.

MOLALLA.

The switch board is to be removed from the post office building to the Molalla Telephone Co.'s new home central office. Owing to the rearrangement of many wires talk will be cut out through central for a few days. Mrs. Clifford and Miss Louise Saylor, who have served as operators almost from the beginning of the telephone mutual operation at this place, served notice a year ago that they did not care to fill the position any longer and duly consented to serve out this year to enable the company to get located in its new home.

Everman Robbins' splendid bungalow is nearing completion, when he contemplates moving for full house-keeping by the first of the year. The Molalla Telephone Company having purchased the Boyles' property. The new operator Mr. Harry Bibbard, of Marquam, will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Robbins after Jan. 1, 1913.

Drs. Todd's and Vernon's new dwelling houses are to be completed by the new year. They are to be painted a cheerful white.

F. C. Perry has a cottage built and is now putting up a water tank tower.

John Looney has a house upon the beginning of his new home in the Gregory addition to Molalla.

Next Saturday will be the regular meeting day for Molalla Grange No. 310 when the officers for the year of 1913 will be elected and other important issues will be brought up. It is very important for all members to be in attendance early in the day.

Thanksgiving services were appropriately held at the M. E. church, the pastor in charge, the Rev. Mr. Piper delivered the sermon, after which dinner was served in the basement to a goodly number.

Uncle Jake Harless has recovered from his sick spell and lays it all to the election of Wilson, but the thought of woman's suffrage almost makes him dizzy as he has some apprehension that Molalla might do the

$400 YEARLY WILL PROTECT PEOPLE

Howell, superintendent of the Water Works, offers a suggestion, which, if adopted, would forever eliminate typhoid in the water.

For less than $400 a year a bacteriologist can be employed to make a test of the water daily. This is done in several Eastern states, state laws making it compulsory. There is a competent chemist in the city who will do the work for less than $400 a year. His plan would be after making the daily analysis to report to the superintendent, and any day typhoid or colon bacilli were found in the water the public would at once be notified to boil the water used for drinking until the water could be purified. If this plan were adopted there might be one or two victims of typhoid in the city annually as a result of infected water, but there would never be an epidemic. Dr. McLaughlin's argument proves that the employment of the bacteriologist would be an economic proposition. This suggestion is presented in all seriousness to the board of Water Commissioners by the Morning Enterprise. The city had better spend $400 a year than have one case of typhoid fever. There are 55 cases now. The economic loss as a result of the epidemic will be great. Then, too, mothers, fathers, husbands and wives are suffering as a result of members of their families being ill—and the victims, well they recover, or die. And less than $400 a year might prevent more than one or two cases of the disease in the city annually.

Dr. Norris Saturday received a report from Dr. White regarding three samples of the city water. One sample, taken from a faucet at a home where members of the family are afflicted with typhoid fever contained colon bacilli. The other two samples taken from faucets in the downtown district, were free from colon bacilli. Superintendent Howell received a report from Albert R. Sweetser, head of the department of botany of the University of Oregon, to the effect that three samples of water analyzed by him were pure. The water was sent to Mr. Sweetser by Mr. Howell.

The Morning Enterprise is in receipt of the following communication from the Board of Water Commissioners:

"In answer to the statement of 'S. Smith' in this morning's paper that 'When it rains very hard one can see dirty little streams of surface water running down the sides (of the reservoir) into the water,' we ask you to permit us to say that 'S. Smith' knows better or is writing with absolute innocence of the condition. If it is the former, he should let us know who he is that he may be properly classified, and if the latter, 'Smith' ought to inform himself and then write his article or speak his speech openly and truthfully.

"As to the further statement of 'Smith' that 'during my 20 odd years residence in Oregon City, I cannot remember of it (the reservoir) ever being cleaned,' we ask you to allow us to answer that the statement is unfair and prejudicial. We might say that we do not remember that 'Smith' was ever born in the usual way. We state a fact; but we presume he is not at least taken for a man.

"The fact is that the reservoir has been cleaned every year but one since it was constructed, and that it was last thoroughly cleaned last August.

"Mr. F. M. Darling, who lives near the reservoir, no doubt knows the facts about this, and we suggest that 'Smith' interview him."

The water board has ordered the reservoir drained and cleaned. The mains and filter plant will be thoroughly cleaned and sterilized.

RECITAL IS GIVEN FOR BENEFIT OF SOCIETY

A recital was given at the Park-place High School Friday evening by De Etta Sinclair, lecturer, reader and entertainer. The recital was given for the benefit of the High School Literary Society; the entertainment was a success in every respect and was highly appreciated by those who present.
