PARCELS POST MODIFICATION.

There will be a reduction January 1 in the postage charged on parcels mailed in the United States. The rates will still be much higher than those long established in England, Germany, and other countries of Europe, where the sending of parcels by mail, at low cost to the people, has been an extensive part of the public service for many years. It has worked no hardship abroad to any class and its recognition there as a general advantage. The reduction at hand in this country is less than is supported by many who are apprehensive of results. A full examination of details should be made before forming an opinion of the fairness of the new regulations and the probable results. The new law was passed by Congress last summer with certain provisions showing that it is, at least in part, regarded as an experiment. Power is conferred on the postmaster general to investigate it, with the consent of the Interstate Commerce Commission, to modify weights and zone distances that a change is needed. Within a 300-mile zone the new rates will be 7 cents postage for the first pound, 5 cents a pound for each additional pound, and 57 cents for an weight allowed. The rates will be less for smaller zones and more for larger. For more than 1800 miles the charge will be 12 cents for the first pound, 12 cents for each additional pound.

School Children's Home Work Unnecessary

By Mrs. JOHN DEWEY, Wife of Professor of Psychology of Columbia University

I FEEL convinced that the children in the grades could ACCOMPLISH THE SAME RESULTS IF THEY HAD NO LESSONS TO DO OUTSIDE OF THEIR SCHOOL HOURS. In the high schools, of course, this would be more difficult, but even here the home work should be reduced to a minimum instead of being increased to the maximum as it is now. Children are really ALMOST TOO LEARNED NOWADAYS. Their school is so much with them that they begin to think in book terms and to LOOK AT LIFE ONLY THROUGH BOOKS. That result of overstudy I regard as even more serious than the loss of exercise and the sacrifice of playtime which home lessons entail. IT OUGHT TO BE POSSIBLE TO DO ALL THE ELEMENTARY WORK—ALL THE ARITHMETIC, THE SIMPLE ENGLISH, THE GEOGRAPHY AND HISTORY—WITHIN THE FIVE OR SIX HOURS AT SCHOOL WITHOUT TIRING THE CHILDREN OUT WITH MORE LESSONS IN THE AFTERNOON AND AT NIGHT.

Clackamas River water for domestic purposes; we could furnish our citizens with necessary lights, and furnish electric power—and it could be made to pay interest from the start on the money expended. E. C. HACKETT.

POTATO GROWERS UNABLE TO UNLOAD

Efforts of growers to unload their potatoes at this time are meeting with failure. There is such a limited demand at the moment that it takes only a very small amount of stock to feed the trade.

Prices are seemingly no object with growers anxious to unload. They are devoted to seeing and a dainty luncheon, the liners being serenaded at 9:30 o'clock by Misses Bess Kelly and Isabel Pease, of Portland. Those present were Miss Cis Pratt, Miss Margaret Caulfield, Miss Zida Goldsmith, Misses Helen and Bess Dunalton, Mrs. L. A. Morris and Mrs. O'Malley.

While it is quite probable that some outside business will be offered here after the turn of the year, the outlook is far from being a pleasing one. When the winter breaks it will bring forth immense offerings of supplies by Eastern Oregon and Idaho, where the crops this season broke all previous records.

This is the first time in many years that there has been practically no speculation among potato dealers. The outlook has been so poor all along that even the most speculative have been unable to gather the nerve to take hold. While there were fair shipments to Arizona some weeks ago, total holdings at this time are fully a third greater than the total crop during any recent season.

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows:

- HIDES—(Buying). Green hides 7c to 8c; salters 8c to 10c; dry hides 15c to 16c; sheep pelts 40c to 50c each. EGGS—Oregon ranch eggs 40c case count. FEED—(Selling). Shorts $27; bran $25; process barley $30 to $31 per ton. FLOUR—$4.50 to $5. HAY—(Buying). Miss Taft, Secretary of War and Wife at Start of Panama Trip

THIS is Miss Helen Taft, daughter of the president, with the happiest of Taft smiles—she and her husband, the Secretary of War and Mrs. Henry L. Stimson for a tour of the Panama canal zone. Mr and Mrs. Stimson were caught in pleasant mood at the same time.

GYPSIES ARE GIVEN DELIGHTFUL SERENADE

The Gypsies were delightfully entertained Saturday evening by Mrs. Emily O'Malley. The evening was devoted to sewing and a dainty luncheon, the liners being serenaded at 9:30 o'clock by Misses Bess Kelly and Isabel Pease, of Portland. Those present were Miss Cis Pratt, Miss Margaret Caulfield, Miss Zida Goldsmith, Misses Helen and Bess Dunalton, Mrs. L. A. Morris and Mrs. O'Malley.

EAGLES CARRY OFF INFANT AND STOCK

KINGFISHER, Okla., Dec. 9.—Four big golden-headed eagles were brought here today by farmers who captured them and killed a fifth in the Gyp hills northwest of here. The farmers said a flock of seven of the birds had their aeries in the hills and have been carrying off small stock in such numbers that they organized to exterminate them. The birds have carried away lambs and pigs and some of the residents assert that the eagles, instead of gypsies, carried away an infant from the community a few months ago. One of the captive birds measures nearly eight feet from tip to tip of its outspread wings.
