RED CROSS SEALS ARE WHITE PLAGUE FOE

Why you should buy Red Cross Christmas Seals, may be answered most effectively in the words of a twelve-year-old boy in the Duluth (Minn.) schools who gave the following as his reason in a composition on the subject:
"The reason I put Red Cross Seals on my Christmas gifts is because every seal I use counts one cent toward stamping out tuberculosis in the city and for the maintenance of hospitals for that purpose. The seals are also used to raise funds to teach people the value of fresh air. Another reason I buy them is because my father died of tuberculosis and I buy them so that other little boys and girls won't lose their father as I did. Another reason is that if I am ever threatened with tuberculosis the doctors will have a fund to try and prevent it."

Prominent Oregon City girls will be seen selling Red Cross Seals today.

The White Headed Boy. The phrase "this mother's white head ed boy" is as old as the hills in Ireland. It appears in many of the Irish fairy stories of the last century. Irish mothers who knew good fairies always kept the secret for the "white headed boy" of the family. Gerald Griffin in one of his best short stories years ago used the phrase as if he had borrowed from an old Celtic book.

The elevator is not built yet, but it will pay the downtown people to see what they can do on the hill. D. L. Ely has a large line of Christmas goods of all kinds at right prices.

Questions for Dec. 15

- (1) Verse 15—What are the advantages of telling what we have against a man to his face with no other person present?
(2) If you believe you have a just grievance against a man and go to him in a conciliatory spirit and are repulsed by him what would that indicate as to his guilt?
(3) Verse 16—In case you have been repulsed by one against whom you have a grievance what are the chances for a proper settlement of your difficulty if you approach him again in the presence of witnesses?
(4) Verse 17—Do these words of Jesus bind us to prefer charges before the church against any member of whom we have serious complaint? Why?
(5) Ought all those in the church who will insist upon doing things unbecoming a Christian to be expelled? Why?
(6) What should be our personal attitude to those who will insist upon doing us injury?
(7) Verse 18—In what sense, if any, has a minister or a church power to determine another man's salvation?
(8) What is the real theory of the Roman Catholic church concerning the forgiveness of sins, and what is the difference between that and the absolute pronouncement by the American church?
(9) Verse 19—If two Christians are in accord in prayer for any particular thing may they depend with absolute certainty without any other consideration that their prayer will be granted? Give your reasons.
(10) Verse 20—In what sense is Christ present when two or three are met in his name, as he is not at any other time?
(11) Verse 21-22—How many times ought we to forgive one who persists in sinning against us?
(12) Verse 23-27—What reason is there to suppose that God keeps a detailed account of all our sins?
(13) Wherein is the resemblance between the way this king forgave a debt of ten thousand talents and the way God forgives sinners?
(14) Does God need to be pressed or importuned before he will forgive a sinner? Why?
(15) Verse 28-29—Will a true Christian ever refuse to forgive one who has injured him? Why?
(16) Verse 30-35—What is the penalty for not forgiving those who have injured us?
Lesson for Sunday, Dec. 22, 1912. Christmas lesson. Isa. ix:1-7.

GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

A SIMPLE REMEDY BEAUTIFIES THE HAIR, CURES DANDRUFF, STOPS FALLING HAIR.

What a pity it is to see so many people with thin, wispy hair, faded or streaked with gray, and realize that most of these people might have soft glossy, abundant hair of beautiful color and lustre if they would but use the proper treatment. There is no necessity for gray hair under sixty-five year of age, and there is no excuse for anyone, young or old, having thin, straggling hair, either full of dandruff or heavy and rank smelling with excessive oil.

You can bring the natural color of your hair in a few days and forever rid yourself of any dandruff and loose hairs, and make your hair grow strong and beautiful by using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. For generations common garden Sage has been used for restoring and preserving the color of the hair; and Sulphur is recognized by Scalp Specialists as being excellent for treatment of hair and scalp troubles.

If you are trouble with dandruff or itching scalp, or if your hair is losing its color or coming out, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and notice the improvement of your hair in a few days' treatment.

U.S. SENATOR WRITES TO OREGON CITY MAN

A. M. Sinnott, of this city, who formerly was associated in political work with K. L. Perky, United States senator from Idaho, has received the following letter from Mr. Perky:
"I have your more than kind letter of the 21st. ult., which was forwarded to me from Oregon City, and I thank you very much for the kind words it contained and for your very gracious predictions. Mrs. Perky is here with me. I hope to hear from you often during my short stay down here."

WOODMEN START BIG MEMBERSHIP CONTEST

Willamette Falls Camp No. 148, Woodmen of the World, had a rally Friday night, nearly 100 members being present. Five candidates were initiated and four applications for membership were received. A spirited contest for membership is now on between the degree team and the membership at large with the degree team at present in the lead. The losing side will serve an oyster supper for the winners January 10, at which time the annual installation of officers will take place. Camp Organizer G. L. Snidow will have charge of the installation. A committee was appointed to arrange for an entertainment the latter part of January for the members and their families. After the regular meeting a short program was rendered and a banquet was partaken of by the members.

TAYLOR HELD TO ANSWER TO GRAND JURY

George Taylor, accused of criminal intimacy with his adopted daughter, Retha Taylor, was held in $5,000 bonds to answer to the grand jury by County Judge Beattie Friday. The defendant was represented by George C. Brownell. The girl has been placed in the custody of the county jail matron, Mrs. Parker.

If you saw it in the Enterprise it's so.

POLICE CHIEF CASE TO BE HEARD FRIDAY

The case of E. L. Shaw, who has been called upon to prove that he is legally entitled to the office of Chief of Police, was called before Circuit Judge Eakin Friday and continued until next Friday. Mayor Dimick, who signed the complaint, is desirous of proving that the mayor has absolute control of the police department. When he was sworn in as mayor January 1 he appointed Charles E. Burns chief of police, but the council refused to confirm the appointment, declaring in favor of Shaw. The latter has been serving as chief of police ever since, but Mayor Dimick has declined to sign his warrants.

DAIRYING IS URGED BY COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Publicity Department of the Commercial Club is after something big. The acting secretary, M. J. Lazelle was asked by the committee at a recent meeting to make a report at the regular meeting which will be held next Wednesday evening, regarding dairying. The report is to include statements as to profits, expenses, capital required and other important matters pertaining to the dairy industry.

It has been suggested that the work of the Publicity Department should be more far reaching with the results of the present work upon the future development of the county in view. It was suggested that the best way to advertise Clackamas County is to assist every farmer to put his farm on a paying basis. With this end in view the Commercial Club will take up the dairy proposition in its next meeting. Secretary Lazelle stated that the Commercial Club was considering the most important question that it has considered.

BETHIAH CLASS HAS FINE ENTERTAINMENT

The Bethiah Class of the Methodist Church was entertained at the home of Miss Mabel Volkmar Thursday evening. Miss Volkmar was a delightful hostess. Games were played and vocal and instrumental selections were included in the entertainment.

Miss Maud Curtis, who is teacher of music in the Oregon City High School, rendered several sweet vocal selections. Light refreshments were served by the hostess. Among those who were present were: Mesdames W. E. Johnston, Malva Belle and Hazel Humphreys, Misses Anna Meyers, Wilman Myers, Anna White, Sadie Ford, Ivy Ford, Nettie Kruse, Minnie McDonald, Lillie Miller, Kathleen Harrison, Bertha Miller, Nellie Swafford, Maudie Curtis and Mabel Volkmar.

BIGGEST CABBAGE IS GROWN IN CLACKAMAS

It is believed that Clackamas County has broken the world's record for growing cabbage. A mammoth head of cabbage is on display in one of the windows of the Commercial Club's promotion office. The head of cabbage weighs twenty seven and one half pounds and was grown by George De Bok of Willamette, Mr. DeBok is one of the foremost gardeners of this section and grows many tons of cabbage every year, but says this one is the biggest he has ever grown.

M. J. Lazelle, who has charge of the promotion office at present, stated that undoubtedly this head of cabbage was the biggest ever grown in the northwest.

POULTRY MEN PLAN BIG SHOW HERE

S. S. Mohler, who attended the Poultry Show in Portland Friday, states that he interviewed the majority of the breeders and that many will exhibit at the Poultry Show which is to be held in this city January 3-4. Among those who will exhibit are some of the most prominent breeders of the state.

The Oregon Agricultural College has announced that it will send a representative of the Poultry Department of that institution to the Oregon City Show to demonstrate proper methods of handling poultry. The moving picture machines of the farmer's wife and what she did with her flock of hens will also be at the show in charge of one of the college professors. These pictures created a sensation at the State Fair and no doubt will be a great drawing card for the Poultry Show in the armory hall.

The interest manifested in this year's show is due to the great success of the show last year. The Commercial Club managed the exhibition last year and is adding this year but the direct management is in the hands of The Clackamas County Poultry Association and Dr. M. C. Strickland, Elmer Dixon, George Hall and W. A. Shevman, members of the executive board.

Household Tax is Held to be Valid

He said, under these conditions, there could be no adequate remedy of enforcing the provision against the 1912 assessment. Members of the State Board of Tax Commissioners believe the idea would be absurd to attempt to wipe out the assessment of 1912 and in addition it would be practically an impossibility. It was cited that County Clerk Fields of Multnomah County and pointed out the impossibility in connection with the rolls of that county. As a result, the board took the position that it would be to the best interests of the state to allow the assessment to stand. Should some household take exception to the ruling, it was pointed out, the saving on the exemption would be so small as hardly to warrant the expense of a suit.

If it happened it is in the Enterprise.

FOUR ARE HANGED; WEST OBDRATE

Three of the quartet confessed, but the fourth protested to the end his innocence. One attributed his fate to liquor; a second asserted he killed in self-defense and a third declared he was crazed.

The men who had been reprieved for periods running down from 14 months to four months, that the voters of the state might say whether they desired that capital punishment be perpetuated as the penalty for murder or whether life imprisonment should be substituted.

On November 5 the voters decided that capital punishment should continue.

Promptly at 11:32 o'clock the first pair of condemned men was ushered into the executing chamber. Frank S. Garrison was leading, followed by Noble Fauldner. Both walked firmly up the steps to the scaffold. Garrison walked forward, slightly leaning against the rail and gazed a moment at the crowd which half filled the chamber.

"Citizens of the State of Oregon," he said, "Here, standing on the brink of eternity, I swear that I am not guilty of the crime, of which I have been convicted. I was convicted on perjured evidence, on the perjured evidence of J. W. Carter, Archie Phillips and Mrs. Carl Sneaberg, of Marshfield. I have a statement prepared for the press. Asking one of the guards standing by to remove his statement from his pocket Garrison awaited the end.

Under existing conditions Corvallis is the head of navigation on the Willamette during favorable stages of the river, but considerable difficulty is experienced in reaching that destination as the best depth of water possible to maintain by dredging is but 2-2.2 feet. Above Corvallis the government at present finds it impracticable to go beyond keeping the river free from snags.

On six feet of water any river boats plying out of Portland could find smooth sailing up the river as far as Eugene.

COMMERCIAL CLUB IS TO HAVE FINE XMAS

The Commercial Club will have a Christmas tree of real proportions next Thursday evening. It will not only be a big tree but it will have many things on it. Every member of the club is not only supposed to give something to decorate the tree but is supposed to be lucky enough to receive something from the tree. The member who is neglected will be in a class by himself. But the Christmas tree will not hold full sway next Thursday evening. A fine program has been arranged, and after this is over a luncheon will be served. The Commercial Club always does things right as all the members and hundreds of guests know.

FIFTEEN I. W. W.'S SPEND NIGHT IN JAIL

Fifteen Portland I. W. W.'s ran amuck in Oregon City Friday and spent the night in the Oregon City jail. The men were speaking on the streets early without having obtained permits and were forced to go to side streets by the police. After the meetings at least fifteen remained in the city and finally sought shelter in a box car on the Southern Pacific tracks. They were forced to leave the car by Policemen Frost and Cooke and were locked up for the night.
