TWO OF GREATEST FOOTBALL GAMES

This Year's Penn-Michigan Battle Still Talked About.

OUAKERS' STIRRING FINISH

Won After Being Twenty-one Points Behind Yale-Princeton Contest of 1895 Belongs High Up In List of Notable Gridiron Classics.

Philadelphia football experts are of the opinion that the last Penn-Michigan battle was the "greatest football game ever played." It wasn't contended that the teams that played it were great teams, but that the confest itself was great, and no doubt it was. It contained all the elements of greatness, using the word in a certain sporting sense, and surely it was one of the most eventful of games. It was great in its excitement, its fine rallies, the spirit shown by the Quakers, Its action and its stirring finish. Moreover, in the fact that Penn won after being twenty-one points behind is just about unparalleled in football.

There are no doubt many opinions of what is the greatest game ever played. and it is a difficult matter to pin that description to any one game. Few, if any, have ever seen a game which was as great, if constant action, exciting ebb and flow of battle, uncertainty as to the finish and big things by teams and individuals make greatness, as the Yale-Princeton game of 1895 at Manbattan field, New York. It was a vortex of strenuous strife from beginning to end, with both teams doing a lot and with long runs, blocked kicks and touchdowns crowding hard on the heels of one another.

The score of that epic conflict was 20 to 10 in favor of Yale, and any time there's a game with both sides scoring

it's more interesting than when both sides don't. Yale made four touchdowns and Princeton two. Among other things which happened were: Bass, a Yale end, got the ball on a fumble on Yale's fifty yard line and ran sixty yards for the first touchdown. Yale was busy blocking kicks that autumn afternoon and blocked kicks always make the red blood leap. Charles Chadwick blocked three, on one of which Yale recovered the ball on Princeton's fifteen yard line, and Thorne - the incomparable Thorne, who was a Cov. a Brickler and a Thorpe in the battle-went over on the next play for a touchdown.

The score was 12 to 0 at the end of the first half, and it looked rosy for Yale, but in the second half the Tigers made a mighty brace and threw a scare into the Blue ranks before the struggle ended in the dark. With Bannard and Kelly bucking the lineand Princeton never has had a better back than Kelly-Princeton rushed the ball from the center of the field to Yale's ten yard line. Here Yale braced, took the leather on downs and Thorne ran a punt from Yale's fifty yard line to Princeton's fifteen. From there a touchdown was made. No goal was kicked and Yale had sixteen points to Princeton's none.

Then the Tiger awoke. Bannard and Kelly ripped into the Blue line and Princeton went sixty yards for a touchdown. A few minutes later a punt by Jerrems was blocked by Tyler, the Princeton tackle. The ball carromed back to Yale's line and in the wild scramble for it Thompson of Princeton nailed it for a touchdown. Yale now was only six points ahead, and it was anybody's game until just before the finish Thorne, with as thril-Hug a run as ever was seen. went forty-five yards for a touchdown on a faka kick Montenegro's Easy Going Prison. The central prison at Cetinje is probably the most easy going in the world. No walls surround it, and the inmates, who furnish their own cells just as they please, seem to stay there only because they find their quarters comfortable. The diet is liberal, with wine on occasions and always cigarettes. There is no work to do, no distinctive garb is worn and comparatively free intercourse is allowed with the outside world. On certain feast days, indeed, the prisoners are even allowed to entertain friends.

KOHLEMAINENS, RUNNERS,

ARE VEGETARIANS. Here's something about the two famous Kohlemainen brothers, Bill, the professional, and Hannes, the simon pure, that many followers of sports perhaps don't know-the pair are vegetarians.

Neither one has eaten any meat for more than four years. Bill got the venetable habit ? from Gusta Ljungstrom, the Swedish professional, who ran some sensational races here in 1908. Bill induced Hannes to become a vegetarian, and the pair are ardent devotees of the so called fad. When Martin Sheridan heard the Kohlemainens were vegetarians the great all around athlete chirped, "Begorra, I wonder how fast they could run if they ever had a square meal under their belts."

Joseph E. Raycroft of Princeton university succeeds R. B. Hyatt of Yale as president. The withdrawal of Hyatt is only temporary and due to the reorganization of sports at Yale. The newly elected president has devoted much time to college basketball, having been its leading exponent in the west prior to his leaving Chicago university and entering Princeton. The league rules have been simpli-fled for the coming year, and the game, in addition to being spectacular. will be better understood by the spectators. The one hand dribble will prevail this year, as last, with the idea of developing more team work and less individual play.

Dartmouth, which was admitted to the league last year, has been given a place on the executive committee, thereby entitling it to a full voice in the league.

The furnishing of officials by the lengue for all the games was so successful last year that it has been made permanent, and officials for this season's games will be selected by the excutive committee. The schedule fol-

BACON CLEVER QUARTERBACK

one of the very few high class quarters of the season, is a fine punter in addition to his other chains to gridiron greatness. He has outpunted everybody who has been stacked up against him. His long, spiral punts average, it is declared, over forty-five yards That's a cracking good average.

Just how good it is may be judged from a comparison with the punts of Felton of Harvard recently. Felton is rated about the best punter on the Atlantic seaboard, but good as his booting was against Princeton it didn't average forty-five yards. The averages were thirty-eight yards in the first half and forty-two in the second. An average of forty-five yards is great punting sure enough.
