COURTS ARE BLAMED FOR DYNAMITE PLOTS

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 18.—"Politicians standing between labor unions and the courts," were blamed for the McNamara dynamite plots at the outset of the Government's argument to the jury at the trial of the 40 accused "bomb plotters."

Pronouncing the series of explosions scattered over the country as a conspiracy, "more dastardly and more threatening to society than the crime of an individual," James W. Noel, special assistant district attorney, told the jurors they were called on to render verdicts in the most important trial in recent years.

"Organized crime has here appeared to an amazing degree," said Noel, "and it was carried on and it grew because locally the arm of the law failed. Had local authorities done their duty this conspiracy would not have spread, but it appears that politicians or obvious reasons stood between labor unions and criminals and the local courts."

"A strike of the Ironworkers was called. Plain assaults became murderous assaults; then, unchecked by the local courts and favored by politicians, the criminals grew bolder and fought with dynamite and nitroglycerin."

"The Los Angeles Times building was blown up with the murder of 21 persons. After that, reckless disregard of life became a wanton desire to take life."

"Of the 100 explosions that occurred in the United States, the Government has proved that 92 explosions were on the property of open shop contractors or firms which refused to recognize the International Association of Bridge & Structural Ironworkers."

NEW YORK TO HAVE MUSICAL NEW YEAR

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—The great crowds that have welcomed the New Year with the blaring of tin horns and other noise-making devices will find this year competitors in the form of organized bands of singers and musicians in the public squares along Broadway. In a public appeal, a committee headed by Dr. Lyman Abbott, and including District Attorney Whitman and Borough President McAneny, condemns New York's previous manner of celebration.

GEORGE YOUNG HAS BIBLE PRINTED 1672

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Young have a bible which was printed in 1672. The bible was published by the printers of the King of Scotland, John Bill and Christopher Barker. It was brought to this country from Scotland by the Drennen family, who are the grandparents of Mrs. Young. Mrs. Margaret Dodson, who was in Oregon City for a number of years prior to her death, had the bible in an old fashioned chest which is also in the possession of the Youngs.

THE NOSE A FILTER TO STRAIN THE AIR

CATARRH CLOGGED NOSTRILS A BREEDING PLACE FOR DEADLY GERMS

The nostrils are perfectly "air filters" and, when kept in clean, healthy state, strain every bit of air we breathe, catching all dust particles, foreign matter and germs. The air is full of germs. You can not dodge them, but you can safe-guard yourself against catarrh and other diseases contracted in the process of breathing by keeping the nostrils clean and healthy.

"Ely's Cream Balm not only wards off catarrh, but will quickly cure even a chronic, long-standing case of catarrh. It takes the trouble right where it starts, in the nose and throat, cleanses and strengthens the raw, sore inside skin, or membrane, and in this way drives out catarrh and makes you proof against this filthy, disgusting disease."

FORAKER SAYS HEARST PAID FOR LETTERS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Explanation of the circumstances in which he borrowed $50,000 from John D. Archbold, president of the Standard Oil Company, disclosed by the Standard Oil Company's correspondence published by William R. Hearst was given the senate campaign contributions investigating committee here by former Senator Joseph B. Foraker.

A feature of Foraker's testimony was the allegation that Hearst paid $34,000 for possession of the photographic copies of the Archbold letters. The publisher testified that he had secured the correspondence from John Eddy, now a resident of London, but he denied they represented an outlay of money. They were given to him, he said, when the Independence League was organized, Eddy hoping the publication of the correspondence would aid the new movement.

Bickel. dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of old age, for there are thousands of elderly people without a single streak of gray. When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully analyzed by experts. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color. Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all drug stores.
