TOOZE ARRANGES LECTURE COURSE

PROMINENT MEN HAVE BEEN ENGAGED TO SPEAK AT HIGH SCHOOL

PUBLIC IS INVITED TO BE PRESENT

Dr. C. H. Chapman, Famous Portland Editor, to Deliver Address Day After New Year's

A series of three addresses and entertainments has been arranged by F. J. Tooze, superintendent of city schools, and the state department of education, to be given in the High School assembly hall during the months of January and February next.

All these addresses are on live, vital and interesting subjects treated by speakers specially prepared to handle them in an entertaining and profitable manner. There will be music and other entertainment furnished by the High School in connection.

The following are the subjects and dates:

- (1) Thursday evening, January 2, —Community Life, by Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer, Oregonian.
- (2) Friday evening, January 24—Workings of Rights, by Hon. Eugene Brookings, Portland Oregon.
- (3) Friday evening, February 28—New View of Education, by Hon. A. F. Flegel, Portland, Oregon.

All of these addresses are free and everybody welcome. Among the purposes of these interesting entertainments are: To interest the public in the study and consideration of subjects that are of vital interest to every citizen of the community in the daily walks of practical life; to furnish evenings of entertainment that shall offer opportunity to come together for intellectual improvement and at the same time relaxation from the routine of daily tasks; to become better acquainted with the schools in their daily aims, tasks and accomplishments for community and state.

Among the opportunities of the schools and other means of education there is the larger use of school buildings for social as well as intellectual purposes. There is need of a better understanding of the work being done in education and hence interest in the development of a high standard of citizenship and the welfare of community life. From these meetings there should be derived pleasure and inspiration for genuine progress through educational, industrial and social plan and effort.

In order that the public may see the practical work of the schools, regular classes in manual training and cooking or sewing will be in operation between 7 and 9 o'clock in the evening just preceding the respective addresses.

However, the referee announced that Mr. Fairclough was a better checker player than he was a bout artist.

E. C. Dye, representing his father, Colonel C. H. Dye, took a sour present home. It was a bunch of lemons sent him by "Mrs. Kate L. Newton," Mrs. Newton was recently a candidate for mayor, Colonel Dye having circulated a petition in her interest.

Eber A. Chapman and Ray O. Young were recipients of musical instruments. They appreciated them so much that they immediately organized a "Little German Band" and rendered several selections.

E. P. Carter, a billiard shark, received a miniature billiard table. Lily Stipp, Grant B. Dimick, F. W. Swift, R. L. Holman, T. J. Myers, John Fairclough, O. D. Eby, Linn E. Jones, and in fact all the members of the club received appropriate presents. One man received a bottle of hair tonic. Guess who he is?

It would be unfair to close this story without expatiating upon the excellence of the work done by Mr. McBain, who escorted the men who received presents to the place which was the cynosure of ayy eyes, and Mr. Hedges, who was the greatest Santa Claus Oregon City has ever known. Each of them knew just what to do and did it at the psychological moment.

Mr. Latourette, when presented the ring by Mr. McBain, blushed, appeared a little confused, and then made one of the finest speeches of thanks that has ever been heard in the Commercial Club rooms. There was not a man present who did not applaud when he finished for it is a fact that Mr. Latourette has given as much of his time and done as much work for the club as any man connected with it.

After the awarding of presents there were musical selections, vaudeville stunts and boxing contests. Nobody was hurt. The buffet luncheon and the stuff furnished to wash it down were good.

WOMEN COOK MEAL ON "HIKE" TO NEW ERA

Miss Gertrude Fairclough and Mrs. Godfrey had an interesting trip to New Era and back Thursday. They walked, and, incidentally, cooked their dinner on the way. They started from Oregon City at 9 o'clock in the morning, taking with them a big beefsteak and a peck of potatoes. Long before reaching New Era they became hungry, and—guess what they did? They built a fire, stuck three sticks in the earth about the blaze, cooked the beefsteak and potatoes, had a fine dinner and continued their journey feeling fine. Miss Fairclough said Thursday evening that she and Miss Godfrey would make the trip by foot to New Era again in a few days.

MOOSE LODGE PLANS ADDITION TO HOME

At a meeting of the Oregon City Lodge No. 961, Loyal Order of Moose, it was decided that the lodge rooms would be open Christmas day. The early intention of the lodge was to have an entertainment on that day and evening, but as the work on the new club rooms is progressing rapidly, it has been planned to hold an entertainment as soon as the work is completed.

At first it was thought that the club would not use any of the old building for the club rooms, but it was decided to remodel the building. Billiard, pool and writing tables will be installed in the new addition.

MODEL ROAD MEASURE IS TO BE PREPARED

Road legislation will be discussed this evening at a meeting of the members of the senate and legislature representing this county and a committee named by the Commercial Club. The Commercial Club committee is composed of E. T. McBain, M. D. Latourette and E. E. Brodie, Gustav Schnoerr and F. M. Gill are the representatives in the legislature and W. A. Dimick, the state senator, who will be in the conference. The plan is to agree upon a road measure to be offered at the next session of the legislature which will be the most advantageous to all the people of the state. All proposed measures will be discussed at the meeting this evening.

COMMERCIAL CLUB GETS PLAYER PIANO

A $700 Eilers' Pungalow Player piano was delivered to the rooms of the Commercial Club Thursday morning. The Eilers Piano Company, being boosters of the highest order, sold the piano to the club at a low cost. Knowing the good work the Commercial Club is doing and wanting to aid in it, the company cheerfully agreed to the proposition of the Commercial Club committee. The instrument is one of the best to be had.

MRS. PORTER HOSTESS OF BRIDGE CLUB

The Auction Bridge Club met at the residence of Mrs. L. L. Porter, West Oregon City, and enjoyed one of the most successful meetings of the season. There were present Mesdames H. E. Mount, E. Rands, L. Morris, L. L. Pickens, O. W. Eastham, E. Chapman, R. McAlpin, Theodore Osmund, C. G. Huntley, Nieta Barlow Lawrence, John Lewthwaite, W. A. Shewman, C. H. Meisner, W. R. Logans, and W. S. U'Ren. The grand prize was won by Mrs. Rands.

HUSBAND SULLEN, IS WIFE'S DIVORCE PLEA

Alleging that her husband has been cruel in that he has been sullen when in her presence, Flora Thompson Enders filed suit Thursday for a divorce from Arthur E. Enders. They were married in San Francisco February 1, 1910. The plaintiff avers that her husband for weeks at a time paid little attention to her and August 22, 1911, abandoned her. Rachel Ames seeks a divorce from Bert Ames. They were married March 13, 1907. The plaintiff says she was abandoned July 3, 1909. She asks the custody of their child, Robert Green. They were married January 8, 1904. Infidelity is charged.
