THE BUTTER

The telegraph dispatches have been full of the Butter Trust investigation these last few days, and general satisfaction is being everywhere expressed that the Elgin coterie has at least been called to account. As a matter of fact, the consumer is robbed far more than is the producer, and if the producer will only exercise a little intelligence, and co-operate with his neighbors more, he can easily get the honest value for the stuff he raises, and at the same time give the consumer the benefit he is entitled to.

WASHINGTON

The Oregon rancher might do worse than keep tabs on what his Washington neighbor is doing. The Aberdeen World tells of five carloads of fine young cattle, mostly heifers, shipped in from Montana to be turned into the logged-off land section of the Washkah Valley, for the purpose of stock raising. It is the first large experiment to be tried in Chehalis County, but as the winter forage is practically sufficient to carry the Heart to Heart Talks. BY EDWIN A. NYE.

TEMPTATION.

Martin Luther threw his inkstand at the devil. He believed in a personal Satan who could materialize himself, and when he thought he saw his Satanic majesty he went after him with the first weapon at hand. We laugh—but—Have you ever thought how much easier it would be to resist temptation if one could believe in a personal devil?

You fight an unseen foe. If you could get Lucifer backed up against the wall when he comes to tempt you and he could not retreat you could have it out with him. But—He is a smooth citizen. He wears a myriad disguises. He may make a rear or a flank attack or get you into a corner and compel you to hold up your hands, or he may take the shape of the Lorelei and enchant you with a lure that will put your boat upon the rocks. He has his Calypso Islands as well as his incarnated devils who bludgeon—only you do not recognize them as such.

Revival of Braid. The revival of braid is a great factor in the evolution of this year's frocks. Not only does it add a desirable note of solidity and smartness on essential to winter clothes, but, further, it is strongly suggestive of hard wearing properties. Braid again—in very fine, silky makes is admirable as a trimming for the union bodice of the three piece costume.

Woman's Desire For Independence Responsible For Our Many Divorces

By FELIX ADLER, Educator

HERE are so many homes in this country that the one hundred thousand divorces in a year DO NOT MEAN THAT THE HOME IS BEING DISRUPTED.

I do not believe either that the divorces are the result of immorality, for in Bavaria, where there are no divorces, there is much immorality.

IT IS A CERTAIN STATE OF MIND WHICH IS THE CAUSE OF THE INCREASE OF DIVORCE, AND IT IS VERY LARGELY DUE TO THE DESIRE OF WOMEN TO THROW OFF ALL YOKES AND ASSERT THEIR INDEPENDENCE. IT IS THIS WHICH MAKES MANY WOMEN DESIRE AN EXPERIMENTAL OR TRIAL MARRIAGE.

Young people, influenced by current literature, learn to think of life less seriously than they should.

Married life is a triangle—the husband and wife and the children—but the father and mother are too apt to ask whether they can agree to live together INSTEAD OF CONSIDERING WHAT THEIR DUTY IS TO THEIR OFFSPRING. They separate and leave their children to the care of the state.

Albert T. Patrick, Sing Sing's Famous Prisoner, Now Free Man

Copyright, 1912, by American Press Association.

WITH a quiet smile of triumph Albert T. Patrick, pardoned from life imprisonment for the murder of William M. Rice, willingly posed for this striking picture the day after his release from Sing Sing. He was sitting in the office of his counsel, W. M. K. Olcott, in New York, where he had gone to consult regarding his future plans. Patrick, whose fight for life and liberty, extending over ten years, made him Sing Sing's most famous prisoner, showed no ill effects of his worry and confinement. He looked robust and said he felt as fine as a fiddle.

EASY AND SURE WAY TO CURE COLDS Wants, For Sale, Etc. DON'T NEGLECT A COLD. ELY'S CREAM BALM WILL STOP IT IN THE SNEEZING STAGE. A cold generally attacks the weakest part, affecting the eyes and ears in some and producing nasal catarrh and throat trouble in others. A cold is due to an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and may be promptly cured with a little Ely's Cream Balm, which immediately relieves the inflammation and all the distressing symptoms, such as sneezing, coughing, running at the nose and eyes, hoarseness, sore throat, fever, and headache. One reason why this pure, antiseptic Balm acts so quickly is because it is applied directly to the tender, sore surfaces. Even in severe, chronic cases of catarrh, Ely's Cream Balm never fails to quickly and effectually check the poisonous discharge which clogs the head and throat, causing the disgusting hacking, spitting and blowing of the nose. This remedy not only drives out the disease, but heals and strengthens the weakened membranes, thus ending catarrh. Catarrh is a filthy, disgusting disease. Don't put up with it. Get a 50 cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and see how quickly you will be relieved. It is perfectly harmless.
