

MADE IN OREGON

Have you made yourself familiar with the names of Oregon's leading manufacturers who are represented on this page? It is your duty to patronize them whenever possible. Ask for their goods and insist on getting them. If your dealer does not keep them, see that he gets a supply for you at least and in this way help gain recognition for the home product. It is such firms as these that are making Oregon a great industrial state and a better place for you to live in and do business. Every dollar you spend which goes to build up an Oregon industry puts money in your pocket. The firms represented on this page should be given preference whenever possible as it is through their efforts and assistance that the campaign for home industries has been successfully carried on.
