Miss Nell Derby, one of the most efficient employees of the office, has resigned. She will become a bride in a few weeks. Mr. Dedman said Thursday that he had made a thorough investigation of the work of the office and found that the present force was the best to be obtained. Miss Buchegger, the new employee, formerly worked in the recorder's office, and is regarded as one of the fastest typists in the state.

PROPERTY OWNERS WIN STREET FIGHT

Circuit Judge Campbell Thursday decided in favor of the plaintiffs in the case of Mrs. M. Griffith and Mrs. Harry Harding. They sued for an injunction against the city to prevent the assessment of their property on north Main Street for street improvement. The street is being improved with hard surface pavement and the plaintiffs, through their attorney, C. D. Lorette, contended that the preliminary arrangements for the work was not regular. The court so held and granted an injunction against the city collecting the money. It is probable that another assessment will be made. In the meanwhile the Montague-O'Reilly Company, which has the contract for improving the street, will continue the work.

MRS. LOGUS FIRST TO USE PARCELS POST

Mrs. William R. Logus was the first person in Oregon City to take advantage of the parcels post law. She mailed an automobile appliance to a factory in Wisconsin Wednesday morning. The cost was 18 cents less than it would have been had the fourth class mail been used. G. W. H. Miller was the first person in Oregon City to receive a package sent by parcels post. It was a sack of flour which weighed 11 pounds and came from Albany which is within the 150 mile zone. The postage was 46 cents.

The Derthick Club met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Dimick Tuesday evening. The decorations, which were of new year's bells, were arranged by the club and the refreshments were served by the club. The club always has charge of the decorations and serves refreshments. The attendance was large and everybody had a delightful time. Miss Marion Money and L. Adams won the prizes in the guessing contest.

BARLOW'S OFFICIAL FAMILY IN TOWN

Barlow's official family visitor Oregon City New Year's day, Barlow is unique in that the municipal government is largely vested in the members of one family, so that nothing more serious than a family tiff ever breaks the calm of Barlow's official life. W. S. Tull, the head of the family is mayor of Barlow; Mrs. Tull, his wife, is councilwoman; C. G. Tull, his son, is councilman and W. B. Tull, another son, is treasurer. So that there shall be no likelihood of criticism James Erickson is also a councilman, and Bill Bowers, city recorder. The mayor says his councilwoman has some pretty clearly defined policies, but that he controls a majority of the council, and feels reasonably secure. More than that he did not think it part of either political or domestic wisdom to make public. Mayor Tull is a wary politician.

CLUB WANTS ROAD BOUNDARIES CHANGED

The West Side Improvement Club at a meeting Thursday evening at Bolton, decided to petition the county court to change the boundaries of road district No. 24. The resignation of C. F. Anderson as secretary was received and J. Nicols was elected to serve the remainder of the term. A committee was appointed to urge the Portland Eugene & Eastern Railway Company to provide a five cent fare from Bolton to Willamette. The charge now is ten cents. John W. Loder made an interesting address upon "Owning of a home as differentiation from a commercial proposition." The address was interesting and Mr. Loder was given much applause. Other speakers were T. J. Gary, county school superintendent, Professor Thompson and G. L. Snidow.

SUPERVISOR ACCUSED OF NOT DOING DUTY

Several tax payers of road district No. 24, Needy, appeared before the County Court Thursday morning complaining that Supervisor C. T. Miller of their road district had been derelict in his duty in that he had not worked his men for the number of hours set down against their names in his reports. The County Court decided to give the case a hearing next Wednesday. Supervisor Miller insists that he will have no trouble in proving the falsity of the charges, and adds that the two men who have registered the complaint are not landowners, and do not pay land taxes.

HOLMAN, JOKE VICTIM, WILL DO HIS DUTY

Linn E. Jones, the new mayor, played a grim joke on R. L. Holman, member of the council for several years. Mr. Holman and T. J. Myers are the owners of the only undertaking establishment in the city. The joke was the appointment of the undertaker chairman of the cemetery committee. There was a ripple of laughter when the announcement was made, and Mr. Holman, who probably more than any other resident of the city has been in beautifying and enlarging Mountain View Cemetery, which is owned by the city, accepted the joke at his expense with good grace.

SHAW ENLARGES ON HIS HUMANE SCHEME

Chief of Police Shaw, who became of national importance when the press of the country told of his unique plan for saving lost dogs by selling them at auction, is out with another bid for fame. This time he wants a combination dogcatcher, pound-keeper, and friend of animals, to be known as Pound Master. There isn't much money in the job but a whole lot of glory, and the certain satisfaction of a duty well done, providing the pound master to be is a man of that kind. The lucky man will have a house and two lots upon which he may raise his vegetables and fruits, together with whatever is paid on account of the pound for impounded animals and their keep. For impounding a horse or a cow, $2 will be earned and fifty cents a day thereafter for feeding. Sheep will only net ten cents for impounding and ten cents a day for feeding. Dogs are to be charged for at the rate of ten cents a day for feeding, and $1 for impounding. The pound-master must be a natural lover of animals. For such a man, this might prove a good job.

RUFUS ARMSTRONG DEAD.

Rufus Armstrong, 20 years of age, died late Tuesday night at the home of his cousin, John Armstrong, who conducts a confectionery store at the corner of Ninth and Main Streets. The body has been sent to Ritchey, Mo., the place of the birth of the deceased. Mr. Armstrong came here about three months ago and obtained employment at the Willamette Pulp & Paper Mills. He is survived by four brothers and one sister.

THE BATTLE OF LIFE.

In God's eyes the differences of social position, of intellect, of dress, which different men exhibit and all the other vanities on which they so fantastically pin their pride, must be so small as practically to vanish, and all that should remain is the common fact that here we are, a countless multitude of vessels of life, each of us pent in to peculiar difficulties, with which we must severally struggle by using whatever of fortitude and goodness we can summon up. —William James.

THE NOSE A FILTER TO STRAIN THE AIR

CATARH CLOGGED NOSTRILS A BREEDING PLACE FOR DEADLY GERMS

The nostrils are perfectly "air filters" and, when kept in clean, healthy state, strain every bit of air we breathe, catching all dust particles, foreign matter and germs. The air is full of germs. You can not dodge them, but you can safe-guard yourself against catarrh and other diseases contracted in the process of breathing by keeping the nostrils clean and healthy. Catarrh germs will sometimes get in their work, and you may mistake the symptoms for an ordinary cold.

Don't take any chances. If you have a stuffed up feeling in the head or if your throat is sore or filled with phlegm, just grease the nostrils with a little Ely's Cream Balm, draw the pure, aromatic fumes back in the head, and you will be astonished at the effect. In a few minutes you will feel a loosening up in the head, the nasty discharge will soon be stopped, the soreness gone, and you will feel a sense of genuine relief.

Ely's Cream Balm not only wards off catarrh, but will quickly cure even a chronic, longstanding case of catarrh. It takes the trouble right where it starts, in the nose and throat, cleanses heels and strengthens the raw, sore inside skin, or membrane, and in this way drives out catarrh and makes you proof against this filthy, disgusting disease.

Colds which often hang on for weeks can be quickly cured with cleansing, healing, antiseptic balm. All duggists sell it for fifty cents a bottle, and the one bottle is generally all that is needed to effect a complete cure. Try it today.
