A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION

For a few days there was quite an excitement raised throughout the civilized world by the news from Berlin, Germany, that a serum had been developed by a Doctor Friedman of Berlin, which would cure consumption. Were this to prove true, it would be the greatest boon to mankind that providence has ever vouchsafed. Medical papers, both European and American, however, seem to be a unit in believing the so-called discovery to be but one more of those scientific mirages which chase every research worker.

UNCLE SAM'S FREE BOOKS

It is not as well known in the West as it is throughout the middle West and East, that Uncle Sam is the publisher of some very valuable and excellent books on the various topics connected with the farm. In particular there are two books, "Diseases of the Horse" and "Diseases of Cattle," which every rancher should have by him. Asking for copies of these works is not begging, for they are paid for by the taxpayers, and are issued for the benefit of the people as a whole. Furthermore, how many citizens avail themselves of the Congressional Record? Yet it is their's for the asking and notwithstanding the drivel that a complaisant Congress permits, there is nothing regarding the sessions of Congress that is not printed.

FEDERAL AID FOR GOOD ROADS

The last post office appropriation bill allows $25,000 for the expenses of a joint committee to make inquiry into the subject of federal aid in the construction of Post Roads. The same bill also appropriates $500,000, to be expended in experimental improvement of roads throughout the country.

This is a hopeful sign, for while Uncle Sam may be slow about making up his mind to do a thing, yet he is very thorough when he finally sets about doing it. This money is to be expended on such roads as may be now used for rural delivery purposes, or intended for such.

Congress provided that improvements made under this experiment should be to ascertain the following: 1. The increase in the territory which could be served by each carrier as a result of such improvement. 2. The possible increase in the number of delivery days in each year. 3. The amount required in excess of local expenditures for the proper maintenance of such roads. 4. The relative saving to the Government in the operation of the rural delivery service and to the local inhabitants in the transportation of their products by reason of such improvement.

The officials charged with the execution of the law have already bestirred themselves. Tentative plans have been made to distribute the money equally among the states. Each state will receive about $10,000 if these tentative plans are followed. The law provides that the state or local subdivision in which the improvement is made under the half-million appropriation shall furnish double the money furnished by the Federal Government. In other words, if the states respond as they are expected to, $1,500,000 will be the ac-

BLAND ACRE TRACTS

Buy a home in Bland Acres 10 per cent down and 2 per cent per month, price $126.00 to $180.00 per acre. After Jan. 15 these prices will be $140.00 to $200.00 per acre.

We have absolute assurance that the Southern Pacific will be built past this tract. They are now doing their preliminary work and at present are clearing the right of way for this line.

total available for road improvement. The Secretary of Agriculture and the Postmaster-General are directed to report results of their operations within one year.

Doubtless it will take more than a year to carry out the experiments in all details. But Congress wants a report in a year for the simple reason that it strongly inclines to liberal appropriations for road purposes. This means Congress feels that public sentiment will not tolerate much longer delay.

FORUM OF THE PEOPLE

WATER SOURCE SUGGESTED.

OREGON CITY, Jan. 3.—(Editor of the Enterprise.)—I notice in the discussion of the water problem that the nearest and best source of water is the best source of a pure supply has been overlooked. I refer to the springs at Willamette. I have been informed by a hydraulic engineer connected with the West Side division of the S. P. R. R. that these springs really are artesian wells which could be developed to many times their present capacity.

In talking with Mr. J. E. Downey, the man who operates the Willamette Water Works, I learned that he is pumping water to the town of Willamette at the rate of 115,000 gallons a day and he said that he never pumped at more than half speed on account of the size of the pipes. Of course Willamette does not use 115,000 gallons of water a day but if that amount were needed it could be supplied by pumping 24 hours per day.

I think Oregon City will make a great mistake if they do not investigate this supply before going 9 miles to the Bull Run.

The Creation. Gen. 1:1-1:3. Golden Text—In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Gen. 1:1.

(1) Verses 1-2—What certain evidence have we, other than the Bible, that the world had a beginning? (2) Granted that the world had a beginning, what can you say for its origin other than it must have had an intelligent creator? (This may be one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.) (3) What is the evidence that the earth is of the nature of a growth or a development from one stage to another? (4) After the earth was once organized in a crude form did God complete it by direct acts or was it developed from its own, God-created, inherent laws?
