

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR

RESTORE FADED AND GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR—DAND-RUFF QUICKLY REMOVED

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the use of a simple "Sage Tea."

Roman Senators. The Roman senate was a judicial and legislative body and for several centuries numbered 300 men, carefully selected from the patricians.

BOOKS.

A little library, growing larger every year, is an honorable part of a man's history. It is a man's duty to have books.

CORRESPONDENCE

BARLOW.

Carey Ramsby, an old resident of this place and who now resides at Klamath Falls and who is State Game Warden of Klamath County was calling on old friends here Sunday.

School closed December 23 for the holiday vacation and will open Jan. 2. The teachers, Miss Chinn and Miss Ross, are spending their vacation at their homes.

Mrs. Goerth and son, Walter, visited Mrs. Goerth's son, Fred Snyder and wife at Hubbard Sunday.

The teachers and pupils gave an interesting entertainment Monday evening in the hall, which was largely attended by parents and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace have gone to Oregon City. Miss Joyce Withey, of Portland, was visiting Miss Cora Berg Sunday of last week.

Mrs. C. G. Tull received a new piano for Christmas, presented by her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Toogood and son, or Basset, Neb., were visiting Mrs. Andrus last week. Mrs. Toogood is a niece of Mrs. Andrus.

Miss Nellie Johnson, of Glendale, is home for a visit during the holidays.

Mrs. Simpkins and daughter, Dolly, of Astor, were visiting Mrs. Nurfel Saturday.

Will Bauer went to Oregon City Saturday to see his wife and little son. They are getting along nicely but little Donald has been very sick.

Miss Clara Larson, of Portland, is home on a visit.

Mrs. Tallman and mother went to Salem to spend Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Holte, of Portland are visiting Mrs. Hott's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

NEEDY. Rain! Rain! we hope the new year will bring a change in the weather we are having now.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers were in Canby Tuesday. Jesse Mitts, who spent Christmas with Southern Oregon friends, returned home Monday.

High Jackson and sons, Will and Ben, are getting out telephone poles, which seems to indicate they will soon have a phone.

Mrs. J. E. Mitts is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Miller, of Molalla. Mrs. Miller is the proud possessor of a fine eight pound boy, born December 26th.

David Westberg and family, who have been attending convention at Boring, returned home the forepart of the week.

Lewis Mitts visited his sister, Mrs. F. A. Hilton, Sunday. Mrs. Stuckey, who has been ill for some time, is now able to be up part of the time.

The program and Christmas tree, given by the pupils of Miss Lillian Mitts, teacher of the Bear Creek school, Christmas eve, was enjoyed by a large crowd. The tree was loaded with presents for all, both large and small.

School closed Tuesday, Dec. 24th, to open Monday, Jan. 6th. Following is the program: Song, "Holy Night," by the school; recitation, "Opening Address," by Melissa Kyniston; recitation, "When Pa Shaves," Earl Sturve; recitation, "A Mortifying Mistake," Ruth Moshberger; recitation, "Not So Easy," Cecil Lantz; recitation, "The Lost Doll," Ida Kyniston; recitation, "A City Boy's Discoveries," Eldo Miller; song, "You Mustn't Pick Plums From My Plum Tree," Pearl Miller and Clinton Christner; recitation, "Be Cheerful," May Kyniston; recitation, "What I would Be," Six little boys; recitation, "Our Christmas," Pearl Miller; song, "Just for a Girl," Lewis Mitts; recitation, "Their Wishes," Emma Sturve and Earl Christner; recitation, "What's the Use," Charlie Lantz; recitation, "Anybody's Business," Bessie Oswald; recitation, "Santa Claus," Leo Lantz; dialogue, "The New Boy," six characters; recitation and tableau, "Nobody's Child," Inez Christner; song, "Silver Bell," mixed voices; recitation, "Money in de Business," Guy Lantz; recitation, "Little Blossom," Pearl Miller; recitation, "Sister's Best Feller," Clinton Christner; stump speech, "Christmas," Winnie Lantz; recitation, "Betty and the Bear," Bessie Oswald; song, "Oceana Roll," Lewis Mitts; dialogue, "The Assessor," six characters; tableau, "Good Night and Home Sweet Home," recitation, "A Closing Address," Winnie Lantz.

MARQUAM. Several applications are out for road supervisor in our district. It's one of the wonders that some of the women have not gotten out a petition for road boss—it is not too late yet.

The young people who have been at home during the holidays have returned. Miss Blanch Harman returned to Silverton High School, Miss Myrtle Albright to Mt. Angel, Miss Echo Larling to Oregon City High school and Miss Doidor to Cottage Grove.

The small pox scare at Scotts Mills is quieting down. It's in a mild form. No new cases reported. They have those affected quarantined.

The late heavy rains have stopped work generally and the roads are quite bad. Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Larkins, of Stafford, were here Christmas and made themselves useful helping in the program of the Christmas exercises.

John Jerg and wife are improving slowly from the typhoid fever. The Marine band is to have a basket social in January. Miss Bertha Miller and her sister, Vesta, are to take charge of the telephone office the first of the new year.

Harry Hibbard and wife leave this week for Molalla to take charge of the telephone office there. The young people had a pleasant time in the hall Saturday night and a large crowd attended. Mr. Lem is to install electric lights in our town soon.

GLAD TIDINGS. Quite a large crowd attended the Christmas tree at Marquam on the eve of Dec. 24 despite the bad weather. The pieces spoken by the children were appropriate for the occasion and Santa Claus was well represented by Dave Franklin, assisted by Mrs. Lydia Usher. The room was kept warm and comfortable and for a few hours one would forget the bleak winds and cold that we would meet when the exercises closed, and we would start for our separate homes.

Rev. Childs spent Christmas with his family, who live in the vicinity of Boring. Mrs. Ellis Ridings is spending Christmas with her parents who live near Estacada. Enoch Skirvin went to Portland to spend the holidays with relatives.

Write Ideas For Moving Picture Plays!

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25.00 OR MORE WEEKLY We Will Show You How

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever-increasing demand. They are offering $100 and more, for single scenarios, or written ideas.

We have received many letters from the film manufacturers, such as VITAGRAPH, EDISON, ESSANAY, LUBIN, SOLAX, IMP, REX, RELIANCE, CHAMPION, GOMET, MELIES, ETC., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication." Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure, YOU WILL EARN $100 MONTHLY FOR SPARE TIME WORK. SEND YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS AT ONCE FOR FREE COPY OF OUR ILLUSTRATED BOOK, "MOVING PICTURE PLAYWRITING."

Don't hesitate. Don't argue. Write now and learn just what this new profession may mean for you and your future. NATIONAL AUTHORS' INSTITUTE 1543 Broadway NEW YORK CITY

Christmas tree at Marquam. They will visit Mrs. Hibbard's father, Rev. C. A. Stockwell and return home Thursday.

D. A. Bentley and wife stayed Christmas night with Mr. and Mrs. Schumaker. George Newsome remained Christmas night with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Seaman, where he partook of a fine Christmas breakfast, returning home at 10 a. m. sharp, for he knew there awaited him at home a dinner that the little wife sets before him not oftener than once a year, for really it would not be advisable nor safe to do otherwise.

So the Christmas of 1912 is a thing of the past, and a new year is here. So let us turn a new leaf, pin it down, and aim to do better than we have done during the closing year.

DAMASCUS AND ROCK CREEK. The rainy season has evidently set in for good. The farmers who have not finished their plowing are now wishing they had taken advantage of the past good weather.

Christmas week has passed and the New Year is upon us. People in this vicinity all enjoyed Xmas trees and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dalles and son, Leslie, spent Xmas with their daughter, Mrs. Orren Hatton, of Stone.

The Sunday School at Rock Creek has been lightly attended of late on account of the bad weather. There was a special road meeting at Damascus Saturday, Dec. 28. A special tax of ten mills was voted. The north and south road between Newell's corner and Sycamore had one-fourth. The Damascus and Portland road received one-fourth, the Devil's Cut-off road one-sixth, and the Damascus-Oregon City road received one-sixth. It is every citizen's duty to boost for good roads, as there are many roads in Clackamas county that are almost impassible. The meeting went off very quietly. There being four ladies present to keep peace.

Mrs. Robt. Robertson and children, of Boring, visited her sister, Mrs. Nathan Rawley Christmas week. Mrs. Rawley accompanied her sister to her home at Fairview to attend the opening dance at the new hall at Fairview.

Singing in the neighborhood was postponed last week on account of the rainy weather. It will be held at Mrs. Walter Smith's Friday evening. Everybody is invited to attend.

Miss Ruth Young spent Christmas week at her home. She is teaching school near Bull Run. Damascus Grange, No. 260, held its regular meeting in December, the first Saturday. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Master, Roy White; Overseer, J. D. Chitwood; Chaplain, Mrs. Emma Chitwood; Lecturer, Emma Chitwood; Secretary, Mrs. Marion Dalles; Steward, Henry Mellien; Assistant Steward, Roy Kerr; Gatekeeper, Frank Mellien; Lady Assistant Steward, Mrs. E. Newell; Pomona, Annette G. Newell; Ceres, Mrs. Burr; Flora, Mrs. Walter Hall. The next meeting will be the first Saturday in January, when the public installation will be held. The patrons of the grange extend a cordial welcome to those who don't belong to inspect the work of the grange. Bring your dinner and stay all day.

Farrels Post commences January first. Thanks to the grange. Pomona will meet with the Oswego Grange January 8.

EAGLE CREEK. Quite a number of Mr. and Mrs. Howlett's relatives gathered at their home on Christmas day, partook of a fine dinner and spent a pleasant day together. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodie, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodie, Claude Malcolm, Joey and Roy Woodie and the Misses Mary Nettie, Dorothy, Olive and Tressa Woodie and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Douglass entertained Ed Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass and children at dinner on Christmas day. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister purchased a graphophone recently for the children. Dick Gibson butchered three hogs last Friday, selling two of them to the builder of the new Eagle Creek station. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass returned home last Thursday evening from Shubel. Wm. Stubbe was the guest of H. S. Gibson over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Sherd Jones attended the dance at Eagle Creek Christmas night. A. G. Dix, who lives near Portland, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Howlett a few days last week. Mrs. W. F. Douglass went to Estacada last Saturday. H. S. Gibson made a trip to Portland last week. Mrs. H. G. Huntington went to Portland last week to spend the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy. At the road meeting called by the tax payers of Road District No. 43 at Eagle Creek, Saturday, December 23, to levy an additional road tax. The tax of 5 mills on first ballot was a tie, 22 for and 22 against. Then, on the second ballot it was lost by a vote of 25 to 22. The upper or eastern part of the district was in favor of a tax, but most of the voters in the vicinity of Eagle Creek were against it, preferring the mud instead of good roads. No vote was taken on super-county court would not take the vote visor, as it was understood that the under consideration unless an additional tax was voted.
