Eight Bodies Washed Ashore at North Beach and Five Identified—One That of Quartermaster

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 8.—The violent gale that drove the Rosecrans on Peacock Spit early yesterday morning and sent 30 men to their death, continued with such fury today that it was impossible to take the Point Adams' crew and the two rescued men from the lightship.

With his arm probably broken, Captain Wicklund and his life-saving crew are still aboard the lightship with the two rescued men. One of the rescued Rosecrans' crew is Eric Lindmark, a carpenter, and the other is not known. The officer who perished after the rescue lies in the stern of the lifeboat.

Captain Astrup, superintendent of the Port of Portland's towboat service, who was on the Ononeta in the wild search for the disabled life crew before it reached the lightship, has returned on the St. Kilda and has given the first graphic account of the fury of the storm while the life crew was battling with the waves before gaining the Columbia River lightship.

Eight bodies of the wreck victims are reported washed ashore at North Beach and five are identified as:

Captain L. F. Johnson, H. D. Cross, Cook, A. McDonald, messman, Hans Tonda, second officer, Fred Peters says he recognizes one of the bodies as George Nelson, quartermaster.

List of Patrons of Big Issue Grows Daily as Firms Realize Its Advertising Merit

Speaking of the last Annual issue of the Enterprise the Portland Evening Telegram of January 14, 1912, said "The Anniversary number Vol. 3, No. 1, of the Morning Enterprise of Oregon City, just from the press, is one of the neatest and highest class Annual Editions of any newspaper in the state, and carries the story of the great resources of its special field in a way to reflect credit on the publishers as well as on the field—Clackamas County. The issue is in magazine form and printed on a high quality of book paper enclosed in an embossed cover and the articles are all richly illustrated with half tones. Every department of activity of the community the Enterprise serves is covered by special writers. The business houses of Oregon City as well as the smaller towns in the county and pictures of leading business houses, churches, schools, beautiful farms, herds of fine stock of all kinds, make it one of the best mediums of publicity for Clackamas County yet issued.

"It should and doubtless will have the effect of bringing to that county as a direct result, many new home-seekers of the best class who are looking for an ideal spot in which to establish new homes."

The last Annual was not only a good medium of community publicity but a good medium of direct local publicity for the man or firm who has something to sell. The forthcoming Annual will be a still better medium because it has been advertised more and the people of Clackamas County are looking forward to its publication.

The list of patrons of the big issue is growing day by day as the solicitor can see the people.

FILTERS AND RESERVOIR CLEAN, SAYS TOOZE

F. J. Tooze, in his report, regarding the Oregon City water system, at a meeting of the Live Wires Tuesday evening, said that the filters and reservoir had been found to be in excellent condition. He declared that they were much cleaner than it was supposed, with the exception of what would be considered ordinary precaution, they would be.

ENTERPRISE HAS NEW CONTEST OFFER

The extra special announcement of the Enterprise is of utmost importance to every entrant in the race for the $1800 big black touring car. It is doubtful if ever again will such an opportunity present itself, for a contestant who is willing to do a little work, to raise his standing one, two or even three hundred thousand votes. The offer of 10,000 bonus votes for each yearly subscription to the Daily Enterprise is this paper's best way to show its appreciation of the work the different ones in the race are now doing to win the handsome fore-door car. However, this offer is good only one day, next Saturday, January 11th, and all subscriptions must be handed in at the Enterprise office between 10 A. M. and 5 P. M. that day. Liberal awards will be given for renewal of subscriptions, so the work will be easy.

The Coupon Books are selling like tickets to a Live Wire banquet and there is much speculation as to who will win the special prizes now on exhibition in Huntley Bros. Co. window. These prizes will be awarded the contestant selling the largest number of Huntley Bros. Co. Coupon Books up to Jan. 15th. Some of the entrants are plainly out for the 6000 votes that goes with the sale of each book, while others are keeping their eyes on the set of dishes and silverware.

The contestant whose number is "2" is a man—a man from every standpoint—He is a government man—a fact which wouldn't make things any too pleasant for him in some of the mountain regions of Kentucky where all the whiskey made does not bear the government stamp. But out here—this man, who is a mail carrier, is very popular on his route. If you know him real well you will understand the reason for he is one of the most obliging men who leave the local post office each morning, carrying letters which bring news to some and sad tidings to others.

No. 2 has been right there "every since the first day of the race and is confident that after May first he can turn his horse loose out in the pasture and serve his patrons with the fastest service "west of Chicago." In his own words he needs the big machine in his business, horse pasture is higher than the cost of gasoline and above all in his mind, he can serve his people in a much more efficient manner.

COUNTY FOURTH IN FRUIT PRODUCTION

STATE EXPERT TELLS OF REMARKABLE GAIN MADE BY GROWERS HERE

METHODS OF FIGHTING PESTS GIVEN

School Children are Urged to Aid in Great Work—Crop in 1910 Brought $321,000

H. M. Williamson, Secretary of the State Board of Horticulture, at a meeting Wednesday afternoon of fruit-growers and others, announced that Clackamas County was fourth in the production of fruit of the counties of the state. The meeting was held in the Commercial Club rooms and was for the purpose of educating the fruit-growers regarding the discovery and combatting of pests and diseases and to stimulate the industry in this county. Several years ago, Mr. Williamson said, at least a dozen counties in the state lead Clackamas in the production of fruit.

"From 1900 to 1910," said the speaker, "the number of fruit trees in the county decreased from 462,000 to 282,000, which was caused by getting rid of worthless trees. However, in that period the production increased wonderfully. In 1900 50,000 bushels of fruit was the production, while in 1910 the production was 332,000 bushels. The value of the crop, including nuts, in 1900 was $65,000 and in 1910 it was $321,000. So if the county continues its rapid stride there is no telling where it will land as a fruit producing section."

A. C. Goodrich, fruit commissioner of this district, explained the various fruit tree diseases and how to combat them. He directed his address largely to the children, a score or more being present. Brenton Vedder, principal of the Gladstone School, accompanied a number of the pupils of the school to the club rooms.

H. G. Huntington, of Dover, said that fruit growing in his section had received a remarkable impetus recently. O. E. Freytag, County Fruit Inspector, elaborated upon the methods used for destroying pests and eradicating disease. The same men will speak at Barlow and Canby today, at Wilsonville tomorrow and at Eagle Creek and Estacada Saturday.

Few towns of the state have made more progress during the past year than has Canby, the thriving city in the southern part of Clackamas County. During the year there were erected twenty residences, five concrete business and lodge blocks, and one large concrete church, but still the demand for suitable dwellings and stores (Continued on page 4)

COUNCIL HEARS WATER REPORT

MEETING TOMORROW NIGHT TO FURTHER CONSIDER IMPORTANT SUBJECT

TOOZE URGES HYDROCHLORIDE PLANT

Residents of City are Urged to Suggest Names for Parks—Paving Company Gets Extension

The city council Wednesday night after hearing a report by Councilman Tooze, and suggestions by R. T. McRain, and T. W. Sullivan of the Live Wires, regarding the water supply, called a special meeting for tomorrow night to further consider the subject. The report of Mr. Tooze was virtually the same he made at the meeting of the Live Wires the evening before, but was elaborated upon considerably. He suggested that a hydrochloride plant be installed and that the intake pipe as soon as it was possible be moved further out in the river. While he did not maintain that this would give the city pure water, he believed that it would greatly minimize the chances of the water causing disease, and would at least be the best thing that could be done, until a supply, if it were thought advisable, could be obtained from another source.

The speaker said an analysis should be made immediately after the hydrochloride system was installed in case the council decided it should be. Then, he declared, if the water were found to be stinky, other arrangements could be made. He also called attention to the fact that something should be done at once, declaring that owing to the present condition many persons, including school children were not drinking a sufficient amount of water.

Lewis C. Kelsay, consulting engineer for the State Board of Health, explained to the council the plan to obtain water from Clear Lake, and spoke of other sources from which water might be obtained.

The meeting was attended by Councilmen Horton, Albright, Metzner, Long, Meyer, Beard and Tooze. Mr. Beard was exonerated of a charge of having served as an election officer. The charter provides that no city official shall serve in such capacity. A representative of the Southern Pacific Railway objected to an assessment for street improvement purposes. The city recorder and city engineer will make an investigation.

JUROR HEARS BROTHER IS DEAD; EXCUSED

N. R. Graham, of Elliott Prairie, a member of the jury which is hearing the evidence in the $7,500 damage suit of Mary E. Conking, administratrix of the estate of Jesse Crippen against the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company, was notified Wednesday while evidence was being heard that his brother, John Graham, has just died. J. E. Jack, county assessor, received the information over telephone. Judge Eakin suggested that Mr. Graham could be excused if the lawyers were willing that eleven men compose the jury. The lawyers agreed at once. John Graham formerly was superintendent of the Schools of Marion County, and had for several years lived in Eastern Oregon. Crippen was killed while in the employ of the defendant company at its plant at Milwaukie. A verdict will be reached today.

GRAND JURY IN SESSION.
The grand jury, which was reconvened Wednesday, is expected to make a report today. The jury is considering evidence in several important cases.

The sever on John Quincy Adams Street was accepted with the exception of a portion between Thirteenth and Fourteenth Streets. City Engineer Yale was instructed to make an examination of the work. The recorder was instructed to notify the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company to install arc lamps at Fourteenth and Jackson Streets and Sixteenth and Harrison Streets as authorized by the council. An ordinance providing for a concrete wall on Main between Eleventh and Twelfth Streets, was passed. Mr. Tooze urged the employment of a chemist to examine the materials used in the hard surface pavement, but his motion (Continued on page 4)
