WILLIAMS PICKS FEDERAL PLUMS

NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN SUBMITS OREGON POSSIBILITIES TO PRESIDENT TAFT

M'CUSKER PORTLAND POSTMASTER

Office Seekers' Chances Depend on the Ability of Republican Senate to Confirm Them

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—National Committeeman Williams today recommended to President Taft that the following federal appointments be made in Oregon:

Thomas McCusker, postmaster at Portland; John H. Burgard, collector of customs, Portland; E. C. Kirkpatrick, of Dallas, United States marshal; C. V. Johnson, of Corvallis, appraiser of customs at Portland; D. L. Keyt, of Portland, surveyor-general; Frank L. Parker, collector of customs at Astoria; L. H. Arneson, receiver of the Dalles land office; Harold T. Hopkins, register of the Dalles land office; Preston A. Worthington, receiver of the Burns land office.

The following presidential postmasters also were recommended:

Frank J. Carney, Astoria; John E. Logan, Burns; Ella V. Powers, Canyon City; Ben Weathers, Enterprise; John E. Beasley, Falls City; William M. Brown, Lebanon; F. W. Harnes, Roseburg; Edgar Hostetler, The Dalles; Merritt A. Baker, Weston; Phillip A. Livesly, Woodburn; John H. Peare, La Grande; John F. Miller, Jacksonville.

Every man recommended by Williams supported President Taft.

While no appointments have yet been announced, it is expected that nominations in accordance with the foregoing recommendations will be made tomorrow or Monday.

The prospect for the confirmation of most, if not all, of these men is regarded as favorable, if the Republican senators can break the Democratic opposition and compel a minority of the senate to assent to the confirmation of those Taft appointees who are not personally objectionable to individual senators. Senator Chamberlain indicated today that he probably would not oppose confirmation in cases where appointments have been delayed, and he has previously intimated that he would not object to confirmation where appointments are made when the terms of incumbents expire, provided the men appointed are not personally objectionable to him.

JURY LIST DRAWN

The jury list of Clackamas County for the current year was drawn Friday by the County Court. There are more than 200 names of taxpayers. This is one of the arduous duties of the County Court at the January term.

If you saw it in the Enterprise it's no.

PROGRESS EDITION ALMOST READY

FORMS WILL CLOSE FOR BIG ANNUAL NUMBER WITHIN A FEW DAYS

BULK OF MATTER IS NOW IN TYPE

Patrons Desiring Representation in Coming Issue Should Make Arrangements for Same Without Delay

After a full month of steady and consistent work in compiling the Progress and Anniversary Edition of the Morning Enterprise the time is drawing near when the big booster number will be finally completed and will start on its way to the four corners of the United States carrying the message of Clackamas County's opportunities.

A great deal of the matter that will go into the issue is already in type, the most of it in fact, and the press will begin the first of the week.

While there are a goodly number of business people yet to be seen relative to taking space in the magazine that part of the work remaining to be done will be gone through with as rapidly as possible, making a sort of "whitewash" as it were.

Notwithstanding it is the desire and intention of the publishers to overlook no responsible business interest or individual who might be interested in having representation in the Annual it often happens that some are overlooked, regardless of the care taken in making a close canvass. Last year there were several who expressed regret that they were not called on. It is suggested that anyone who desires full information as to the character of the publication and the basis upon which representation therein may be had, would do well to get in touch with the Enterprise office before January 14.

Below is a list of those who have already signified their intention of co-operating with the Enterprise in this matter:

Word Declares Wrestling Has Got To Stop

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 10.—There will be no more professional wrestling in Multnomah County. Sheriff Tom yesterday made this announcement in a letter which he sent to the manager for Zyzsko, the Pole, who claims the championship of the world since the retirement of Gotch. Zyzsko is now in Pendleton, and his manager expected to bring him to Portland for a match on the mat with Montanic, the Umatilla Indian, who has gained fame as a football player and general athlete.

Word has had his suspicions aroused as to the "squareness" of the various bouts pulled off in Portland during the past year. He is firm in the belief that most of the matches have been "fixed."

LARGE SUM FOR FAIR OPPOSED BY SOLONS

Considerable interest is being taken in the proposed bill to appropriate a fund for an Oregon exhibit at the Panama Exposition at San Francisco in 1915. This is a matter that will have to be determined at the coming session of the Legislature, which meets next Monday. Members of the Legislature have gone on record as favoring an appropriation, ranging from $100,000 to $500,000, but the Clackamas delegation will be opposed to a heavy appropriation. C. Schuebel of this city, who is recovering from a severe illness, and will be at Salem at the opening of the legislative assembly, believes that $100,000 is sufficient to appropriate, and he will oppose any appropriation in excess of $150,000.

Mr. Schuebel favors the appointment of an Oregon world's fair commission by the Governor or the Legislature.

Gustav A. Schnoerr, Representative from Clackamas County, looking at the matter from the standpoint of the taxpayer in general, believes that an appropriation of from $125,000 to $150,000 should be enough, but viewing the question from a standpoint of adequate recognition of so great a project as the completion of the Panama Canal, considers that perhaps $500,000 would not be too much. He says:

"In the construction of the canal American genius, energy and perseverance have erected unto themselves a lasting monument. The whole world will join with us in 1915 to celebrate the opening of the great canal. Oregon ought not to wait to follow the example of other states, but should be one of the first, especially as we have all to gain and nothing to lose by the opening."

Mr. Schnoerr advocates the raising of a large amount by popular subscription as a means of Oregon's making an adequate showing. He believes that societies should be formed in every community of the state for the purpose of soliciting subscription and that in a few months a large fund could be accumulated.

College "Profs" Hold 1-Round Prize Fight

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Jan. 10.—A disagreement over the matter of some of the typewriter ribbons, to be used on the machines of the commerce department, led to a pretty quarrel, which may lead to some serious action on the part of the board of regents of the Oregon Agricultural college. A couple of black eyes are the only visible results, at the present time, but developments will follow.

The trouble is said to have started when Assistant Professor E. B. Moore of the stenography classes went over to the business office to get some new typewriter ribbons for his machines. C. A. Dobell, business manager of the college, stated that there were already some ribbons at the college bookstore. These ribbons do not suit Professor Moore, who asked Dobell to order some more.

Upon the refusal of the latter party to order them, an argument ensued which resulted in blows being exchanged. Both of the participants in the affair have black eyes, but further than that, nothing could be ascertained definitely.

There are four candidates in the field for Chief of the department they being Fred W. Humphrys of Columbia Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, Mike Long, Green Point Company No. 4, Charles Gottberg, Mountain View No. 5, and Frank Schoenborn, No. 2. The election will take place March 1.

At a meeting of Columbia Hook and Ladder Company a large crowd was present including a number of visitors from other companies. Light refreshments were served after the business was finished.

RUNAWAY TELESCOPES WAGON; NO INJURIES

An unusual runaway was that which occurred on Twelfth Street at 10 o'clock Friday morning. The team, which belongs to the Oregon Engineering & Construction Company, became frightened at a steam roller used in laying the pavement on Lower Main Street. The team, which was attached to a lumber wagon started madly up Twelfth Street. When it came to the Southern Pacific viaduct, which is supported by a row of piling in the middle of the thoroughfare, one horse went on one side of the piling and the other horse on the other side. The result was a badly telescoped wagon, broken harness and bruised horses. Nobody was injured.

If it happened it is in the Enterprise.

COUNCIL FAVORS CHEMICAL PLANT

PASS RESOLUTION ADVOCATING HYDROCHLORIDE WATER SYSTEM

LATEST ANALYSIS IS MADE PUBLIC

Superintendent Howell Declares Typhoid Germs Have not Been Found in City Filters

At a special meeting of the Oregon City council held Friday evening to consider the question of getting a pure water supply the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That the Council go on record as favoring the installation of a hydrochloride plant by the water board". This resolution was adopted by the council after a general discussion on the matter by the members, the water board, physicians, and others present.

The meeting was opened with a few remarks by Councilman Toose on the general water situation, followed by a discussion by T. W. Sullivan who advised the council to use caution in proceeding in the matter. He went on to show how that in his opinion the hydrochloride plant was the best for the city to install at this time, for the reason that it would take several years to get water from any outside supply, and then only at a large cost to the city. Mr. Sullivan said
