OREGON CITY The Oregon City FREE LIBRARY free library will be opened about February 1. It will be one of the finest libraries in a city of the class of this in the United States. There will be plenty of the best books, the building will be modern and well appointed for library purposes, and skilled librarians will be in charge. Through the efforts of B. T. McBain, Andrew Carnegie was induced to give $12,500 for the establishment of a Hbrary in this city. The money donated by Carnegie was used in the construction of the building. The site was donated by the city, and the books are the same that the citizens of the city have had access to for sometime. The new building, of course, will be an incentive to public spirited citizens to make more donations of books and within a few years

The obtaining of the library teaches an important lesson-nothing worth having can be obtained without work. Mr. McBain believed that the city was entitled to a modern library and that Mr. Carnegie would give assistance if the advantages and the needs of the city were fully explained to him. Mr. McBain did this with the result that the city will soon have a modern library.

the library should contain virtually all works of importance

PREDICAMENT The Enterprise has OF W. J. BRYAN always admired W. J. Bryan, although differing from him politically. We believe Mr. Bryan is a big man. We could not be honest and believe otherwise. Many of the reforms now advocated by Mr. Wilson and Mr. Roosevelt were advocated by Mr. Bryan years ago. Some people say the Commoner was in advance of the age. While we will not hazard a guess on that question we do believe that Mr. Bryan is honest and that his political am a SPECTATOR now as well activity has been of much good to the country.

However, we fear that Mr. Bryan may soon have his troubles. It is ONE OF THE MOST BLESSED not inconceivable that President-Elect GIFTS AND INSTITUTIONS OF Wilson will fail to name Mr. Bryan HEAVEN-ESPECIALLY FOR THE Secretary of State if the Nebraskan MEN. wishes the place. What we would like to hear is that Mr. Bryan does not Americans Music Lovers are beginning to want the portfolio and, if offered it, will decline. Although Bryan is responsible for Wilson's nomination they cannot be of the same political family. Bryan has been accustomed to dictating policies too long to take a back seat. A man of his standing in the Democratic party realizing that he is the maker of the president. it seems to us, could not regulate himself when great questions come before the cabinet meetings. Bryan is not the kind of a man not to assert himself. And it is a foregone con- era is always INclusion that he would do so within TELLIGENT. four years, and possibly at the very time when the president wished to be in the limelight himself. It will be better for the Democratic party if Bryan is not made a member of the ater that will GIVE HIM THE why there are so few artists nowacabinet and infinitely better for Mr. BEST PERFORMANCE. "Official" Photograph of The President Elect's Wife

@ 1912, by Marceau, New York

OU have no doubt seen a picture of America's new "first lady of the land." Mrs Woodrow Wilson, but this will interest you especially because it is her "official" photograph Of all the pictures she has had taken since her husband was elected president this was selected by her as the best and promptly labeled "official." While Governor Wilson is laboring with appointments and the detail of his approaching assumption to office on March 4 next, Mrs Wilson is busy with the social side of her new life The duties as president's wife are many and exacting

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: N. W. Bowland, president; A. O. Pace, vice president; Kent Wilson, secretary; R. Landsborough, chanlain. After the election of officers an address was made by Mr. Bowland who officiated at the meeting, and he was followed by the reading of the constitution by Mr. Landsborough.

C. A. Phipps, secretary of the Oregon State Sunday School Association. was the main speaker of the evening, his subject being, "Man and the Church." His address was a fine one. He told of the new relationship of man to the church. Throughout his address Mr. Phipps made a strong plea that the young men should be brought up in the church.
