"Will your daughter take a special course at college?"
"We think so."
"What?"
"We haven't decided yet. She wants to take fancy dancing and dramatic art, her grandmother wants her to take music, I want her to take domestic science, and her mother wants her to learn the multiplication table and how to spell."

SCORES OF PERSONS COMING TO COUNTY

Since the first of the year the Publicity Department of the Oregon City Commercial Club has received from fifteen to forty letters from prospective settlers, as the result of a publicity crusade waged in the east by O. E. Freytag, Publicity Manager. These letters came from all parts of the east and it is gratifying that practically all of the inquiries are from persons possessing a certain amount of capital and who wish to come to the west either to give their children better advantages, or to find a more moderate climate for themselves. The following letter is a fair sample of the many letters that are being received:

Urick, Mo., Jan. 8, 1913.

"The Oregon City Publicity, Oregon City, Or.

"Gentlemen: Through the kindness of friends I have been receiving your paper for some time and in reading the same I have become interested in your country. I like your plan of talking honestly to the people of the country, outside of Oregon, about your country. You will find enclosed 10 cents, for your paper for a year and I hope to be able to visit your city some time in the future with the view of locating there.

Yours Resp.

"H. KEPNER."

SNAPSHOTS OF LA MODE.

Brown Costumes Should Be Very Carefully Planned.

When planning a brown costume special care must be given to the exact tint of the color chosen. Some browns are best combined with yellow, others with red, and no other color will bring out the lights and shades of the particular material as well. In fact, it is extraordinary how much richer and deeper a red brown will look if a touch of vivid red is introduced.

Plain cloth and satin dresses have velvet sashes of a brilliant color, with the uneven ends falling toward one side.

This illustration shows one of the newest skirts of the season. There are only front and back portions, and the back is lapped over the front, and its front edges are so shaped that they almost meet at the upper edge.

The Clackamas County Senator has made a fine record, and it has been expected for some time that he would be named on the most important committees. Senator Dimick several months ago was mentioned in connection with the presidency of the senate, but informed his friends then that he felt he could be of more service acting in the usual capacity of senator.

In a special offer made by the Enterprise the mail carrier easily defeated all competitors and greatly improved his standing. Mr. Whitman wishes to thank the persons who live on his mail route for their assistance in enabling him to be one of the leading contenders in the race for an automobile, which he intends to use, in case he wins it, in facilitating the delivery of their mail.

U'Ren, Miss Myrtle Buchanan and E. P. Carter, let the contract for the furniture to be made to the Pacific States Company of Portland and the contract for the other furniture to Frank Busch. HURT IN COLLISION, HE GETS 2 VERDICTS

He was represented by Grant B. Dimick. The plaintiff recently was awarded a verdict of $3,500 in this city. Sundergard, while working at Wilsonville, was knocked from a trestle and seriously injured. He was taken to Portland on a special car. changes in the rules, which he thought should be approved, as tending to increase the efficiency of every legislature.

These recommendations, which were included in a minority report which he presented, included a proposal to reduce the number of house committees from 41 to 25; a provision for scheduling all committee meetings and leaving them open to all members of both houses and the press; and to require that every bill be reported back to the house by the committee to which it was referred within seven days.

In the majority report presented by Laughlin, Abbott, Mann and Forbes these two latter provisions were included in a modified form.

The majority report gave 12 days instead of seven for committees to report on bills.

Despite strenuous effort on the part of Eaton and Parsons, his colleague from Lahe to go into committee of the whole to propose amendments to the majority report after the minority report had been defeated by a rousing chorus of "aays", a vote was forced on the majority report before lunch in its entirety. It was adopted as a whole.

This morning's debate was the first stir in the calm that has prevailed in the house since it convened yesterday morning. Though the debate on the rules grew hot at times, the best of feeling prevailed.

Beginning his address to the house, Eaton declared that the rules committee had delayed signing up its majority report until five minutes before the opening of the session to compel him to prepare his minority report in a hurry.

"I had expected opposition to the proposed committee on committees", he said, "but I expected none to these other reforms. In order not to embarrass any one at this session, which has begun so auspiciously, I have dropped my proposed committee on committees, and am basing my fight on other reforms to which I think there can be no reasonable objection."

Sleeper Sharks.
The great sleeper shark is a most stupid, gluttonous species—as, in fact, are most of the sharks—and spends most of its time dozing on the surface of the sea. When aroused or hungry it attacks whales, porpoises, or, in fact, anything it can find, and bites pieces from its victims with its knife-like teeth. At such times it seems perfectly oblivious to pain or fright and can be hacked with knives and pierced with spears without paying the least attention or seeming to take any notice. This savage creature reaches a length of thirty to forty feet and is fully as large and even more formidable than are the true man eating sharks.

Badly Swollen.
Hewitt—Large bodies move slowly. Jewett—I don't see how you can shake your head.—New York Press.

Pendulums.
In the latitude of New York a pendulum must be 39.1 inches to vibrate every second. Nearer to the pole such pendulum would vibrate more rapidly and nearer to the equator more slowly, for the reason that the pull of the earth is less, since at the equator the pendulum is farther from the center of gravity of the earth.

GLADSTONE TREASURY IN FINE CONDITION

The Gladstone city council Tuesday evening passed ordinances relating to the services of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company and the Home Telephone Company. The ordinances provide that the companies shall pay to the city fifty cents for each telephone and that all companies must use the same polls. The polls must be 40 feet high and must be given two coats of paint annually. The council also reserves the right to order the polls painted when it sees fit. The companies have not accepted the proposition of the council. An ordinance providing for the licensing of dogs was introduced. It provides a license of $2 annually for male dogs and $5 for female dogs. An ordinance providing for the improvement of Dartmouth Street was passed. The reports of the various departments showed that there was more money in the city treasury than ever before. Mayor Cross appointed the following committees:

Finance—T. C. Howell, J. M. Tracy and James Wilkinson.

Streets—C. A. Parrish, J. M. Tracy and Fred Bailey.

Fire and Water—James Wilkinson, T. C. Howell and R. A. Williams.

Health and Police—James Tracey, T. C. Howell and Fred Bailey.

Mrs. Minnie E. Church, the first woman treasurer of the city, made a report which was most gratifying to the councilmen.
