TITANIC WIDOWS ASK BIG SUMS

MRS. HENRY B. HARRIS SUES FOR $1,500,000 FOR LOSS OF HUSBAND

E. S. HURST, judge, declared that if the law required of him that he decide the case, he would hold that the amounts claimed by the plaintiffs were excessive and that he would enter a judgment for a smaller sum. He also declared that he would enter a judgment in favor of the plaintiffs, but that he would not enter a judgment for the amounts claimed by the plaintiffs.
