The Mulberry Tree.
 Silk is the great industry of northern Italy, and the plains of the quadrilateral are dark with mulberry trees. The mulberry tree is the hardest worked piece of timber in the world. First its leaves are skinned off for the worms to feed on, then the little branches are clipped for the worms to nest in, then the large limbs are cropped for charcoal, and the trunk has not only to produce a new crop of leaves and limbs for next year, but must act as trellis for a grapevine.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE

WHAT IS THE MATTER?

This is the story:
 Henry Weinbaum of New York was a clothes presser earning $12 a week. On this sum he supported himself, his wife and four small children.
 The wife died.
 Weinbaum was confronted with a situation most heartbreaking. He must care for the four motherless children and at the same time be away from his home and employed at his work, else the children would have nothing to eat.
 Somehow for several months he managed to get along.
 Then he did about the only thing he could do under the circumstances. He married again.
 Unfortunately he made a poor choice of a second wife. She complained that the children made too much work and demanded that they be put in a public institution.
 To save his little family from such a fate was Weinbaum's purpose in getting his children their new mother. He wanted to keep his little brood together. Therefore he refused her request.
 She sued him for divorce.
 On just what grounds the divorce was granted is not clear, but the judge gave her a decree. As part of the judgment Weinbaum was ordered to pay the woman $4 per week alimony.
 Of course the man could not pay that sum and support his family. The other day he was arrested, his arrears, with costs, amounting to $207.88.
 In default of payment he was sent to Ludlow street jail.
 Now—
 Wife No. 2 is free from the care of the troublesome children. Weinbaum is in jail with no prospect of release and the children are wards of charity.
 Even the jailer remarked when Weinbaum was committed—jailers are hot particularly free with sympathy—that "there must be something the matter with the law somehow."
 And there is something the matter with the law. But what?
 The law is out of gear.
 And yet it is difficult to find the cog and adjust it.
 Weinbaum is guilty of nothing but the best intentions and yet he is in jail.
 What is the matter with the law? Or is it merely that Weinbaum is poor?

WEATHER MAKES EGG MARKET UNCERTAIN

The market is but little changed from its condition of a week ago. The greatest fluctuation is in the egg market which seems to be uncertain due, largely to the bad weather. Butter is steady as are potatoes and onions. The failure of the California orange crops has caused a rise in the price of that fruit and has also made a much better price for apples.
