TAX LIST BILL Information received from Salem is that there is little likelihood the bill introduced by Representative Schuebel seeking the repeal of the measure passed in 1911, providing for the publication of delinquent tax lists, will become a law. In fact, it is reported Mr. Schuebel has little hope of his measure being passed, and admits that he in-introduced it at the request of a friend. When asked the identity of the friend the Clackamas County Representative said he was E. F. Riley, of the Clackamas Title Company, with offices in the Chamber of Commerce, Portland. It is possible that Mr. Riley being interested in the abstract business and having considerable to do with tax titles might be benefited indirectly through the abrogation of the measure providing for the publication of delinquents. But Mr. Riley's gain would be so small compared to the damage to others that his argument, if he intends to make one, should be of little avail. The publication of delinquent tax lists has from time immemorial been regarded as almost a necessity in the various states of the union. It is a service to the various counties in that it aids collections. Many persons, upon seeing their names on the lists make haste to pay the amount due for fear their credit might suffer. Other persons, interested in a large number of tracts, learn from the lists that they unintentionally failed to pay the taxes on certain tracts. The fault was not with them at all, and surely they should have the benefit of knowing of their arrearsages. It is necessary in order that they avoid the possibility of having clouds on their titles.

The bill passed in 1911 provides that in counties with populations of 10,000 or more the two county papers having the largest circulations shall publish the delinquent tax lists, the maximum cost not to exceed the fixed rate for legal notices. It was not until all phases of the subject had been carefully considered that the bill was passed by the Legislature, and, inasmuch as its operation has been of benefit to the county and many taxpayers as well, it is not conceivable that the present Legislature will give the measure its death blow. The cost of publication is borne by the property advertised.

CLACKAMAS GAINS The report IN FRUIT GROWING

that Clackamas County in less than ten years has advanced in the production of fruit from almost the twentieth to the fourth county in the state should be gratifying to our horticulturists and land owners. It reveals the great possibilities here for growing fruit and should be an incentive for the planting of many more orchards. It has always been inconceivable to us why more fruit was not grown in this county when on the other side of Mount Hood with conditions not so much more favorable than here is grown the prize fruit of the world. But the report indicates that the Clackamas County residents are becoming alive to the great opportunity before them and eventually the county may become a rival of Hood River.

The recent meetings conducted by O. E. Freytag, county fruit inspector, and fruit experts representing the state, in various parts of the county, will have a splendid effect in stimulating the planting and proper caring of orchards. They explained the benefits of pruning and gave lessons regarding the combatting of pests and diseases. With proper care in the selection of trees, proper attention after planting and proper handling of fruit for marketing there is no reason why Clackamas County should not advance to at least second place in fruit production.

Patriarch of Greek Church Buried Sitting In His Chair

HIS all holiness Joachim III, the Greek patriarch, who died recently at Constantinople, was after death fully vested and placed in a sitting posture in the episcopal chair. The public then filed past the chair and paid their last tributes of veneration by kissing the robes of the deceased prelate, as shown in the picture at the top. The patriarch was borne, sitting in the chair, to his last resting place at the monastery of St. Demetrius. He wore the Byzantine orobe. The procession, including sailors and soldiers, was extremely odd to witness.

Lives Sacrificed In Quest of Almighty Dollar

By HARVEY W. WILEY, Pure Food Expert

ALTHOUGH life is the greatest wealth in this country, thousands EXCHANGE IT IN THE CHASE FOR THE DOLLAR, which they must give up when they surrender the life which they sacrificed to get the dollar.
FOOD ADULTERATION does more to lower the expectation of life than any other cause. It has placed the average life of man at forty-four years, when we all know that at the age of forty he has just completed his education and that man or woman does not reach the maximum of service to humanity until after the age of sixty.
FIFTY-TWO PER CENT OF ALL THE DISEASES WHICH CUT SHORT HUMAN LIFE IS DUE TO IMPURE FOODS.

Should I ask you what is your greatest industry I know most of you would answer correctly. It is EATING. In sixty years we spend five years at the table. The average man or woman spends twenty years of sixty preparing the food and clearing away the table. Another twenty years of the sixty are spent in sleep, which is a part of eating, as it is the NUTRITION WHICH KEEPS US ALIVE.
Thus forty-five of the sixty years are occupied in eating. When adulterated foods are eaten eighteen hours of every twenty-four IS THERE ANY WONDER THAT WE DIE before we should?
THE CHASE AFTER THE DOLLAR IS RESPONSIBLE FOR FOOD ADULTERATIONS. EVERY PERSON WHO DEBASES A FOOD PRODUCT WHICH A POOR MAN HAS TO BUY IS NOT ONLY DISHONEST, BUT HE IS A CRIMINAL, A MURDERER. WHAT THIS COUNTRY WANTS IS BETTER FOOD AT LOWER PRICES, NOT WORSE FOOD AT HIGHER PRICES.
There are 10,000 whom food adulterations benefit and 99,990,000 in this country who suffer. The smaller number represents the millionaires and billionnaires who adulterate the foods, and the other is the poorer class which buys them.
No mother should neglect to teach her daughters how to cook.

RESPONSIBILITY

for many of our misfortunes lies in our lack of foresight. We must look beyond tomorrow. It is a vital matter in these days of 'high cost' of living to save out of present earnings something for the future. It is not the 3 per cent interest this bank pays on your deposit that is so important, but to get into the habit of saving is of much greater importance.
