DISCRIMINATION According to the FAVORS PORTLAND

new time table of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, the running time from Oregon City to Gladstone is nine minutes and that from Gladstone to Oregon City 14 minutes, from Jennings Lodge to Oregon City the time is 19 minutes, while from Oregon City to Jennings Lodge the scheduled time is 13 minutes. From Oak Grove the same difference of schedule can be noticed. The fact that it takes longer to go from any of the above mentioned stations to Oregon City than it does to go from Oregon City to them, would seem to be a discrimination against Oregon City, inasmuch as the running time into this city from the above stations is much slower than it is from this city into those stations. This fact may account for the reason why in coming Oregon City cars so often remain on the Green Point switch from five to ten minutes while waiting for the out going car to pass. The new schedule also announces that the running time from Oregon City to Portland is 57 minutes and the time from Portland to Oregon City is 58 minutes. Several years ago the running time between the two points was 50 minutes, but this was before there were over 40 stops on the line. If the country between this city and Portland settles as it is bound to do within the next few years, residents of Oregon City will be doing well to get into the metropolis in less than two hours, over the line of the P. R. L. & P. Considering the immense volume of business that is done between the two points it would seem that limited trains stopping at a few of the more important stations might well be added to improve the service that now exists. The Oregon Electric which has only been in operation a few years has regular limited trains from Salem, Eugene and Forest Grove.

THE CASE OF WIL- WILLIAM ROCKEFELLER feller must have service before the Pujo House committee as a witness, before he can be held as advised of his summoning. Nobody doubts that he is thoroughly advised of that fact. It is knowledge of that fact which has forced him to remain under cover during all the inclement weather and has now, in spite of his sheltered life, brought on a severe attack of laryngitis. Still, according to a legal fiction, which is well worth preserving, Mr. Rockefeller doesn't know that a subpoena has been issued for him, in the only legal way in which a witness can be made to know it through service.

This is a form and fiction of the law which is well worth keeping. Because, whatever the hue and cry against a very wealthy man, who undoubtedly knows of how wealth has been manipulated in this country for the enrichment of an inner circle of plutocrats at the expense of every body else, the immunity of Rockefeller is the sort of immunity which may, at any time, be used by any honest man, to serve the ends of justice or defeat the ends of injustice. Avoiding service can, and we know has been done, to deal mercy, and to save the weak from the strong. No man can have mixed much in the life of this midcontinent, still comparatively rude and crude and "in the making," without gaining knowledge of how grim silence has been held by flying men who would have come from nothing but the danger of injuring a good friend or a good cause.

A FREE BOOK

"The Story of Bread," an interesting little book, issued by the I H C Service Bureau, Chicago, will be mailed free to any person who asks for it. This story is being used in hundreds of schools for supplementary reading, and in a pleasant way it makes plain why bread is called "the staff of life"—what plenty of good wheat bread has done for the progress of the world. A big illustrated lecture, "The Dawn of Plenty," with colored views and motion pictures, grew out of the main theme of "The Story of Bread." This lecture is being presented before schools, colleges, chautauquas, and other gatherings.

STANDARDIZATION OF SCHOOLS

By T. J. Gary, County Superintendent. In order that there may be a better understanding as to what constitutes a good school, to afford a means of comparison between different schools in the county and to encourage better conditions a scheme of standardization has been arranged by the County School Superintendents and Supervisors. The requirements for a "Class A" school are as follows: Grounds well drained and free from rubbish. Sidewalks where needed. Shade trees. Ornamental shrubs or flowers. Ample space for play. Out buildings sufficiently large, clean, sanitary and free from markings. Modern heating and ventilating system. Sufficient light coming from left side or from left and rear. Approved window shades. Single seats, sizes to suit all pupils. Sufficient blackboard, either hyloplate or something equally as good. Sanitary drinking water. Floors, walls and furniture clean. Classical pictures artistically framed. Library in good case. Pocket system of recording or something equally as good. Good dictionary and holder. Flag. All pupils attending according to law. Per cent of attendance, ninety five. Punctuality, ninety-eight. Good work, order at all times, courteous demeanor toward all people. Flag salute. Watchful interest over the school on the part of the Board of Directors and business done according to law. The Clerk's reports accurate and on time, records properly kept. It is a distinctive honor to be graded as a Class A school, as the requirements are high, but think persons will agree that there is nothing in the requirements too good for our children. The first school to win the honor was the Witchita school. The work done by this school to put it in the Class A was not burdensome to anyone. The teachers and pupils removed all rubbish from the ground, cleaned off the undergrowth and fall timber in the grove, spaded small plots of ground, after fertilizing them,

Annual Wall Game Played At Etou--They're After the Ball

THIS illustrates an exciting moment in the annual wall game, which was the chief event in the recent St. Andrew's day celebration at Etou. To one who does not understand the game it looks as though the players were here engaged in the pleasant pastime of trying to buck their way through the stone wall. They're not. It's merely a jolly, hard scramble after the ball, which is bounced against the wall for points something like our handball. This game was between the villagers and oppidians, and the chaps on the top of the wall formed part of the crowd who looked on. The game resulted in a win for the villagers of one shot to one.

and planted flowers and shrubbery. The boys made window boxes and filled them with rich soil and the girls planted flowers in them. The teachers provided sash curtains which were hemmed by the boys and girls. The teachers bought pictures for class study which were framed by donations from pupils and the parent teachers circle. At the beginning of the year there was not a picture in the building. Each room was presented with a picture by patrons of the school. They now have eighteen classical pictures. The parent-teachers circle fitted up a vacant room, in the school building, for a library and to be used as a social center for the community. The library was provided with the pocket system of cataloging. The directors furnished supplies, window boards, resealed one room, provided clocks, thermometer and globe. The school is doing some manual training and domestic art work; also giving credit for home work.

It will be noted that this school did some things that were not required in the standardization scheme. "Class B" schools have a fixed standard not too high for any school. The requirements are the same as for Class A, except in the following particulars. Sidewalks and ornamental shrubs or flowers not being required on the grounds. In the buildings stove with jacket and the window boards in the windows, and comfortable seats meet the requirements. Classical pictures are not required for such schools. The requirements of the schools are not so exacting ninety per cent attendance, and ninety per cent punctuality being required. No rude conduct toward others in place of courteous demeanor toward all people. All schools not in class A or B will be graded as class C schools. It is not expected that all schools shall pass into class B immediately but it is sincerely hoped that all will try to attain that distinction soon.

The Body Lives After We Are Dead

By Dr. ALEXIS CARREL, Winner of Nobel Prize For Medicine and Surgery

THERE are two kinds of death—general death, or death of the whole organism, and elemental death, or death of the tissues and organs.

AT THE MOMENT A MAN DIES EVERY HEALTHY ORGAN IN HIM CONTINUES TO LIVE FOR AN APPRECIABLE SPACE OF TIME AND WILL CONTINUE TO LIVE INDEFINITELY IF THE PROPER CIRCULATION OF BLOOD IS RESTORED TO IT BY TRANSPLANTATION TO A LIVING BODY.

A man, for instance, is stabbed through the heart and killed. His PERSONALITY HAS DISAPPEARED. He is dead.

However, all the organs and tissues which compose the body are STILL LIVING.

The life of every tissue and organ of the body could go on if a proper circulation were given back to them. If it were possible to transplant immediately after death the tissues and organs which compose the body into other human organisms no elemental death would occur, and all the constituent parts of the body would CONTINUE TO LIVE. The man, however, would be DEAD, for his PERSONALITY would have disappeared.

Immediately after general death ELEMENTARY DEATH begins. It is a complex and slow process which progressively destroys the living matter. We cannot know directly whether or not a tissue is living and by what chemical or physical peculiarities a living being differs from its corpse.

THERE IS NO RE-AGENT OF LIFE.

RESPONSIBILITY

for many of our misfortunes lies in our lack of forethought. We must look beyond tomorrow. It is a vital matter in these days of "high cost" of living to save out of present earnings something for the future. It is not the 3 per cent interest this bank pays on your deposit that is so important, but, to get into the habit of saving is of much greater importance.
