By Senator Neuner— A bill for an act to require every individual, firm or corporation operating a line of railway in the State of Oregon to equip its locomotive engine with electric headlights of sufficient candle power; making it the duty of prosecution, or other manner of enforcement of said laws, in any prosecuting district, county or precinct in the State of Oregon. Section 2. When appointed, said special officer shall qualify in the same manner as provided by law for regularly elected officers, and shall for all of the purposes of such office, or for the special purpose designated in the appointment, take charge of said office for a period not longer than ninety days at one time, with all of the power and authority of the regularly elected officers, and shall carry out the directions of the governor pursuant to the appointment in the same manner and to the same extent as the duly elected officer could by law do or perform, and in so far as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of the appointment, shall supplement, for the time being, and for said purposes, the regularly elected officer; provided, however, that no greater power shall be conferred upon any special officer than is by law lodged with a regularly elected officer. Section 3. The said special officer herein provided for shall receive a compensation for the time they shall be appointed equal to that received by the regularly elected officers, the treasurer of the State of Oregon in the same manner as the salaries of the regular officers whose place such special officers shall for the time take, and there is hereby appropriated out of the funds not otherwise provided for such purposes, the sum of ten thousand ($10,000) dollars for the ensuing two years, or so much thereof as may be necessary. Section 4. The regularly elected, qualified and acting officers shall during any appointment of a special officer receive the salaries provided by law to the same extent as though no officer had been appointed. By Representative Schuebel— A bill for an act to provide an additional method of foreclosing Special Assessments in incorporated cities or towns. Be it enacted by the people of the State of Oregon: Section 1. When an attempt may be or may have been made at any time by any officer of an incorporated city or town in the State of Oregon or the council thereof, acting under any provisions of the charter or any ordinance of such city or town, to levy an assessment or make a lien against any real property located in such city or town by reason of authority given by its charter, the city council, at its discretion, on motion entered in its minutes may order any such liens or attempted liens foreclosed and for that purpose may employ an attorney. Section 2. Any lien so ordered foreclosed shall be foreclosed by a suit in equity in the circuit court of the county in which said city or town is located, in the same manner as mortgages on real estate are now foreclosed, including service by summons, by personal service or by publication, trial or default, findings, decree or final judgment, execution, levy by the sheriff, sale, certificate of sale to purchaser and confirmation. Redemption from such foreclosure sale may be made as provided by the general laws of the state in foreclosure of mortgages. Section 3. In all cases where the court finds a lien has been perfected under the provisions of the charter or any ordinance of such city, the court shall enter a decree and judgment which shall include all amounts required by the charter to be paid, and all expenses for former liens, with costs and disbursements and foreclosure proceedings. In all other cases the court may find the benefit to the property and the expense to the Railroad Commission of this state to enforce the provisions of this act, and providing a penalty for the violation thereof. Be it enacted by the people of the State of Oregon: Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon: Section 1. It shall be the duty of every individual, firm or corporation operating any line of railroad of more than fifty miles of track within this state, to equip within six months after the passage of this act, every locomotive, power vehicle, power car and other equipment used as the equipment of or in the place of locomotives, except as are used exclusively for switching services in the railroad yard, and not elsewhere, with an electric headlight of sufficient candle power, measured with a reflector, to throw a light in clear weather, that will enable the operator of the same to plainly discern an object the size of a man at a distance of not less than eight hundred feet, and thereafter to maintain and use such headlight upon every such locomotive, vehicle, car or other equipment, when the same is operated in the night time. Section 2. Any individual, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than five hundred dollars for each offense, and in addition shall be liable for all damage resulting, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly from each violation. Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Railroad Commission of the State of Oregon to enforce the provisions of this act. Section 4. All acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. SALEM, Jan. 25, (Special).—The following bills have been introduced: By Senator McCullough— A bill for an act to carry into effect Section 10 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Oregon empowering the governor to appoint for a limited period special district attorneys, sheriffs, and constables, and to prescribe their duties and to provide compensation therefor. Whereas, Section 10 of Article V of the State of Oregon, requires the governor of the State of Oregon to take care that the laws be faithfully executed; and Whereas, there is no adequate provision now provided by statute to effectually carry out the mandate of said constitutional provision, by empowering the governor with authority to compel observance of said provision: Now, therefore, Be it enacted by the people of the State of Oregon: Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon: Section 1. The governor is hereby authorized, directed and empowered, whenever it comes to his notice that the criminal laws of the State of Oregon are not being faithfully executed to appoint, for a period not longer than ninety days at a time, special prosecuting attorneys, special sheriffs and special constables, for the purpose of enforcing the criminal laws of the State of Oregon, either in whole or in part, or for further arrest or

OREGON CITY TEAMS LOSE BOTH DEBATES

The debating teams of the Oregon City High school met defeat Saturday night both at The Dalles and in Oregon City, when the question, "Resolved That the President of the United States be Nominated and Elected by the Direct Vote of the People," was debated. The Oregon City team had the affirmative side at Oregon City and the negative in The Dalles. At Oregon City the vote was two to one in favor of the affirmative. The Oregon City team was represented by Elsie Telford, Evangeline Dye and Joseph Hedges, Jr., while The Dalles team at Oregon City was represented by Donald Lewis, Deadrick Wolf and Wilma Donald. For Oregon City Joseph Hedges did excellent work and Wilma Donald for the negative. It was the consensus of opinion that all of the participants were well prepared and that the Oregon City teams deserved a great deal of credit for the showing that they made in view of the fact that this is the first year the High school has been represented. The judges in Oregon City were H. W. Stone, Fred C. Wheelock and Judge Morrow, all of Portland, while the timekeeper was T. J. Gary. Previous to the debate in this city music was furnished by the High school orchestra, the Girls Glee Club and the Boys Octet. Are You Afflicted With Piles?
